The church has made a splendid gain in membership, according to reports read at a recent official board meeting. The treasurer reported all bills paid, paster's salary paid in full, and sufficient funds on hand to meet all conference claims. A fund has been subscribed to place a pipe organ in the church which will soon be installed. These amounts have been raised without a special public collection and represents the loyal devotion of the church membership.

The Sunday school has gained in membership 200 per cent and has a large fi-nancial balance. The missionary society has done splendid work, is ding the installing of a gas range in the church kitchen. The success of this year's work is largely due to the untiring energy of the pastor, Rev. J. B. Harris and his wife This is Rev. Harris' first year in Portland. His plans are laid for greater work during the coming year. September 18 has been designated for
