

Eastern Visitor Honor Guest at Numerous Teas

MRS. H. L. SPARKS, who has been visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. James A. Woodbury and Miss Elizabeth Woodbury, the past five weeks, left Tuesday morning. After a visit to her brother in Denver and with other relatives in Chicago and Des Moines, Iowa, she will return to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Sparks has been honored at a number of luncheons and dinners during her stay, and enjoyed many motor trips to points of interest near the city.

During her stay in the city Mrs. Sparks was the guest of honor at several small but delightful affairs for which Mrs. A. L. Stephens, Mrs. E. F. Riley, Mrs. Roy Peterson and Mrs. Charles Bailey entertained at different times.

Most of the time the visitor was in the city was spent motoring to mountain and beach resorts, and during her stay she made many friends in Portland. Mrs. Sparks has written her Portland relatives that her husband, Mr. H. L. Sparks, has arranged for a lecture by Mr. Frank Branch Riley of Portland before the Salmagundi club of Brooklyn, N. Y.

MRS. CHARLES N. WONACOTT of New York city is a visitor in Portland with her two children, Ruth and Paul. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Wonacott's sister, Mrs. A. J. Dilg and have been extensively entertained.

Miss Slauon Is Quietly Wed to Henry Freeman

THE marriage of Miss Ruth Slauon and Mr. Henry A. Freeman was quietly solemnized Thursday at the First Presbyterian church. The service was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives and was read by the Rev. Norman K. Daily.

Mr. Freeman and his bride left the city immediately following the ceremony for Central Point, where they will visit his relatives. They will make a trip to Crater lake before returning to Portland to make their home at 687 East Sixty-fourth street north.

The bride is a daughter of A. E. Slauon, a University of Washington girl, and a member of Delta Gamma and of Phi Beta Kappa. Fr. Freeman is a Stanford university man, and is assistant cashier of the Lumbermen Trust company.

Portland Couple Leave Today for Home in London

PORTLAND friends greatly regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lang, who are leaving the city this morning for New York, where they will sail September 3 on the steamship Cedric for Liverpool. Mr. Lang, who is surgeon for Lloyd's, has been transferred to London and Mr. and Mrs. Lang do not expect to come to America again to reside. On their way east they expect to stop for a brief visit in Wyoming with Mrs. Lang's sister, Mrs. Edward Robertson. After a short time in London Mrs. Lang expects to go to Scotland to visit her former home before returning to England to live.

Elsa Goldsmith Is Married to Norman Leopold

THE marriage of Miss Elsa Goldsmith and Mr. Norman Leopold of Seattle was solemnized Thursday evening at the Benson hotel. For the ceremony the bride was escorted in ivory-toned satin and lace, with full length wedding veil. Her flowers were sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Miss Irene Goldsmith, maid of honor, wore a gown of apricot-toned chiffon. Miss Dorothy Goldsmith, bridesmaid, wore orchid-toned chiffon embellished with silver. Little Elizabeth Blum was flower girl and wore a dainty frock of robin's egg blue taffeta. Mr. Nathaniel Green of San Francisco was best man.

Scanlon-Becker Marriage Event At Saint Davids

THE marriage of Miss Arlene Scanlon and Mr. Raymond Frederic Becker was solemnized at St. Davids church last Thursday evening. The Rev. W. Ernest Stockley officiated. The ceremony was very simple and was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The bride was attired in a smart tailleur of gray with hat of gray and brown to match and wore a corsage of Bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Mr. Joseph Carter gave his niece in marriage. Miss Ethel Wheeler, a sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Old Friendships Are Renewed by Bozeman Folks

OLD friendships were renewed and new acquaintances made at a picnic dinner given at Laurelhurst park the afternoon of August 12 by a number of Portland folk who formerly made their home in Bozeman, Mont. The afternoon and evening were enjoyably spent in recalling old times and dinner was served at 8 o'clock. A desire for a repetition of the meeting was expressed and the company home to meet from time to time and to make further efforts to locate additional people who formerly lived in Bozeman and who would be desirous of participating in these social events. Any person so desiring may do so by communicating with Mrs. George B. Cooper, 4811 Thirty-third avenue southeast.

Those attending the picnic dinner were Miss Phyllis Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn King and children, Miss Van Alken, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wilkins and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Ten Haaf and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cooper and sons, Miss Vivian Fawcett, Mrs. C. M. Barbee, Mrs. J. D. Baker, Mrs. Lulu Andrews and son, Miss J. E. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Stanton.

Mrs. L. A. Fuller of Kansas City, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore at their home in Hawthorne avenue, left the city Friday evening for her home in the East.

Dr. E. A. Bryan, commissioner of education in Idaho, with Mrs. E. A. Bryan and their daughter Gertrude, a charming young junior at the Washington State college, motored over from Boise to visit his son, Captain Arthur Williams Bryan, and family of this city. They often visit in Portland and have many friends here. They were dinner guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. L. Buland in Maple street. They will spend the weekend in company with Mrs. A. W. Bryan and little daughter at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Buland at Castle Rock, Wash. The following week the party will motor to the beaches.

Miss Woodruff Is Entertained By Miss Jensen

MISS AUDREY JENSON was hostess for a delightful luncheon Thursday honoring Miss Cornelia Woodruff, who is spending her vacation in Portland and who will leave the city September 7 for Bryn Mawr.

Summer blossoms adorned an attractively appointed luncheon table and covers were placed for Miss Woodruff, Miss Elizabeth Brington, Miss Helen Darling, Miss Cora Graham, Miss Rosemary Mahoney, Miss Helen Ahern, Miss Roberta Wells and the hostess.

Miss St. Clair Is Hostess Friday At Dainty Lunch

MISS THYRA ST. CLAIR entertained at a daintily appointed luncheon Friday honoring Miss Dorothy Feenaughty, whose marriage to Mr. George Richardson will take place September 6. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table decorations, with a basket of sweet peas as a centerpiece for the luncheon table. The party included the bridesmaids who will attend Miss Feenaughty, and the bridal motif was used in the luncheon favors. Covers were placed for Miss Feenaughty, Miss Jeanette White, Miss Muriel Porter, Miss Penelope Geer, Miss Honor Youngson, Mrs. W. O. Feenaughty, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. W. H. St. Clair and the hostess.

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss Harriet L. Benjamin and H. T. Smith Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Benjamin of Forest Grove. The Rev. C. R. Carlos of the Methodist church officiated. The young couple immediately left by automobile on their wedding trip to Mount Rainier National park to be gone two weeks, after which they will be at home in Forest Grove. Both young people are former students at Pacific university. Mr. Smith is assistant warden of the First National bank of Forest Grove.

Mrs. C. S. Jensen is in Butte, where she will act on Thursday as godmother for the new youngster who arrived recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan, known in Pacific coast theatrical circles as "Patsey," has an interest in the Rialto theatre of Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Oliver of Alderstone, Wash., announce the arrival of a daughter, born to them August 15. Mrs. Oliver was Miss Henrietta C. Rick of Portland before her marriage.

Mrs. W. D. Jellison has as her guest her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Landes, who before her marriage was Miss Harriet Jellison. Mrs. Landes makes her home in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Z. K. Carson entertained at tea last week in honor of her house guest Mrs. D. A. Whyte of Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Carson also entertained at an informal dancing party for her guests.

H. LIEBES & CO.

Furs and individual style shops Broadway at Morrison

Annual August Sale of Furs

Now is the logical time to buy furs! With fall well on its way, with furs arriving daily from our workrooms — with many fine new conceptions for winter at hand — furs bought now will actually be worth more — by winter. Reductions are effective on every Liebes' fur in stock. During the balance of August only

Discounts are 20% to 50% on all furs

Of mole:
Russian blouse, trimmed with platinum caracul (sketched); reg. 285.00, now 228.00
Mole coat—a new model with shirring at the hip; regularly priced 975.00, now 780.00
Mole cape, with large full collar; regularly priced at 650.00, now on sale for 520.00
Self-trimmed mole wrap, regularly priced at 395.00. During the sale to go at 316.00

Hudson seal coats
(dyed muskrat)
Elegant new wrap showing the new shirred collar (sketched); reg. 875.00, now 700.00
40-inch new model Hudson seal coat; regularly priced at 750.00, on sale at 600.00
36-inch Hudson seal coat, beaver trimmed; regularly priced at 525.00, now for 420.00
32-inch self-trimmed Hudson seal coat; regularly priced 595.00, now on sale at 476.00
Hudson seal wrap, trimmed with Kolinsky squirrel; regularly 495.00, on sale at 396.00
Russian blouse Hudson seal wrap, skunk trimmed; regularly 350.00, now for 233.34

Of squirrel:
Natural Siberian squirrel coat (sketched); regularly priced at 575.00, now for 460.00
Natural Siberian squirrel coat, belted; regularly priced at 950.00, now sale at 760.00
Natural Siberian squirrel wrap, regularly 575.00; during this sale they will be 460.00
Natural Siberian squirrel collar, regularly 275.00; during the sale to go at 225.00

Of mink:
Natural mink wrap, trimmed with tails (sketched); regularly 1000.00, now 800.00
40-inch natural mink coat, the regular price 2250.00; the sale price will be 1800.00
Natural mink wrap, trimmed with tails and select dark skins, regularly 1650.00, 1320.00
Natural mink cape, regularly priced 550.00; during the August sale they will be 440.00

Smart fur neckpieces Including a notable display of animal scarfs
chokers
throws
collarettes
apes

Among the favored furs for fall:
Fisher
mole
Hudson seal squirrel
sable
stone marten
fox
Kolinsky
caracul
skunk
mink

Discounts are 20% to 50% on all furs.

Of Kolinsky:
A voluminous Kolinsky cape (sketched); regularly 550.00, now on sale at 440.00
An elegant Kolinsky wrap of select skins; reg. 2750.00; during the sale at 2200.00
A cape of Kolinsky; its regular price 350.00; during August its sale price will be 280.00
A cape of Kolinsky, regularly priced at 250.00; during the August sale for 200.00

New modes for old furs!
Many a fine fur has died of neglect... left untended to deteriorate... when it might easily be remodeled into a fashionable garment. Consulting us entails no obligation.

H. Liebes & Co.

ESTABLISHED 1864

H. LIEBES & CO.

Furs and individual style shops Broadway at Morrison

Coats that advance the mode retreat in price

Proving that one may be clad with distinction, no matter how small the expenditure! Fine lines are not reserved for model coats . . . nor are fine fabrics.

A coat of fine Velora, with a large wolf collar is lined throughout with pussywillow. A coat of soft panveline, adorned with bands of self-material, is lined with crepe de chine. Both coats sell for 75.00

A coat of fine Velora, with a large wolf collar is lined throughout with pussywillow. A coat of soft panveline, adorned with bands of self-material, is lined with crepe de chine. Both coats sell for 75.00

75.00 75.00

Frocks show their Spanish ancestry in devious ways

To be smart is to be Spanish, be it ever so little—and Paris has been first to admit it. The tight basque, the flare tunic, laces, the inevitable fringe—Spanish, every one of them!

A frock of black satin makes up for the shortness of its tunic with an 18-inch, silken fringe. 45.00. A frock of Black Canton has a scarlet sash and a full sleeve caught tight at the wrist. This frock sells for 95.00

45.00 95.00

Shop by mail—assisted by Harriet Lee

H. Liebes & Co.

ESTABLISHED 1864