ST. HELENS SPEED COP DEFENDENT IN BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Legal tables have been turned on I. L. Abbott, speed cop at St. Helens in Columbia county.

Abbott has been picking up speeders right and left, most of them from Portland. Among them was Dr. G. M. Hoffman, dentist in The Journal building, and late Tuesday afternoon Hoffman filed suit in circuit court here charging Abbott with false arrest and imprisonment, and asking $10,000 damages.

And, more grief for Abbott, when he arrests a speeder the victim is dragged before the local justice of the peace at St. Helens, Abbott's home town. But Abbott was caught in Portland Tuesday evening by Deputy Sheriff Doty and served with papers in the damage suit. So he will have to stand trial in Portland instead of in St. Helens among friends.

Both Dr. Hoffman and Eugene Brookings, his attorney, were in St. Helens today, where Dr. Hoffman was to appear for a hearing charging him with speeding.

DIVORCE SUITS SHOW FALLING OFF IN PAST TWO MONTHS

During the war and after the war, until two months ago, as many divorce suits were filed in the Multnomah circuit court as marriage licenses were issued at the license bureau. During the last two months, however, the number of divorces has dropped to 50 per cent of what it was, according to figures prepared by Joe Rogers, presiding clerk.

The quarter ending September 30, 1919, an average quarter for that year, showed 500 divorce suits filed. In the quarter ending June 30 this year, 295 suits were filed, and the number during the quarter ending September 30 this year is expected to be even less.

During the last two months an average of 11 default divorce cases have been heard each Wednesday. Before that time the average was 23.

DIVORCE MILL

Suits filed: Blanche against James A. Luehrs, Lena B. against Carroll J. Bennett, Frantiska against Miloslav Nemac, Nellie against Carl F. Milner, Anna Catherine against Byron Eugene Hammond and Minnie against Emil DeTore.

SUES FOR $10,000

Damages of $10,000 are asked by G. M. Hoffman, who claims he was arrested without due process of law and due cause by I. L. Abbott of Columbia county. Suit was filed in circuit court.

Inquiry Is Demanded Into Meat Prices

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 21.—Conferences with representatives of various women's clubs of the city and the home industries bureau of the Chamber of Commerce are to be held as soon as possible this week, by R. A. Balch, secretary of the Spokane Stockmen's club, to further the plan of the stockmen for an investigation of the retail prices of meat. Balch was instructed by unanimous vote of the club to make arrangements for the inquiry, after it had been asserted by members that retail markets are making profits ranging from 24 to 70 per cent.

LOWER BANK RATE IS EXPECTED SOON

By W. H. Atkins

Washington, Sept. 21. — (I. N. S.) — Lower bank rates at an early day were predicted today at the close of the quarterly session of the advisory council of the federal reserve board. New York and Boston federal reserve banks, both of which have a flat re-discount rate of 5½ per sent, will be the first to make rediscount rate cuts.

Other banks in the federal reserve system, notably Chicago and Cleveland, may be quick to follow the lead of Boston and New York. Officials of the federal reserve board refused to divulge details of the discussions of the council, except to say there had been a most extended canvass of the economic situation and that easier money conditions was an outstanding factor.

Drops in reserve bank rediscount rates will exert a healthy influence immediately upon credit. The strength of the federal reserve system and its ability to meet future emergencies, is clarly indicatd by the almost unprecedented reserve ratios, registered for some of the big districts of the East and Middle West.

I. C. C. Examiner Will Hear Lumber Complaint Nov. 2

Washington, Sept. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—The interstate commerce commission has set for hearing at Portland, November 2, the complaint of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association and lumbermen on Astoria and Tillamook branches asking admission to the coast group through rates to the upper Mississippi valley states. Existing rates, according to the complaint, give undue advantage to Portland, Hoquiam and Seattle. The case will be heard by Examiner H. J. Wagner, who also will hear the Booth-Kelly demurrage cases November 4 and the complaint of R. J. Holmes November 2.

PROPERTY OWNERS OPPOSE PROPOSED STREET EXTENSION

Protestants from the district involved by the proposed extension of Interstate avenue presented themselves to the city council this morning in force to register their remonstrances to the project.

Too much taxation, no need for improvement and lack of proper compensation for damages to property adjacent to the proposed cut between Fremont and Delay streets were the chief objections.

According to the plans drawn up by O. Laurgaard, city engineer, Interstate avenue, a 100-foot street extending from the north line of the city limits to Fremont street, is to be extended southeast to the intersection of the Greely road, Morris and Delay streets, giving a junction ultimately, with Larrabee and access to the busines sdistrict by way of the Broadway bridge.

WOULD ELIMINATE JOG

The plan also provides for eliminating a jog in the street by cutting a similar diagonal from Prescott street to Mason street. The cost of the extension is estimated at approximately $52,000 and the assessment district covers some 6500 lots. The assessments for each 50 by 100 lot range from $2 in the outlying portions of the district to $28 on Interstate avenue.

The extension was planned, according to Laurgaard, to afford a broad thoroughfare for automobiles from the north city line to the center of town upon which there were no car tracks. He points out that the improvement will have to be made in time and that the property values will increase and therefore raise the cost of the improvement if delayed.

W. F. Dickinson told the council that 75 per cent of the property owners in the district were opposed to the extension. He said the owners of unimproved land deserved as much consideration as those living in the district.

QUESTION REFERRED

Others appearing for the opposition were: H. H. Smith, H. A. LaBenz, Mrs. A. Brice, John Burns, Theresa Behm, Mrs. J. L. Hanson and J. J. McCreal.

Led by a citizen who refused to give his name, a delegation from Overlook appeared to go on record as favoring the project. The leader stated that he was a property owner and had been one for several years and from the way things were going that he was beginning to be ashamed of the fact.

The extension project was referred to the department of public works. An investigation will be made and the report returned to the council for action. The report will be made in three weeks.

COUNCIL DENIES PERMIT FOR MATERNITY HOSPITAL

Stating that the location of a maternity hospital directly across the street from a public school building and playgrounds was not desirous either to the patrons of the school or to the patients of the hospital, the application for permit made by Dr. Mary Hazlett to operate a maternity hospital at 45 East Sixteenth street was denied by the city council this morning. The proposed hospital would be across the street from the site of the new Hawthorne-Buckman school.

HARDSURFACING OF VERNON AND HOLGATE REQUESTED

Two petitions have been filed in the office of the city auditor by residents in Vernon and Holgate districts requesting street improvements. The residents of the Vernon district ask that East Twentieth street between Skidmore and Crane streets be improved by making a proper sub-grade and then hardsurfaced. They specify the municipal paving plant as the one to do the work. The other petition is to pave East Sixteenth street from Schiller to Mitchell streets.

NO FUNDS; CITY LAYS OFF 16 WHOSE SERVICES ARE NEEDED

Despite the amount of work to be done 10 inspectors and six men of the surveying gangs will be laid off by the department of public works until the beginning of the fiscal year, December 1, it was announced this morning by O. Laurgaard, city engineer. Laurgaard stated that it was not because of a lack of work, but that the appropriation was not sufficient to meet the payroll. Work would be resumed, he said, as soon as the budget for 1922 was approved.

BIDS ASKED ON ROAD TO JOIN WITH TERWILLIGER

Bids for grading a proposed road to join Terwilliger boulevard have been asked for by the city auditor. The road is to open the tract of land lying east of Elk Point and the city is concerned with only that part built in the 200-foot right of way used by the boulevard. The estimated cost, according to C. P. Keyser of the park bureau, is $1500. Bids will be received until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

MUSTARD ORDERED DESTROYED

Four hundred and ten cases of Bayle's mustard were ordered destroyed this morning by Federal Judge R. S. Bean on petition of Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Maguire. The mustard was seized several weeks ago by United States Marshal Alexander when government food inspectors reported that it contained an undue amount of hulls. The product was manufactured by the Bayle Food Products company of San Francisco.

SWIMMING POOL ASKED

Residents of the University Park district met with C. P. Keyser, superintendent of parks, at the Peninsula school, to discuss the improvement of Columbia park. The request was made for a swimming pool.

DR. CHILDS IS BACK; ON WAY TO SALEM

made me suspicious and I asked that Dr. Childs be transferred to another cell. He was, and a complete set of saws was found in his old cell. Two bars on the window had been sawed off already and he was at work on the third. He told me on the way West that in another two hours he would have made his escape. Mrs. Childs smiled because she thought he was certain to make his get-away.

"The officers held Mrs. Childs until I got her husband on the train. We stayed in Chicago Saturday night. He stole a spoon from somewhere and worked several bricks out of the wall of his cell. But he couldn't get through the cement on the other side of the bricks.

"Handcuff me well," Dr. Childs told me, because I simply can't resist if I get a chance to make a break."

BRAGS ABOUT RECORD

Dr. Childs bragged before he was started for Salem that $2.85 was the only honest money he had ever earned in his life.

A clever confidence stunt was responsible for the doctor's sentence in Atlanta. He bought several thousand dollars' worth of brand new $1 bills. He then had an accomplice hunt a victim. The confidence man told the victim that the $1 bills were counterfeit. He offered to sell them for 50 cents a bill. After the victim had passed a couple of them to see whether they would work, Dr. Childs strutted around the corner. He shook hands with his accomplice and said:

Hello, Bill, when did you get out of prison? Last time I arrested you I thought you had been put away for keeps."

Immediately the victim began to get anxious and finally ran, thinking Dr. Childs was a United States marshal. They caught him and scared him into giving liberal "hush" money.

But Dr. Childs finally got hold of a man who was suspicious and wouldn't run. So the doctor landed in prison.

Mrs. Childs is expected in Portland any day now. Then more trouble is looked for.

"She is as daring as Roy Gardner ever was," Sheriff T. M. Hurlburt sums her up.

himself. Johnson won the fourth when Ouimet's drive found a bunker, the sixth when Ouimet was short with approach and putt and the eighth where the Boston golfer sliced into a brook.

Johnston led by three holes at the ninth, but dropped this lead, coming in when he started to hoop his tee shots. This got him into much trouble and Ouimet led at the eighteenth by a hole. They were even at the seventeenth but Ouimet won the eighteenth with a par four, Johnston failing to reach home in two.

Jimmy Manion, product of St. Louis public links, had the honor of being one up on Willie Hunter, the British champion, at the eighteenth. He had a medal score of 76 to 79 for Hunter. This pair carried a large gallery when they started on their second 18 holes. Tommy Armour, the other foreign player, led Bob Gardner of Chicago two holes at the eighteenth. Gardner played badly coming in.

Jesse Sweetser, New York, led L. C. Bunning, Chicago, four holes.

Ruddy Knepper, Sioux City, led Robert Stein, Seattle, five holes.

Jesse Guilford of Boston was one up on Dewey Weber, Chicago, at the eighteenth hole.

Ouimet had to shoot some remarkable golf on the final 18 holes yesterday to overcome a lead Maxwell Marston established early in their first round match.

The match which brought Armour against Gardner carried a large gallery and may St. Louis enthusiasts trailed along behing Jimmy Manion, the former cady, who faced the big opportunity of his golfing career with Willie Hunter, the British amateur champion, as his opponent. His friends were willing to back him at even money to beat Hunter.

Stolen Articles Are Restored to Hotel; Names Withheld

Stolen silverware, bed clothing, table linen and various articles stolen from the Seaside hotel, reaching to total estimated at $5000, were recovered here last week by officers of the hotel company and deputy constables acting with search warrants.

The trunk containing the stolen property was found in the basement of the Fliedner building, according to Deputy Constable Miles.

The hotel management made it known that it would not prosecute the persons responsible for the theft, since a complete restitution had been brought about. The trunk was shipped to Portland early last week.
