

ENTERTAINMENT
GALORE PLANNED FOR BUYERS' WEEK

Two thousand visitors will be called to Portland next week because of Buyers' week, according to the information that has come to the Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring this trade event. It is an interesting fact that Portland was the pioneer in this endeavor, and the success of previous weeks encourages the belief that the approaching ninth annual event will be the greatest of the series. Business houses are cooperating to the end that the visitors will find it well worth their while to be in attendance.

The week will not all be devoted to business. The entertainment committee has outlined a series of functions that will insure the success of the week from a social standpoint.

ENTERTAINMENT VARIED

Mayor Baker will welcome the visitors at the reception and dance at the Hotel Multnomah Monday evening, August 1, which is the first function of the entertainment program. Through the courtesy of the Portland Opera association musical numbers will be given by Marion Bennett Dyer and Mary Daniel.

Mrs. William D. McWayers heads a women's committee in charge of a theatre party planned for Tuesday evening for the women visitors while the men are enjoying a smoker and some boxing bouts at the Hotel Multnomah.

The Multnomah county circuit court judges have been impressed into service to award prizes for the best brief address on "Why Portland Is My Favorite Market," which will feature the Wednesday luncheon in Washington park for which the Ad club will be host.

FASHION SHOW PLANNED

The evolution of dress will be depicted by models at a fashion show at the Lyric theatre Wednesday evening. Vancouver numbers will complete the program.

All arrangements are completed for the Thursday luncheon to the visiting buyers at the Olympic hall and for the dance aboard the river boat Bluebird on Thursday evening.

At the annual banquet at the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening H. B. Vanuzer, president, will explain in detail the circumstances that warrant the Chamber sponsoring Buyers' week as an institution. E. F. Irvine, editor of the Journal, and John Gratke are other speakers. A. J. Bale will preside. Musical selections will be given by Miss Myrtle Wolfe and Otto Wedemeyer.

JOURNAL CARRIERS ENJOY FUN

Group of Journal carriers, who enjoyed privileges of Broadway Natatorium last Friday morning.

Summer days are fun days for the Journal carrier boys. And it is the pleasure of the Journal to arrange for a bit of the fun.

Last Friday morning it was a swimming party in which 60 of the carrier force participated. Assembling at the Journal building the boys marched to the Broadway natatorium, where all the facilities were opened to them for a jolly good time.

Last night it was an evening at Coun-oil Crest. This entertainment was enjoyed by 280 Journal carriers. C. A. Finley, proprietor of this amusement park, turned over the observatory to the boys as a meeting place where tickets were distributed to each of them for the several concessions. The Crest was theirs for a night and they made the most of it.

A man can't busy himself at anything and talk, except smoking.

SEASIDE TO HAVE
SEAWALL OPENING

Plans that will make Seaside's happy cars ring for weeks with echoes of the joy of the event were outlined here this week by L. L. Fadget, cashier of the Bank of Seaside, and Charles H. Rowley, manager of the Hotel Seaside, who were here arranging details of the coast resort city's great Breakwater celebration on August 6 and 7.

The celebration is designed as a dedicatory ceremony upon the opening of the new seawall and that the two-day program will bring out all the enthusiasm of the big summer time population at Seaside is the promise of the Portland visitors.

Arrangements for a gala musical program are virtually completed, with the Royal Rosarian band as one of the Portland organizations to be prominent in the festivities. The musical phases of the program are in charge of Leah Leake of Portland, nationally known vocalist. Additional features of the music program are to be announced. Several prominent speakers will be heard in connection with the dedication ceremony.

"Seaside's importance as a summer beach resort is secondary with its permanent residents to its growing importance as a business center and a delightful home city," Fadget declared, "and the completion of the new seawall will be an automatic impetus to the spirit of the community. To prove to the world what that spirit is we are bending every effort toward making the breakwater celebration next month the greatest concourse and carnival in the history of Seaside."

Although the exact amount of Spurgin's alleged shortage has not been announced, it is believed to exceed $1,000,000.

Confident that Mrs. Myrtle P. Spurgin, wife of Warren C. Spurgin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company, and her daughter, Miss Vivian Spurgin, have not "told in they know," Chief Investigator Ben Newmark of the state's attorney's office, planned further questioning of the two women today. Mrs. Spurgin and her daughter were taken into custody here Tuesday night upon their return from Detroit.

Spurgin is in hiding in Montreal, Canada, authorities learned today. Spurgin's movements were traced from the time he fled from Chicago through Detroit and to Montreal.
