

POLICE GET MANY COMPLAINTS ABOUT NEIGHBORS' WEEDS

Weeds on vacant lots are ruining the lawns of hundreds of homes in Portland; they are also worrying to destruction Captain Moore and Captain Inskeep of the police department and the men at the information desk. Hundreds of telephone calls are received daily on this day relief and the first night relief, and the demands are made for immediate investigation and action.

"If we answered the demands made on us," said Captain Moore, "every patrolman on the outlying districts would have to go armed with a sickle and a scythe, and he would be kept busy day and night cutting lawns and making hay."

BAD FOR HAY FEVER

"We agree with the owners of fine lawns in the outlying districts that there is nothing so discouraging as a fine crop of dandelions and plantain weeds next door, especially if you are afflicted with hay fever."

"But the police department is almost powerless to help the situation. Fully half the people who call us on the telephone do not know the owner of the objectionable lot, and if they investigate it the chances are 10 to one he is an out of town resident."

"If the owner of the lot lives in town and is known to the complainant, there is only one method to pursue in which the police can cooperate; but we are sorry to say that in the city the police have proved to be unsatisfactory. Come in to the police station and swear out a warrant for his arrest for violating the city ordinance. If he lives in the city the police will arrest him and bring him to court, but then it is up to the judge."

ONE CASE CARRIED OUT

"Out of the hundreds of complaints we have had by telephone this summer, only one person has carried the thing out according to Hoyle and caused an arrest. In that case the owner of the lot was a widow without sons to do the work for her and the judge let her go."

"It seems that people don't want to cause the arrest of their neighbors over things so trivial as high weeds in the next yard, so they call us up and tell us about it. But we can't go out and cut them down."

"I used to think the old song 'Tell Your Troubles to a Cop' was a joke, but the song of the weeds is not a joke any more, it is getting to be a nightmare."

Netherlands Consul Guest of Chamber

In honor of Haven C. Torchiana, consul-general for the Netherlands on the Pacific coast, the foreign commerce committee of the Chamber of Commerce held a luncheon at the chamber at noon today. H. A. Metzelaar, vice consul at Portland, was also a guest of honor at the luncheon. Torchiana, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Portland Thursday evening and will remain here until Saturday morning. Mrs. Torchiana is being entertained today by Mrs. Metzelaar.

Edict Out Against Burning of Rubbish

Housewives will pray for rain. An edict went forth from the office of Fire Marshal Grenfell today forbidding the ignition of rubbish fires in yards and back alleys during the dry spell. Numerous calls for the service of the fire department during recent weeks have resulted from smoldering sparks and embers whisked by the wind from rubbish fires and deposited on shingle roofs. "No more permits for fires will be granted until it rains," Grenfell announced.

Rob Hilgard Store Of $1000 in Goods

La Grande, July 22.—Scott's store at Hilgard, nine miles west of this city, was robbed last night of about $1000 worth of merchandise, consisting of flavoring extracts, clothing, cigarettes and tobacco. Indications are the robbery was committed by workers along the state highway. A sharp lookout is being kept by officers for intoxicated persons, as the flavoring extracts taken constituted a large part of the loot.

More Jobs Than Men In La Grande Region

La Grande, July 22.—For the first time since last October the unemployment situation has been relieved to such an extent that it was impossible to secure men to take jobs. A highway contractor scoured the city for 10 men yesterday and by evening had secured only seven although he had calls in at various employment agencies. The opening of harvest work is responsible for this relief from unemployment.

3 Bodies Recovered; 5 Missing in Gulf

Palacios, Texas, July 22.—(I. N. S.)—Only three bodies had been recovered today from the eight persons who were drowned late yesterday at the mouth of Greens bayou, 22 miles from here. The drowned were members of a bathing party who went caught in the undertow of the gulf. All were members of a Baptist camp meeting party in session here.

Farragut, Disabled By Blast of Steam Pipe, Towed to Port

San Francisco, July 22.—(U. P.)—The steamer Admiral Farragut, disabled by a bursting steam pipe at sea late yesterday, arrived in port today in tow of the tug "Sea Eagle."

Repairs will be made immediately and the vessel will resume her run to Seattle. The explosion occurred when the Farragut was 15 miles off San Francisco lights. More than a score of the crew were injured, one man being severely scalded. The vessel carried 75 passengers bound from San Francisco to Seattle. They were awakened by the explosion but Captain Harris quieted their fears. The rescue tug, provided with medical attendants, experienced much difficulty in locating the disabled ship because of the dense fog.

LA GRANDE MAN ELECTROCUTED

La Grande, July 22.—Clarence B. Sailor was electrocuted on the F. D. McCutley ranch near Joseph while moving a hay derrick. The top of the derrick came into contact with high tension wires, killing Sailor instantly. His remains were shipped to Columbus, Ohio, for burial.

3 Boys Accused of Robbery by Means Of Harmless Gun

Clarence Goddard, Earl Fogarty and Lloyd Mayer, "water gun bandits," were indicted by the county grand jury this afternoon on a charge of "robbery, not being armed with a dangerous weapon." A short time ago the trio held up pedestrians at night with a water gun. Leighton R. Smith is named as the complaining witness in the indictment. He alleges the three held him up at Ninth and Main streets on the night of July 11 and secured $5.

Ed Larogue Was Indicted for Burglary and Charged with Boring a Hole Through a Door to a Room in the Glenwood Hotel on July 16 and with Attempting to Rob a Room There.

Matthew Helson was charged with assaulting his divorced wife, Grace Helson, with a dangerous weapon on July 11 at the home of Mrs. Lucy Kirby, 475 Sumner street. Helson is said to have cut his wife badly with a razor, because he believed she had secured her divorce in an underhanded way.
