Miss Hyland's Wedding to Be Of Much Interest

ONE of the interesting weddings of the late summer will be that of Miss Constance Hyland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hyland, to Mr. Harry P. Edward, which will take place at 11 o'clock, Saturday, August 27, at Trinity Episcopal chapel. The service will be read in the presence of a few close friends and relatives by Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of the church.

Mrs. James C. Meese will attend the bride as matron of honor and Mr. Meese will be best man. The bride will be given in marriage by her uncle, Judge S. C. Kirpatrick of Dallas.

Since the announcement of their engagement several affairs have been given for Miss Hyland and her fiance, who share an unusually wide circle of friends in the city.

Miss Margaret Biddle and her brother, Mr. William Biddle, who accompanied the Mazamas on their trip to Crater lake, were met at the lake by their brother, Martin Biddle, and with him motored to Klamath Falls and down to Medford, where they visited the family of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies at their home at Eden Valley. On their return they left the city Tuesday after an enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sinnott (Loretta Quinn) are planning to take up their residence in Fresno, Cal., where Mr. Sinnott has become advertising manager of the Fresno Herald. Mrs. Sinnott expects to join her husband in California in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris B. Gregg are planning to leave the city in September for New York city where they will make their home. Mrs. Gregg has been spending the summer at Gearhart and will close her cottage the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. Porter, accompanied by Miss Sarah Patrick and Miss Jean Porter of Spokane, Wash., are enjoying a motor trip into California and are expected to return the end of this week.

Mrs. C. D. Bruun was hostess for a dinner party at Waverley Country club Monday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Edith Chambers. Guests included 18 members of the younger set.

Mr. Philip Silver is a visitor at Seaside at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Silverman.

Mrs. James F. Felling and Miss Henrietta Chase Felling will leave Portland next Thursday for Seattle to sail by way of one of the Admiral line vessels for the Orient. They expect to stop in China, Japan and Burma on their way to the Ongole district in India, which they hope to reach in December and where they will visit Miss Kate Felling, who is attached to a Baptist mission school.

Mrs. Joseph E. Withrow was hostess for a luncheon at Waverley Country club Wednesday honoring Mrs. J. E. Higgins Hart, widow of the late Mr. J. E. Higgins, her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. R. Park in Irvington. Additional guests at the luncheon were Mrs. F. T. Buckley, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Whitney Morden and son Robert, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Park and daughter Isabel, and little Joan Withrow.

Portland folk regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rosse who were visitors in the city for several weeks during the summer. During their time Mr. Rosse gave an interesting series of lectures at the Portland Art museum. Mr. Rosse is attached to the staff of the Art Institute at Chicago, where they make their home.

Colonel and Mrs. A. S. Fleming left the city Monday for California after a visit of several weeks in Portland during which they were extensively entertained. During their visit in the city they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman and later of Major and Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter at their country home near Cannon.

Mrs. Coleman H. Wheeler and daughter, Miss Margaret Wheeler, and son, Mr. Charles Wheeler, are enjoying a motor trip to Mount Rainier and have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilton Tevis, Miss Cornelia Tevis and Miss Virginia Tevis. The party is expected to return Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Strong will return to the city September 1 and will again occupy their home at 250 King street. Mr. and Mrs. Dent Mowrey have been domiciled in the Strong residence during the summer months.

Miss Raeder Is To Be Married On September 6

MISS MARGARET RAEDER, whose engagement to Mr. Frank X. Rinehart of West Wayne, Ind., has been announced, has chosen the evening of September 6 for her wedding. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride in Irvington and will be witnessed by immediate members of the family and a few close friends. A reception will follow the ceremony.

Mrs. Harold A. Warner will attend the bride as matron of honor and Mr. Warner, who is a cousin of the bride, will be best man.

The many friends of the bride and her fiance regret that following their marriage they will make their home in Fort Wayne, Ind.

News of the arrival of a little son at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sheldon R. Coons, at Beecurst, L. I., was carried to Mr. Fred T. Merrill, 1104 East Stark street, by the baby's father, who telephoned over the long distance wire from New York Thursday. Mr. Coons was formerly associated with Lipman, Wolfe & Co. in Portland and with Mrs. Coons left the city about a year ago to live in Long Island.

Mrs. George N. Davis, who was a guest at the Malloy hotel for several weeks, left the city Monday for her home in Wilmington, Del. Mrs. Davis will visit in San Francisco on her way east to join Judge Davis, who spent a short time in Portland.

Mrs. Samuel Thompson Halsted (Katharine MacMaster) has arrived in the city from Riverside, Cal., and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster. Mr. Halsted will join his wife in Portland later in the season.

Three Guests of Mrs. Moore Are Honored at Tea

ONE of the most interesting of the late summer teas was that which Mrs. F. E. Moore was hostess at her home in Hawthorne avenue Friday afternoon. Three guests shared honors on this occasion, their number including Miss Constance Hyland, whose marriage to Mr. Harry P. Edward will be an event of the near future; Mrs. L. A. Fuller of Kansas City, who is a house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Moore, and the latter's sister, Dr. Zudie Purdom, also of Kansas City.

Giadloli in colorful arrangement adorned the living room and yellow flowers were used in the reception hall. The tea table was centered with an attractive combination of small summer blossoms. Mrs. C. C. Colt and Mrs. A. T. Fisher presided at the tea urns and Mrs. George M. Hyland and Mrs. Ira F. Powers took the tea. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. W. MacLain, Mrs. J. H. Joyce, Dr. Mabel Alkin, Mrs. I. Fred Larson, Miss Helen Halber and Miss Enola Bracora.

Honoring Miss Constance Hyland, whose marriage to Mr. Harry P. Edward will take place the latter part of the month, Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson were hostess for a dinner party Saturday evening. Additional guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Cox, Miss Lee Schultz, Mr. Karl Wilson, Mrs. George M. Hyland and Mrs. Wilson's mother.

At an informal luncheon Wednesday Mrs. George Smith Brown (Dorris Padgett) entertained in honor of Miss Ruth Elliot, fiancée of Edward Howard Prentiss. Additional guests were Miss Clara Elliot, who is visiting here from New York; Miss Edith Matthews, Miss Mary E. White, Mrs. Charles H. Lewis (Mary Mariatti), and Mrs. F. Walter Brodie (Jessie Laird).

Mrs. John Latta was hostess for an informal tea Thursday honoring Mrs. Walter Lang who leaves this morning with Mr. Lang for New York where they will be in England. Guests included a few close friends of Mrs. Lang.

Former Portland Girl Is Bride of Captain Stewart

THIS marriage of Miss Helen Frances Driver to Captain Samuel Gibson Stewart, U. S. A., was solemnized Monday in the historic Little Church Around the Corner in New York city. The wedding follows a brief romance and is of wide interest in Portland, as the bride is a girl of unusual charm and possessed of a vivid personality which won for her many friends in the city, where she was a member of the staff of the Oregonian.

Frank Crowninshield, editor of Vanity Fair, to the staff of which publication the bride has been attached for some time, was the officiating minister. The service was read by the Rev. Dwight L. Cameron. Mrs. C. E. Maulsby (Helen Twitchell) was matron of honor and Captain T. Haynes attended the bridegroom.

Captain and Mrs. Stewart are spending their honeymoon at Atlantic City, which additional guests were Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. J. B. Whiteside.

Friday Mrs. Lee Hoffman entertained informally at a luncheon at her home in Barnes road for Mrs. Talbot.

Mr. James P. Howe, newspaper man and war correspondent, and Mrs. Howe are visitors in Astoria, Kas., where Eugene Howe, a brother of the bridegroom, is editor of the Globe. Mr. Howe formerly lived in Portland. The marriage is of special interest as it follows a romance which began during Mr. Howe's stay in Warsaw. Mr. Howe has had a varied newspaper career. He was at one time member of the staff of the Honolulu Star. Mr. Howe is the son of E. W. Howe, celebrated as an author and publisher.

The Travelers Protective association will give a dance on the floating pavilion Swan Friday evening for members and their ladies. Admission will be upon presentation of membership cards. Several special features have been arranged by Mr. Clyde Evans, chairman of the committee. Mr. Thomas J. Tobin and Mr. Michael Brennan will give song numbers and other stunts have been planned.

Mrs. Samuel Thompson Halsted, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, is a visitor in the city from Riverside, Cal., and is at the home of her parents. Mrs. J. Arthur Moore, who is Miss Dorothy Cox and is a gifted young musician, is one of the recent brides of Portland. Miss Gladys Pitts, who has been a guest at the MacMaster home on several occasions, has announced her engagement to Mr. Victor McDonald of Victoria, B. C.

Autumn Social Events Begin to Take on Shape

PLANS for diversions for the early fall benefit functions for various philanthropies and informal farewell parties for the members of the school set, many of whom have already left the city on their way back to colleges, have supplied the program for the last fortnight. The Junior League is making plans for a benefit to be given in the early days of September at Ardour, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, and a meeting to be held this week will be held to decide definitely on details for the occasion. Functions given by the members of the Junior League occupy a place of importance in the chronicle of social doings in the city and announcements of their plans will be received with interest.

Several weddings of interest are anticipated for the early weeks of September and affairs planned for the autumn brides will crowd the first few days of the fall season.

Mrs. B. J. Raeder and Mrs. T. C. Warner arranged a delightful picnic party early in the week, the party motoring up beyond Wahkoma falls for luncheon, after which bridges was enjoyed. Their number included Mrs. Clark Nelson and her guest, Mrs. Henry Collins of Pendleton, Mrs. Dale Slusher, Miss Margaret Raeder, Mrs. Frederick Hart of Pendleton and Mrs. Harold Warner.

Miss Jessie Merriss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Merriss of 211 Twenty-third street north, is expected to arrive in the city from New York city August 22. Miss Merriss has been spending the past week with friends in Salt Lake City. During the past year she has been studying ballet dancing with Stephano Mascagno, the Italian ballet master.

Mrs. Talbot Is Inspiration For Several Affairs

MRS. HENRY RUSSELL TALBOT of Washington, D. C., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, for a few weeks, has been honored at several affairs planned by old friends in the city. Last Monday Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle was hostess for a smart luncheon at Waverley Country club at which additional guests were Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. J. B. Biederbeck, Mrs. Daniel A. Shindler, Miss Felling, Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mrs. Donald Spencer, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Mrs. Walter Lang, Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, Mrs. John Leader and Mrs. George S. Whiteside.

Friday Mrs. Lee Hoffman entertained informally at a luncheon at her home in Barnes road for Mrs. Talbot.
