Ford Captures Rose City 100 Tourney Event

By George Bertz

Going straight in all four events, O. N. Ford captured the Rose City 100—the feature event of the three-day trap tourney at the Portland Gun club traps, which closed Monday—with a perfect score. Thirteen shooters entered the classic, but Ford was the only one who powdered every target and followers of the sport declared that he smashed every one to bits.

W. G. Warren of Yerington, Nev., carried off second honors in the event with a score of 99, nosing James W. Seavey, Portland veteran, out of second place by one target. Frank Templeton of Portland finished with a score of 97 and E. H. Keller and C. B. Preston of Portland shattered 96 targets. These six men carried off a greater portion of the $650 purse.

Seventeen other shooters participated in the event, as the targets were registered, but none of them came near the mark registered by Ford, Mark Siddall being the highest with 96. Mrs. Ada Schilling won the women's trophy and Al Cook coop-topped the professionals in the event with a score of 95. W. C. Block and Jim Reid finished with scores of 94.

Ford, as the result of his record breaking shooting, has an unfinished long run of over 120 targets.

High honors in the 50 target 16-yard event was a tie between Frank Templeton, Portland, and two Walla Wallans, Z. Dimmick and J. D. Ankeny. Each of these shooters registered perfect scores and 11 others missed but one target in this event.

James W. Seavey and J. Blaine Troeh tied for high honors in the 50-target handicap event, each smashing 50 straight from the 19-yard mark. These two shooters also tied in the 25 pairs of doubles, each scoring 45. In the shoot-off of the handicap, Troeh was victorious and in the shoot-off of the doubles, Seavey won his own special cash purse.

Eleven shooters tied for second honors in the handicap, the same number as in the 50 16-yard target event, with scores of 49. O. N. Ford won second honors in the double with a score of 43 and Herb Newland took third honors with a score of 41. Frank Templeton, Charles Leith and Dr. H. L. Petit of Chehalis tied for fourth place with scores of 40.

Following are the special cash prize winners:

Mark Rickard Special—John Ankeny of Walla Walla, Wash.

A. A. Hoover Special—J. Blaine Troeh of Portland.

A. W. Strowger Special—Tom Fujiyoshi of Walla Walla, Wash.

J. W. Seavey Special—James W. Seavey of Portland.

O. N. Ford Special—Charles Preston of Portland.

J. B. Troeh Special—O. N. Ford and E. H. Keller.

Tom Fujiyoshi, the only Japanese trapshooter in the Northwest, did some very remarkable shooting throughout the tourney and in capturing the A. W. Strowger special defeated some of the best shots in the tournament. Ford and Keller annexed the team race by a margin of one bird.

Following are the scores:

MINOR BASEBALL

TEN innings were required before the Arleta baseball team was able to defeat the Veterans of Foreign Wars' aggregation, 10 to 6, on the Vaughn street grounds Monday. Arleta had the game 6 to 3 when the Vets went to bat in their half of the ninth, and when the stanza was completed the score stood 6 to 6. In the tenth, Manager Brooks' athletes got busy and counted four runs, while Manager Lowry's proteges couldn't fathom the delivery of Brandt who had been sent in to replace "Lefty" Heiman for the one inning. The game was interesting throughout and a very small crowd was on hand. The hitting of Slade, Goodwin and Thomas featured for the winners, while "Doc" Besson was the shining light for the Vets.

Ridgefield, Wash., Sept. 6.—The final game of the 1921 season as far as the Ridgefield Amateur Athletic club baseball team is concerned, resulted in a 9 to 3 victory for the Vancouver Moose here Sunday. "Chinky" Coovert hit a home run for the winners as well as pitching a good game. It was the third game between the two nines, Ridgefield winning two of them.

Harrisburg, Or., Sept. 6.—Junction City was set back 13 to 3 by the local ball tossers Monday. George Alford hit the only home run of the game and Bill Kirk was injured while sliding into second. Manager Wilbur Kelsey of the Harrisburg team repeatedly has challenged the Salem Senators, but as yet no word has been received from the Marion county stars.

The Portland Bankers' All-Stars won two games, the first 13 to 3 from Boring, Or., Sunday, and the second, 13 to 5, from the Vancouver, Wash., Moose on the barracks grounds Monday. Buono and Klein were the hitting stars for the winners, while Joe Grassens pitched fine ball. The Bankers will go to Salem to meet the state penitentiary next Sunday.

Camas, Wash., Sept. 6.—The local baseball team defeated the Fields Motor Car company tossers 3 to 2 here Sunday. Three twirlers were used by Camas in putting across the victory. Sunderleaf and Grier formed the Portland battery, while Harris, Ring, Quessinberry, Stewart and Helmcke worked for the locals.

The Fields Motor Car company athletes went to Salem Monday and defeated the state penitentiary contingent, 8 to 4. Tuel and Reynolds formed the losing battery while Sunderleaf and Grier worked for Manager Simon's squad.

Portland Golfer Is En Route to St. Louis

Dr. O. F. Willing, one of Portland's entrants in the National amateur golf championship at St. Louis, departed for the East Monday. Rudolph Wilhelm is expected to leave Tuesday for the East.

Bon Stein, Lee Stell and Clark Spiers, Seattle's trio of players entered in the event, departed Monday, according to word received from Johnny Dreher, secretary of the P. N. G. A.

These players, along with Russell Smith, Biggerstaffe Wilson, Chandler Egan and Guy Standifer, will represent the Pacific Northwest in a team match against Eastern and Middle West players before the opening of the national championship.

Jim Barnes Beats Jock Hutchinson

(By United News)

Great Neck, L. I., Sept. 6.—Jim Barnes, open golf champion of America, won his match for the championship of the world against Jock Hutchison, open champion of England, when he defeated Hutchison 5 and 4 in a 36 hole contest here Monday. A side purse of $2000 went to the winner.

Barnes was 4 up on Hutchison at the end of the morning's play of 18 holes, but was unable to add to his advantage in the afternoon play until after the ninth hole, when he became 5 up, the match ending at the thirty-second hole.
