Alumnae Club Of Alpha Chi Is Hostess at Tea

THE Alumnae club of Alpha Chi Omega gave an attractive tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Ward Hopkins. The tea table was artistically decorated with carnations and smilax, the sorority flowers. Mrs. Joseph E. Withrow poured and Miss Elizabeth Patrick cut the loaves. During the afternoon a short musical program was given. Vocal solos were offered by Mrs. Robert O. Morrison, Miss Leola Green and Miss Gladys Keeney and piano solos were played by Mrs. Earl C. Miller of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Eugenia McNaughton and Miss Truth Terry gave violin selections and Miss Mildred Le Compte presented a solo dance. Special guests were active members of Alpha Kappa chapter of the University of Oregon and several of the younger girls who will enter college this year.

Miss Josephine Woolery of 451 Jessup street will give a party Wednesday evening for the senior Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church. Miss Dorothy Rice is chairman of the committee on games. This endeavor society has the distinction of having four times as many young men members as young women members.

THE Misses Dorothy and Lillian Mitchell will leave in a short time with their mother, Mrs. William Ellis Mitchell, for New York, where they will spend the winter. Wednesday they entertained at a smart tea for their young friends.

Church Soloist Attractive Bride Of Past Week

AN ATTRACTIVE bride of last week was Miss Goldie Peterson, who became the bride of Mr. Vernon Wessler, Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. B. Shively, in Wistaria drive. The service was read by Dr. Joshua Stanfield of the First Methodist Episcopal church, where the bride is soloist in the choir.

Early fall blossoms, with pink asters, zinnias and dahlias predominating, were used throughout the rooms as decorations and an improvised altar was arranged for the ceremony. Mrs. Miti-lene Frazer Siles sang a group of songs preceding the service. Esther Collins Chatten sang the bridal hymn and Gladys Morgan Farmer presided at the piano and also played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, which was sung by eight charming young women including Gertrude Porter, Marguerite Benninghoff, Ruth Lange, Marie Dooly, Eunice Parker, Blanche Vera Stanton, Mrs. M. Wolcott and Esther Chatten.

The bride was gowned in ivory satin and old lace embellished in pearl trimmings. The crown train of the wedding gown was lined with a delicate shade of green chiffon and was embroidered in pearls. The wedding veil depended from a coronet of lace. Her flowers were roses, orchids and valley lilies.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. R. U. Pierson of Seattle. Mr. A. M. Hare, an attorney of Seattle, was best man. Miss Grace Johnson of Marshfield, who wore a gown of orchid tulle, was accompanied by Little Margaret Shively, niece of the bride, was ring bearer, Elizabeth Shively and Lenore Peterson were flower girls. Their gowns were dainty creations of pastel tulle and organza.

Following the ceremony was a wedding reception at which Miss Helen Bishop cut the loaves, and Mrs. Sidney Rasmussen presided at the coffee urns. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Florence E. Thomas, Mrs. James A. C. Tait, Mrs. Merle Reder, Mrs. R. U. Peterson and Miss Mary Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Wessler will make their home in Portland on their return from their wedding trip. Mrs. Wessler will continue her musical work in the city.

Miss Julia May Smith became the bride of Mr. Maurice F. Criger of this city Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith, in East Forty-seventh street, the Rev. J. J. Staub of Sunnyside Congregational church officiating. A beautiful arbor of autumn leaves, ferns and palms formed an artistic setting for the ceremony. Miss Eva Gentry opened the service with "Benediction," accompanied by her sister, Miss Ruth Gentry; at the close she sang "At Dawning." The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Miss Dorothy Smith. The bride's gown was of Canton crepe; her veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms; she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds. Miss Mildred Smith, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore pink satin, carrying a bouquet of sweetpeas and rosebuds. Mr. J. Eisenhauer acted as best man. A company of immediate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and participated in the reception which followed.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Florence Ferrel of Lewiston, Mont., to Mr. Alfred Gehrl of Tacoma, was a surprise which greeted Reed students upon returning to college last week. Both are students at Reed and are members of the senior class. The engagement was made during the summer but was not announced until they returned to college this fall.

Miss Ferrel was recently elected vice president of the senior class and she has been very active at Reed in literary and dramatic work. She is the daughter of F. M. Ferrel, a prominent business man of Lewiston, Mont. Mr. Gehrl is a psychology major, having received an assistantship in that department for this year. The marriage will not be held until some time next summer.

Mrs. Sidney Hemenway Ellis (Lella Guthrie) of Los Angeles is a visitor in the city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Guthrie and Mrs. L. C. Weaver, another daughter, is expected to arrive from San Francisco in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell Wood have left the city for San Francisco, where they will spend a few weeks.

Building Owners Are Entertained By Mrs. Silva

A LUNCHEON was tendered the members of the Portland Association of Building Owners and Managers at their meeting last week by Mrs. N. D. Silva, manager of the Chamber of Commerce building, at her country home, Sylvan Farm, Clackamas county. She was assisted by Mrs. W. F. Whitley, and a delicious menu, largely prepared by Mrs. Silva, was served.

The guests were: Messrs. J. B. Yeon, F. H. V. Andrews, Charles S. Holbrook, H. W. Fries, E. H. White, R. M. Tuttle, J. C. Daries, G. G. Jones, Robert H. Strong, F. E. Hart, F. J. Raley, I. Waring, Dean Vincent, J. F. Raley, H. G. Stackweather, R. M. Townsend and James J. Sawyer.

Ferdinand H. Heywood of Pasadena, who was in Portland in June at the annual convention of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers, was a special guest of the occasion. Since June Mr. and Mrs. Heywood have been traveling in the Pacific Northwest. While in Portland Mrs. Heywood was entertained by Mrs. Gwilym G. Jones. Mrs. Silva has been manager of the Chamber of Commerce building for the last three years.

One of the smart formal teas of the early fall season will be that given next Monday by Miss Georgine Geisler at her home on Portland Heights, in honor of Miss Genevieve Keller. Cards have been sent to about 150 maids and matrons.

Mrs. Watson Is Inspiration for Several Affairs

MRS. ELVIDA BURNES WATSON, whose marriage to Mr. Arch Bidwell Cleveland will take place in the near future, has been extensively entertained in the past fortnight. Mrs. Victor W. Strode entertained at an informal tea and bridge Wednesday. Mrs. William L. Powell entertained at a tea for her September 10, and several other affairs have been given for her pleasure.

Miss Josephine Miller was hostess for a tea Saturday afternoon, for which cards were sent out to about 65 guests. Fall flowers adorned the rooms for the occasion and the callers were received by Miss Miller and the guest of honor. At the tea hour Mrs. C. E. Stoltz, Mrs. Creighton Jones, Mrs. William L. Powell and Mrs. Harold L. Temple presided at the table and were assisted about the rooms and in serving by Mrs. James Burnes, Mrs. Koonhausen, Miss Madeline Lyon and Miss Elizabeth Hicks.

Mrs. Everett Ames left the city Wednesday for an extended trip East. She will place her son James in Hill school for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Hall Hartwell have given up their home on Waverleigh Heights and will be domiciled in a short time at 744 Montgomery Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Eilers returned last Monday from a motor trip from Ocean Park, Wash., where they have been for the past two weeks.

Miss Nell Reidt Is Pretty Bride Of Wednesday

MISS NELL ELIZABETH REIDT and Mr. Norman Wallace Hunter were married Wednesday afternoon at Grace Memorial church, the Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating. Miss Gladys Harbise was maid of honor and Mr. Robert Parrott was best man.

The bride was smartly gowned in a taupe costume of chiffon velvet with hat to match. Her flowers were fashioned in an arm bouquet and were Ophelia roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reidt.

Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will make their home in Alameda Park where they have a new bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Boyd and Mrs. H. H. Kingsley, Mrs. Boyd's mother, spent the week end at Columbia Gorge hotel last week. Other week-end visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Duffy and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Applewhite, Mrs. George Black, Miss Agnes Jane Black, Harvey N. Black and George Black Jr., also Miss Helen Haller. Mr. John C. Boyer is spending a few days at the hotel. Other recent guests were: Col. and Mrs. Glen S. Parke, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Devereaux, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Cronen, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Poulsen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bronaugh and daughters.

Franklin High Graduates Are Bride and Groom

A PRETTY wedding of last Sunday was that of Miss Miriam Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hubbard, and Mr. Melvin Hall of Corvallis. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents at Holgate moorage, Dr. Joshua Stanfield of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

The bride was gowned in navy blue snow crepe and wore a corsage of Ophelia roses. Following the ceremony the wedding collation was served, Miss Lois Hyde, a cousin of the bride, serving the loaves.

Both young people are graduates of Franklin high school. Mr. Hall is a senior at Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of Theta Delta Nu fraternity. He is majoring in journalism at college, and until the completion of his school work they will make their home at Corvallis.

Mrs. C. E. Nelson was hostess for a luncheon Monday honoring Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, who with Senator Stanfield and their daughter Barbara, left the city Wednesday for Washington, D. C.

Miss V'ona Guthrie entertained informally at a small luncheon Thursday at her home in Everett street, honoring Miss Lorraine Goodrich, who is the house guest of Miss Kathryn Hoyt.
