LOCAL MERCHANTS RALLY FOR IDAHO TRADE EXCURSION

A hurry-up campaign to gather members for a trade trip through Eastern and Southern Idaho was started yesterday by the trade excursion committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

The excursion will cover prosperous market territory omitted from the itinerary of last year's trade trip. Business conditions in the region involved are reported as splendid, and it is believed by the committee that Portland can realize immediate and valuable benefits from the excursion.

TO VISIT ROUND-UP

It is planned for the special train bearing the excursion to leave Portland at midnight September 17 and to return on the morning of September 25. A special inducement is expected to be the inclusion on the schedule of a stop at Pendleton September 24, the last day of the Round-Up.

O. W. Mielke, director of the excursion committee, declared that the trip is one of the most important which has been planned by the chamber.

"The territory involved," he said, "is a rapidly growing market which Portland cannot afford to neglect. Crop conditions have been unusually good this year, and Eastern buyers are invading the region.

CROP PRICES GOOD

"They are paying high prices for the various crops grown, and establishing business connections which are not apt to help Portland in getting its share of Idaho trade.

"The value of the trade excursions has been so well proved that it is not necessary to talk about it. We should have made this territory last year, but we didn't have time. Now is our chance, and it is up to us to take advantage of it before it is too late.

"There were not less than 100 Idaho purchasers here during Buyers' week, and the least we can do is to return the compliment. Portland is the logical market and port for the section. It is our own fault if we do not call this fact to the attention of the people of Idaho."

The itinerary, which gives the excursionists a day in Pendleton during the Round-Up, follows:

Leave Portland 12:45 a. m., September 18; arrive Pocatello 8 a. m., and leave 1 p. m., September 19; arrive Blackfoot 1:55 p. m., and leave 3:30 p. m., September 19; arrive Idaho Falls 4:30 p. m., September 19, and leave 1 a. m., September 20; arrive American Falls 5 a. m. and leave 9 a. m., September 20; arrive Minodoka 10 a. m. and leave 10:30 a. m., September 20; arrive Buhl 1:30 p. m. and leave 2:30 p. m., September 20; arrive Twin Falls 3 p. m. and leave 1 a. m., September 21; Burley 2:30 to 10:30 a. m., September 21; Rupert 11 a. m. to 1 p. m., September 21; Jerome 3 p. m. to 4 p. m., September 21; Gooding 5:30 p. m. to 1 a. m., September 22; Shoshone 2 a. m. to 9 a. m., September 22; Glenns Ferry 10:25 to 11:15 a. m., September 22; Mountain Home 12:15 p. m. to 2 p. m., September 22; Boise 3:30 p. m. to 1 a. m., September 23; Nampa 3 a. m. to 10 a. m., September 23; Caldwell 10:20 a. m. to 1:10 p. m., September 23; Payette 2:30 to 4:30 p. m., September 23; Weiser 4:55 to 11 p. m., September 23; Pendleton 7:30 a. m., September 24, to 12:01 a. m., September 25, and arrive Portland 7:30 a. m., September 25.

Examination to Be Held for Veterinary Corps of U. S. Army

Washington, Sept. 5.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Examinations to fill 16 vacancies as second lieutenant in the veterinary corps of the regular army are to be held in different parts of the country November 14, open to reserve veterinary officers who are between 21 and 30 years of age at the time of appointment, which will be, probably, in January next. The candidates must be graduates of recognized veterinary colleges and have had one year at least in practice, or equivalent in hospital work, college instruction or work of the bureau of animal husbandry. Those otherwise qualified who are not members of the reserve corps can make application to enter that service to the adjutant general of the army at Washington.

Church Can Win if It Champions Labor, Says Otto Hartwig

Otto Hartwig, president of the State Federation of Labor, told the Sunday night congregation at Sunnyside Methodist church that "if the church wishes to continue as a force for the maintenance of present conditions, it must of necessity exercise an influence over a great bulk of the people."

"This can be accomplished," he said, "only if the people will feel that their problems are the problems of the church, and the church is an institution to which they can look for a square deal."

The speaker predicted that when the church actually interests itself enough in labor to indorse the program of labor as against the program of capital, that labor would then stand solidly behind the church.

'Billy' Sunday Rips Into Devil for Big Los Angeles Crowds

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 5.—(I. N. S.) Three of the largest audiences ever assembled in that many big Los Angeles churches heard Billy Sunday attack the devil, booze, modern women's fashions, free thinkers, Bolshevists, backsliders, hypocrites, "simps" and "super-simps" yesterday and last night.

The evangelist, who with his wife has been visiting their son, George, for several days, will leave early this week for his home at Winona Lake, Ind. They will be at the opening of the Kentucky State fair at Louisville, September 18.

Bend Won't Pay for Cinder Asphalt Base

Bend, Sept. 4.—If C. S. Reed places a cinder base under the asphalt he lays on Bend streets hereafter, he will do so at his own expense, the city council decided Friday night. His contract called for laying the pavement on the rolled dirt grade, but recently he declared a cinder base was needed. The pavement is laid with a five-year guarantee. An opinion from the Portland bonding firm of Teal, Minor & Winfree caused the council's decision.

Game Warden Gives Reason for Opening Bob White Season

Objectors to the opening of season on Bob White quail in Oregon October 15 for a period of 16 days were answered today by Captain A. E. Burghduff, state game warden, in a statement sent to several prominent bird lovers in the state.

Burghduff says that decision to open the season on Bob White quail was taken only after mature consideration of the experiences of other states. He said that states which have tried a permanent closed season have had the experience of seeing the birds become inbred and die out, while in states where open seasons come the birds are stirred about and are more plentiful.

"William L. Finley and other sportsmen and bird lovers realize that a short open season will do more for the propagation of quail than the continuation of the present system of indefinite protection," says Burghduff in his statement.

Three Big Stages Burned at Canby In Midnight Fire

Canby, Sept. 5.—Three bgi auto stages, owned by the Oregon Stage company, of which M. J. Lee is manager, were destroyed about midnight by fire which burned the C. M. Wait barn on C street, in the rear of the school auditorium. The auditorium was saved by the fire department. Loss is estimated at $15,000. J. R. Vinyard, Canby merchant, was bruised when run over b ya hose cart. Spontaneous combustion or incendiarism is thought to have been the cause.

Lee had returned from Oregon City with a party about 11:30 o'clock and put up the newest and largest of the stages. He had walked about two blocks when the alarm of fire was turned in, and returned to find the barn in flames. The fire started on the side opposite to that in which the stages were stored.

Raymond Mill Man Commits Suicide By Slashing Veins

Raymond, Wash., Sept. 5. — Oscar Klooster, employed in the lumber mills in this city for several years, committed suicide at his home on the river front Saturday night between 6 and 7 o'clock by slashing a vein of his left forearm. His body was discovered at 7:30 by his two little nieces, who had come to his home to deliver a basket of flowers. Opening the door they saw his form upon the bed, the left arm outstretched, with a pool of blood upon the floor beneath. They called neighbors, who notified city and county authorities. Deputy Coroner Henderson summoned County Attorney Murray and it was decided that an inquest would be unnecessary.

Klooster, who was unmarried, is said to have devoted much time to reading, especially religious subjects, and it is thought that this caused mental derangement.

Postoffice Robbery Followed by Second Charge of Larceny

Albany, Or., Sept. 5.—Following his theft of $145 from the Tangent postoffice Sunday, August 28, Roy Creasy of Tangent, whose parents live at Marion, was arrested Saturday night by Sheriff Kendall to answer to the charge of larceny of watch and ring from Emmett Addy, his former employer.

He is accused of taking property from the Addy house while his employer and family were away from home early in the summer. The stolen watch was found by the sheriff in Creasy's room at the F. B. Jenks home, where he is now employed. Creasy was wearing the ring. It was the postoffice theft disclosure that caused Addy to suspect Creasy, he says.

Four Flee in Night As Theatre Burns

Ridgefield, Wash., Sept. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. August Greenlund saved the lives of their children and themselves by narrow margins Saturday night when the Senset theatre, in the rear of which they lived, burned to the ground. Greenlund tossed their 18-months-old child from a window to the ground 12 feet below and led their little son through the burning theatre. All escaped in their night clothes. Greenlund's arm was painfully cut in breaking the window to save the baby. The loss is placed at $6500, with little insurance. Homes of Alfred Miller, L. S. Frink and G. W. Horn were damaged. Saturday night's theatre receipts were lost.

Mob's Shots Halt Reckless Motorist

Denver, Sept. 5.—(U. P.)—A mob of 100 persons late Sunday night attempted to lynch Roy Ashman, 18, a soldier, at Fitzsimmons general hospital near here, when he attempted to escape in his automobile after he had run down and badly injured Mrs. H. R. Degalyer. Police rescued Ashman after more than 100 shots were fired to stop his flight and the action of the mob.

EIGHT THOUSAND ATTEND ROUND-UP; BULLDOGGER HURT

Lakeview, Sept. 5.—Bucking horses, mules, bulls and calves as well as chariot races, running races, trick roping and cowboy clown performances featured the second day of the roundup here Sunday. All day Saturday and Sunday automobiles continued to arrive until this little frontier city of 1500 was crowded with 8000 spectators. Every available bed was occupied and every camping site was crowded to capacity.

The program started Sunday morning with a ball game between Prineville, champions of Central Oregon, and Lakeview, which resulted in a 2 to 1 victory for the visitors. Accompanying the Prineville team were thirty irrigators in costume, among them being King Alfalfa, P. M. Fuller and Senator Jay H. Upton.

TWELVE SURVIVE DAY

Of the 24 riders entered in the saddle bucking contest only 12 survived the day and in the bareback bucking, out of 25 entries, only 15 were permitted to enter the finals today. Many of the cowboys thrown were men who have won a number of contests in other places, indicating that the bronchos which the Round-Up association has collected are among the worst in the Northwest.

Of the $4000 cash prize money, $2200 had been paid out at the end of the program Sunday night. The balance will be paid out today when the finals are held and the winners determined. The prize money cowboys spend freely and every evening presents a purely western scene of whooping, spending cowboys.

BULLDOGGER INJURED

Late in the program Saturday Skeeter Bill Robbins, stunt roper, bulldogger and rider of Cheyenne, Wyo., was run over by a bucking horse and suffered a broken leg. H. L. Bennett, Reno, Nev., was thrown and injured. Both Robbins and his wife, who are well known in round-up circles, are here on their way to the Pendleton Round-Up. The accident will keep Robbins from the bucking arena the balance of the season. His fellow cowboys took a collection for him and more than $800 was raised.

Today's program concluded the frontier classic.
