Payment of Warren

Repair Bill Held Up

The county commissioners were surprised Wednesday when they were presented with bills for $13,568 for repair work on the Columbia River highway by the Warren Construction company.

Chairman Holman said he thought the maintenance bond covered such repairs.

Assistant Roadmaster Chapman stated these repairs were made necessary by sinking of the subgrade and the like, and that these were not covered by the bond. On recommendation of District Attorney Evans the commissioners held up the payment to discover whether or not the bonds did cover such expenses.
