Albion, interstate commerce commissioner, after a visit recently to Rainier national park, stated that he would support before the national geographic board soon and urge that the name of Pinnacle peak in the park be changed to Lane peak for the late Franklin K. Lane. Pinnacle peak is one of the highest in the park and is readily seen by visitors. Albion also thinks that Mounts Rainier, St. Helens, Hood and Baker should bear the names of former presidents.

Operated Without Speedometer—Oliver Taylor, driver of a Joloff motor bus operating between Portland, Astoria and Seaside, was fined $75 and costs by a jury in Justice of the Peace Court for operating a bus without the necessary speed indicating equipment as required by the state laws. The action was a state case, the arrest being made by H. L. Griffith, an inspector in the office of the secretary of state.

Grange Head Loses Post—S. J. Lowell, master of the National Grange, has announced the suspension of William Bouck, master of the Washington State Grange, for suspending a member of the Grange. It is understood that Bouck's suspension is based entirely upon his annual message delivered at Colville, which was distributed to delegates in printed form.

Masamas at Bend—Word is received from Bend that a party of 75 Masamas from Portland arrived in that city on Sunday morning's train. A number of Bend people will accompany them on the trip to Crescent Lake, Diamond peak and Mount Thielsen.

Steamer Undine—Astoria to Portland. Special excursion, up trip 11. Leave Astoria daily except Sunday and Monday, 9 a. m. Passengers only. O. W. R. & N. company dock.—Adv.

Portland-Newburg Bus—Leave Fourth and Alder daily, 8:30, 11 a. m. and 1:20, 4:15, 5:30, 6:30 p. m.; Saturday and Sunday, 11 p. m. Phone Main 3314.—Adv.

K-Boy Service—Free—Tired, aching feet can be relieved—consult Dr. Ingalls. Knight Shoe Co., Morrison, near Broadway.—Adv.

Cayuse Rides in Motor—Duncan Donaid, a Union county farmer, had a bright idea recently. He wanted to ride a mountain range many miles from home. To travel that distance by saddle horse meant a loss of time to a busy farmer and a much fatigued mount before the hard mountain trip really began. So he loaded his saddle horse into an auto truck, drove 15 miles to Ellensburg, unloaded the horse saddled it, left his machine and hit into the timber with a fresh horse and much valuable time saved.

Salem Will Entertain Rotarians—A conference of the presidents and secretaries of the Twenty-second district, International Association of Rotary clubs, will be held in Salem the latter part of September or early in October, according to Ernest L. Skeel of Seattle, governor of the Twenty-second district. The district comprises Oregon, Washington and British Columbia and more than 20 clubs are located in this territory. Big delegations from all Oregon clubs will attend.

Looking Over Timber—E. J. Hanslik, forest examiner working out from the Portland office, recently made a tour of the forest in the Bow river country of Southern Oregon. He is gathering data for the department showing an approximate of the cutting capacity of the forest in that section. He notes that there is a vast amount of timber in the higher elevations that has reached the period of growth when it should be cut in order to forestall deterioration.

Will Fly From New York—Edward High of Ashland, who plans to put on an airplane passenger service to Crater lake sometime in the near future, leaves soon for New York city, where he will purchase an Anasado airplane. High plans to pilot the plane from New York city to Ashland and launch into the commercial airplane business at once.

Greer Is Rehearsal—M. T. Rostin, proprietor of a grocery store at 235 North Nineteenth street, was held up and robbed of $100 about 9:30 Saturday night. Two armed men entered the store and robbed the proprietor and L. W. Fields, a customer. Fields lost $2.

Disabled Veterans Guests—The Women of the Rotary club gave the disabled veterans an excursion on the Swan Sunday, 210 couples joining the party. The Rotary club brought veterans from hospitals down to the boat in automobiles.

International Congress to be held at Honolulu. They will remain here long enough to take a ride over the Columbia river highway and inspect the facilities of the Port of Portland. Arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors are being made by the Chamber of Commerce.

CUPID BUMPS COURTS
Eugene, Aug. 1.—Marriage led divorces by three to one in July records at the county clerk's office. Thirty marriage licenses were issued and 10 divorces granted.
