FRATERNAL

Charles E. Minsinger, grand venerable prophet of the supreme council of the United States, will greet the groto Monday evening at the Pythian building and tell of the work done for Portland at the recent assemblies of that body. Other delegates will be heard. Arrangements will be completed for the annual August outing at the Oaks Thursday. Marguerite camp, Royal Neighbors of America, has a meeting Tuesday night at the East Side Business Men's club, 114 1/2 Grand avenue. Eureka council, Security Benefit association, has arranged for a lively social program and entertainment at Multnomah W. O. W. hall, 115 East Sixth street, Monday evening, which will follow class initiation. Anchor council, Security Benefit association, has all arrangements made for its regular dance Tuesday evening, at 125 Eleventh street. Liberty assembly, United Artisans, will occupy W. O. W. hall at East Sixth and East Alder streets Wednesday evening with one of those happy mid-summer social dances for which it is celebrated among the young people of the city. Albert's assembly, United Artisans, entertained members and friends Thursday evening with a "500" party, under direction of Mrs. T. A. Drews, chairman of the committee of arrangements. First prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Drews and consolation prizes by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Oswald. Dancing closed an enjoyable evening. Albert Artisans have an increasing number of members in the Vernon section of the city.

Lyric Players Close Season and Join in Vacation Indulgence

Members of the Lyric Musical Troupe company, surprising patrons of the house who expected to have this week in which to bid them farewell, are today scattering far and wide on vacation bent, following the close of the Lyric season with the presentation of "Good-bye, Everybody," at the usual Sunday hours. The Lyric will reopen about Sunday, September 4, with new timber in its makeup and several of the familiar faces of the last season. In the meantime, however, most of the members will indulge in an intensive search for healthy coasts of tan and ravenous appetites. Al Franke plans an automobile tour of Oregon beaches; Dorothy Raymond will, for a time, be the guest of Billie Bingham, sobriet, at the farm home of Miss Bingham's parents. Madeline Matthews, character woman, will go to the beach and most of the other players will have a few weeks of complete rest. Will Rader, character actor, however, will seek a niche for himself in movieland and to that end will invade Los Angeles at once, if he lands in the screen he will not return to Portland, he declares.

County Gets Bill For Witness Fees

Centralia, Wash., July 25.—Witness fees in the case of the state versus Britt Smith et al, charged with first degree murder in Centralia on Armistice day, 1919, amounted to $5885 according to word just received by the Lewis county auditor. This county bears the expense of the trial although the case was tried in Montezano. WILL DEDICATE FAIR BARN Centralia, Wash., July 25.—William Bishop, who owns and operates a Holstein dairy farm at Chinacum, will deliver the address at the dedication of the new stock barn of the Southwest Washington fair grounds, during the annual picnic of the Lewis County Pure Breeders' club, Wednesday.

Boys Pick Berries To Get Carfare

Small boys of Columbia park playgrounds have a series of baseball games scheduled with other playgrounds, but lack the carfare necessary to make connections. The little chaps have refused to be discouraged and have organized a berry picking squad. The pickers have located a patch of wild blackberries not far from Columbia park. Negotiations have been made with local grocers and others to buy the fruit. The youngsters have one of the best teams in the inter-playgrounds league and plan to let no game go by default.

Italian Design and Imported Marble to Be Used in Building

Italian architecture and imported marble will feature the $150,000 building to be erected at the southeast corner of Fourth and Madison streets by the Italian federation, according to announcement made today by P. Tusi, vice president of the federation. A meeting of stockholders in the building project was held Thursday afternoon at St. Michael's hall to discuss plans for the building and a final meeting will be held the last Sunday in August. The amount of stock which may be held by a subscriber is limited to $1000 and it was announced that $40,000 already had been subscribed. Plans call for a three story building, 50 by 100 feet in dimensions, and will house a large auditorium and clubrooms.

3 Offer Blood to Save Woman's Life

Walla Walla, Wash., July 25.—When they learned that only the transfusion of blood from some healthy person or persons would save the life of Mrs. Charles Wiseman, three members of the post office staff, where the husband is employed as a clerk, stepped forward and offered to submit to the operation. The first to give his blood was Cyrus F. Morrow, postmaster. If further transfusions are necessary Harry Tempany, deputy postmaster, and Roy Huret, a clerk, will permit the physicians to pump blood from their veins into the veins of the desperately sick woman.

THREE MILLS TO RESUME Centralia, Wash., July 25.—The N. & M. Lumber company at Helsing Junction, the Veness Lumber company at Winlock, and the Baldwin & Brewer shingle mill near Winlock will resume operations this week. Mrs. J. E. Collins of Yakima was fatally injured when her automobile collided in the Ellensburg road with a car driven by O. R. Higdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Hart announce the birth of a son born to them July 22. The baby will be named Duane Lyle. Mrs. Hart will be remembered as Miss Mildred Frye of this city. The mother and baby are at Emanuel hospital. Auxiliary No. 81, Over the Top post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will give a card party this evening at 525 court-house. Prizes will be given and refreshments served. Mrs. M. C. Maris has left the city for Seattle, where she will remain a fortnight with her son, Mr. Homer Maris, at his summer home at Alki point. Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Castleman left Friday for Seaside for a week. They made the trip by motor. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mays and Miss Eunice Mays were recent visitors at Rhododendron Inn at Mount Hood. Mr. H. R. Everding and Miss Caroline Everding were recent visitors at Rhododendron Inn at Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger Sr. have as their guest their grandson, Mr. John Dalton of New York.

LINGERIE STUMPS POLICE New York, July 25.—Coney Island police faced new terrors when they tried to arbitrate lingerie disputes among 20 girls whose clothes were taken to a police station in a moving van which had been turned into an impromptu and illegal bathhouse.

Selected with care where it grows—

THE DELICIOUS flavor of Folger's Golden Gate Tea is by no means accidental. Seventy-one years of experience, coupled with most exacting care in selection and grading, are the reasons why you are sure of a delightful beverage when you use Folger's Golden Gate. Either black or green—you'll enjoy that fine tea flavor—whether you drink it hot or iced. Compare Folger's Golden Gate with other teas. Just tell your grocer you want it.

How To Make Tea NEVER BOIL IT Warm an earthenware tea pot. Use one teaspoonful of Tea for each cup. Pour in fresh boiling water. Allow it to steep 5 minutes and then serve at once. If not used immediately, pour the Tea into another pot.
