

English Golf Champion Displays Great Game: City Golf Tourney to Have Big Entry

British Golf Wonder Beats Bobby Jones

By Alexander F. Jones
Dated New Staff Correspondent.

ST. LOUIS CLUB, Clayton, Mo., Sept. 23.—Here's a toast to "Willie" Hunter, a stouthearted little fighter with courage to battle alone and unaided, who doesn't know when he is beaten, and gentlemen and ladies, a true son of John Bull and a whale of a golfer.

Hunter, the British amateur champion, fought his way into the semi-finals of the National Amateur Golf championship here Thursday by defeating Bobby Jones, the scientific American youngster, 3 and 1. The match, which was a heartbreaker, ended on the thirty-fifth green and Hunter won after trailing the American star all over.

Never did Hunter get out in front throughout the day until the thirty-second green. Here, with Bobby on the lip of the cup in three, the Briton coasted the hole and steeled himself for a try for a three.

CROWD IS WITH BOBBY

He was 25 feet from the hole. More than 15,000 spectators, pulling with bulky enthusiasm for Bobby and hardly able to restrain their feelings, were massed about the green.

Willie steadied himself and shot deliberately. The ball rolled swiftly and accurately for the hole, but on the very lip, hesitated and dropped.

A groan that echoed over the rolling course came from the throats of the great gallery.

There were only four more holes to go. Bobby, his familiar and handsome jaw stuck out determinedly, smiled. He had downed the fighting Britisher before in many tight holes.

HUNTER TAKES LEAD

But on the next hole the gallant little Southerner had the hard luck to hit his second shot almost into the road. He missed his iron shot with a true and true cup by 15 feet. Hunter's third was closer. Bobby punted downhill and missed by the narrowest of margins. Hunter also missed, but with a four footer for a halved five. Bobby missed again. It was not an easy shot, but mighty costly, for Hunter dropped his ball and was one.

Only three more holes to go, Bobby, as determined a fighter as Wee Willie, strode to the tee with his head up and still smiling.

Willie drove into the trap on the short 16th. Despite the fairness that the spectators had shown, they couldn't help cheering the scientific mistake of the Briton. It was America against John Bull.

The cheers turned to groans, however, for Bobby was trapped on the other side in his drive.

Bobby rolled up to within 12 feet of the pin.

HOPE IS SHORT LIVED

A mighty cheer arose from the gallery. Hunter, with his sharp featured face screwed up sharper, took off his cap and mopped his face. He deliberately chipped out one of those wonderful delicate chips that are the sparkling feature of his whole game. The ball rolled to within 10 feet of the cup. It was up to Bobby. As his club tom, he patted quickly, the ball tricked within six inches of the little cup, and stopped. Moore groans.

Here Hunter batted that he is a wonderful golfer, better than any player he has ever seen, as far as in this tournament.

He deliberated so long, studying the putt before him, a foot or better, that some kid said:

"For the love of Mike, shoot."

He did—for the love of Mike—and the ball rolled straight and true and within six inches of the hole and the Briton was 2 up with only two more holes to go.

Bobby had to win them both to square the match. Both had par fours in the seventeenth and Britanna ruled the links.

JONES GOOD LOSER

Bobby Jones is a hard fighter. But he is not a hard loser. As much as the match meant to him, as much as he must have been disappointed after leading all day, he stepped up and congratulated his opponent, not a perfumery contractor, but a whole-souled chap on the back and a stout and long handshake.

At lunch time, at the end of the eighteenth hole, Bobby was 2 up on Hunter. He had made the round in 34, and they didn't make better scores than that on this course. Hunter had a 37 round.

Starting out in the afternoon round Bobby had some hard luck on the very first hole. He was in the trap and over the cup on his foot, and a whole-souled chap on the hole 5 and 4. On the third hole Bobby had miserable luck. With a three in front of him, he accidentally touched his ball with his sector before he was ready and Hunter won, 4 to 3. This squared the match.

But Bobby came back and outdove Hunter, as he did all day, in fact, by 35 yards, chipping out of the green trap, and after both had missed sunk his ball while Hunter was taking another.

TWO UP ONCE MORE

On the short seventh both sides were in one, but Bobby sunk a birdie three while Hunter was taking four, and again Bobby was two up.

Then the former British postal clerk, with his steady, perfect approaches, took the eighth and ninth by steady golf, while Bobby was in trouble in traps and on the green. Again the match was square—until Hunter's inspired putter started the miracle work.

Another match that had thousands of golf-crazy spectators, running over the fairways, through the woods, up steep hills after the contestants like hounds after a pair of foxes, was the Jesse Guilford-R. R. Johnston battle.

It was on the home green after 36 holes that the perfect golf as it has been here this week, in a battle of tremendous drives, and besides, Guilford, the Boston man, was out to revenge Johnston's defeat of Francis Guimet, his fellow countryman.

Both Guilford and Johnston repeatedly deserved real honor—Guilford won, 1 up, but he is not the master of Johnston, save for a few more years' experience.

EVANS SEVES STRENGTH

Chick Evans, champion, found a worthy opponent in Jesse Swetser, New York, former intercollegiate champion, and for the first time in the tournament got out and played golf.

Swetser, in a lead of four holes at the 27th hole, he gradually slowed down to save his strength for his match with Jesse Guilford Friday. Swetser won back two holes in a "good" match. Gardner's hard hitting game was too much for the brilliant Rudy Knepper, Sioux City, and he won, 4 to 2.

The semi-final Friday bring together Guilford and Evans in the first match and Hunter and Gardner in the second.

The Hunter-Jones cards follow:

Hunter, out, 443, 454, 444—36; in, 444, 536, 542—433, 454, 344—34; in, 466, 542, 442.

Beavers Help Seals Toward Season's Flag

By George Berts

IF SAN FRANCISCO annexes the Coast league pennant this season, Doc Strube, Alfie Putnam and Charley Graham should award bronze medals to Judge McCredie, owner, and Walter McCredie manager, and leather medals to the some 30 or 40 players the Portland Beavers have had on their roster this season.

Here's the reason:

Team: W. L. Pct.
San Francisco 23 1 358
Portland 23 0 47

The Seals, with "Lefty" O'Doul grabbing four hits for himself—the same number that he allowed our cellar champions to make—helped the Beavers another defeat Thursday afternoon, 7 to 2. It was only the twelfth straight victory San Francisco has won over our cellar champions of the league.

LEAD AT KEY TIME

At one stage of the game, the Beavers held the lead, thanks to an error which spoiled an otherwise perfect day for O'Doul, 2 to 3. It was too much prosperity for our clan.

The Seals tied the score in the fourth, added another in the fifth and still another in the seventh and just to keep up their run-getting and hitting figures, they put over three runs in the eighth.

Russ Ellison started to pitch for the Beavers. He pitched along in good fashion, although touched up for bingles in every inning until replaced by Ken Scott, who was hit just as hard, but support was not the best the Beavers are capable of giving.

BEAVERS SCORE IN THIRD

Portland scored its two runs in the third. Baker opened the inning with a double to right, and Paton was hit on the sleeve with a pitched ball. Ellison pitched along to third. Paton scored on Gingsler's smash past Kamm. The next three batters were retired without any great effort.

Ellison hit some hard drives, but they were right into the hands of the Seals, while Graham's men hit the ball hard and often for extra bases—seven doubles and a homer by Paton being included in the 17 swats made off the Beavers.

RACING

CRESHAM, Sept. 23.—One of the fastest races ever staged on a Pacific coast track was held Thursday afternoon on the Multnomah county fair track by some of the speediest horses on the circuit.

"These people are seeing racing as good as grand circuit racing," said Judge McNair. "The races are good and the track is in good shape."

Many of the heats were run neck and neck by the leading horses. The only accident during Thursday's events was in the first heat of the 2:15 trot, when Slim Lindsey, driving Barondale, lost a wheel on the last turn. He managed to get in, however, in fourth position and without the flag. Barondale was in the lead when the break came. Barondale won the race in the next three heats.

City Golf Tourney Will Be Big Event; Play Starts Sunday

PORTLAND'S third annual city golf championship tournament, which begins Sunday over the Eastmoreland municipal course, promises to be a record breaker, judging from the number of players who have been playing practice rounds during the week.

Some excellent scores are being made by former caddies who have participated in the first two title meets. Johnny Rebeck, 1919 champion; Walter Mackie, runner-up to Dr. O. F. Willing in the 1920 event; Ed Allwin, Adolph Haas and others have been participating in four-ball matches each week-end.

Players can enter the tournament any time Sunday morning. Entries will be accepted at the first tee. All players are requested to turn in their cards so that handicaps can be arranged, as all flights save the championship and first flight will be under handicap.

Chairman Johnson has made arrangements to speed up the play during the tournament by placing caddies on the thirteenth hole to retrieve the balls driven out of bounds and into the gulley by the players.

Fourteen prizes will be distributed among the winners in the various flights as well as to the low gross and low net scores.

BOXING

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Johnny Buff will attempt to annex another title tonight. The American flyweight champion and holder of the Tex Rickard belt, will face Pete Herman, bantam champion, in a scheduled 15 round bout at Madison Square Garden.

Aurora, Ill., Sept. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Thirty-six rounds of boxing here tonight will be featured by a 10-round go between Pal Moore and Midge Smith, bantamweights. The winner has been promised a bout with Pete Herman, the bantam champion.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Bob Roper, Chicago heavy, knocked out Carl Morris in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout Thursday night.

New York, Sept. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Frankie Curry, New York, and Bobby Hughes, New Orleans, fought a 13-round draw.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 23.—(U. P.)—Joe Gorman, Portland fighter, and Morgan Jones, local gladiator, battled six fast rounds to a draw last night in the opening fistic show of the season. In the semi-weighted Johnny Hogan, Tacoma heavyweight, beat Army Welch in six rounds. Jamie Rivers lost to Al Clark on a foul after he had Clark all but out. Jamie swung on Clark as he was trying to regain his feet after a knockdown. Grant Randle won the decision from Al Winters in four rounds as did Joe Edwards from Jack Howlin.

Waverley to Hold Golf Event Saturday

The fall and winter golf season at the Waverley Country club season will open Saturday with a sealed hole handicap, an innovation tourney here, according to the schedule announced Friday by Dr. O. B. Wight, chairman of the tourney committee.

Players will be allowed two thirds handicap against the low net score. A prize will be offered to the low net score on the 12 sealed hole.

An electric tourney will be staged during the month of October. This form of competition has proven to be very popular in Seattle and other points in the Northwest.

A left-handed players' tourney is also scheduled for October.

DOCTORS' GOLF PLAY SET

Dr. Sam Slocum of the Waverley Country club has been named on the handicap committee of the first annual Northwest surgeons' golf tournament, to be staged over the course of the Tacoma Golf and Country club, Friday, October 7. This tourney is open to all surgeons in the Northwest.

Low townsman. Both Guilford and Johnston repeatedly deserved real honor—Guilford won, 1 up, but he is not the master of Johnston, save for a few more years' experience.

EVANS SEVES STRENGTH

Chick Evans, champion, found a worthy opponent in Jesse Swetser, New York, former intercollegiate champion, and for the first time in the tournament got out and played golf.

Swetser, in a lead of four holes at the 27th hole, he gradually slowed down to save his strength for his match with Jesse Guilford Friday. Swetser won back two holes in a "good" match. Gardner's hard hitting game was too much for the brilliant Rudy Knepper, Sioux City, and he won, 4 to 2.

The semi-final Friday bring together Guilford and Evans in the first match and Hunter and Gardner in the second.

The Hunter-Jones cards follow:

Hunter, out, 443, 454, 444—36; in, 444, 536, 542—433, 454, 344—34; in, 466, 542, 442.

World's Series to Begin October 5th; Details Arranged

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—A silver dollar "Heads," called Ban B. Johnson, president of the American League.

"You lose," said John Heydler, president of the National league, picking up the coin.

Thus the National league won the choice of the opening game of the world's series, October 5, whether it is New York or Pittsburgh.

This and other details of the 1921 baseball classic were arranged Thursday in the office of Baseball Commissioner Landis. It was decided to play the first two games in the National league city winning the pennant after the regular season.

In the event there are any postponements the unplayed games will be played on the grounds where it was originally scheduled.

The question of admission prices was gone into thoroughly at the conference, which was attended by a dozen prominent baseball officials and presided over by Judge Landis. It was decided to give the real fan—the bleacher bug—a chance to see the series for the moderate price of $1. Ban Johnson, it is understood, was the advocate of the cheaper bleacher seat.

Tickets in New York will be $1, $3, $5 and $6, while in Cleveland the prices range from $1 to $6. Two thirds of the Polo grounds' seating capacity will be reserved and Cleveland will have 10,000 bleacher seats.

The schedule:

Opening day, October 5, at National league park (New York or Pittsburgh).
October 6, at National league park.
October 7, at American league park.
October 8, at American league park.
October 9, at National league park.
October 10, at National league park.
October 11, at American league park.
October 12, at American league park.

In the event the Giants and Yankees, two New York teams, meet in the world's series, all the games will be played on the Polo grounds. The clubs will alternate in handling the tickets and crowds. The clubs will change uniforms and will also change benches.

All games will start at 2 o'clock.

Reed College Grid Squads Turn Out; Class Games Billed

THE first football turnout of the season at Reed resulted in four class teams showing up for practice. This is the first year that the college has witnessed four class teams in its intramural schedule. The two upper class teams in previous years having combined to form one team due to lack of football material.

Reed will not enter the intercollegiate football field this year. This was the decision reached by the student body last spring. Lack of time for sufficient practice necessary to meet teams of other colleges due to the scholastic requirements of Reed was given as the reason for returning to intramural sport.

The seniors have found it necessary to call upon every available man in the class in order to develop an eleven. Due to a considerable number of last year's varsity men on the squad it is felt that they will put up strong competition despite the lack of numbers. Those turning out for the seniors are: Stone, Kelley, Houston, Gehri, White, Taylor, Pearson, Benson, Malarkey, Howard and Hamilton.

The juniors have good material in Kehrl (captain), Jones, Miller, Helms, Johnson, Smith, W. Houston and Riddle, who played on last year's squad, and new material in Foster, Brady, Vidgoff and Enkels.

The sophomore will have the most-feared team. Their line-up includes Ted Steffen, last year's varsity quarterback; Halling, who was a member of the varsity squad two years ago; Lindstrom, Rothwell, Graham, Adams, Patullo, Durham, Blew, McCoy, Collier and Nidoll, most of whom played last year.

The prospects of the freshman team are still uncertain, although it is expected that they will enter a strong team, due to the abundance of material.

Yank Star's Mother Dead; May Not Play

Easton, Md., Sept. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Mrs. Mary Baker, 71 years old, mother of J. Frank Baker, Yankee star, and former home-run king, is dead at her home near Trappe, Md., today. Mrs. Baker's death was caused by cancer of the stomach. Baker rushed home and reached the bedside of his dying mother before the end came. Baker today is grief-stricken and it is not believed he will play baseball again this season.

WILD GAME SHOOTING GOOD

Bend, Or., Sept. 23.—Wild ducks were killed at Crane prairie, Klamath marsh and at the lakes in Harney county in great numbers Saturday and Sunday. A few geese were killed, and some snipe.

It will come easier if your clubs are right. We have some dandy models in the Wilson's Club, $10.00, $15.00, $20.00, $25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, $45.00, $50.00, $55.00, $60.00, $65.00, $70.00, $75.00, $80.00, $85.00, $90.00, $95.00, $100.00.
