

per of ships. What shall it do with them? Shall BEHIND IN CONSTRUCTION time when the price of tonnage is at American Bell Telephone company and they be sold at ridiculously low prices at

Seaside, Oct. 8 .- Halted by Speed Cop

abbott of Columbia county, Governor light of points brought up in conferat Young's Bay. NO DENIALS MADE

The reasons for a revival of interest

Opening of 15,000,000,000 feet of mer-

Penetration of a large area of highly productive farm lands in Tillamook county and shortening of the distance

Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, and his chief assistants five weeks ago visited the section which would be pierced by such a line. He was evidently so favorably impressed

Tillamook that immediate cooperation of the Northern Pacific in construction of President Donnelly is looking the route ver, probably in preparation to following out a plan of cooperation. Neither official has confirmed nor denied that the project may again be receiving act-

In proportions to the benefits derived the road could be constructed at a nominal expenditure of capital, since 32

with the heavily constructed Gales Creek road, which, in turn, runs to Aagaard.

was considered several years ago by the northern lines follows the Washburn urvey down Wilson river.

River Railroad company.

OFFICIAL DROPS HINT

From Aagaard the proposed route which

The Washburn survey follows and easy route to the coast with the exception of one point where the construction of a tunnel 2200 feet long would be necessary.

The right-of-way has been secured for this route by the Gales Creek & Wilson

The executives of the northern lines

ficials before leaving for the trip Sat-by rail to Tillamook by 40 miles.

in this project are:

chantable timber.

the project was urged.

TUNNEL NECESSARY

ive consideration.

'oday's Sunday Journal Is Complet in Eight Sections:

Editorial

Section 2, Page 3

Fishing in East Siberia-Section 1, Page 8.

Marshall Visits Supreme Court-Section

Invitations issued to Medal Men-Section

Packing Workers Vote for Strike-Section

Northwest

Page 3, College Girl Thief-Section 1, Page 3.

Careless Fires Costly-Section 1, Page 4.

Says Boads Will Cut Freight Bate-

National

Page 8.

rding May

Pare 3.

Page 6.

Page 12.

Page 12.

Page 12.

Page 12.

with the possibilities of a rail line into Navy Assignments-Section 1, Page I

Neither

Section 1, Page 2.

juction in Apple

hood News

Asked to Break Deadlock

Rates Sought

Pacific highway on the night Dennis Russell was murdered and where large blood splotches were discovered the next day, the defendant sat boldly upright by Sheriff William Thompson and Depu-tics Nelson Steele and B. A. Raguse on in his chair and listened intently. His a house seven miles north of Va black, beady eyes seemed glued to the tills afternoon. Jure Colepanovich, the juror, but there was no evidence of wounded man, is in a critical condition. dy eyes seen nervousness. Fereign Sinn Fein Army Accused Section 1, Page Sive British Delegates Picked Section couver, Wash., jail as a result of a raid car struck Gaynor and dragged him several feet

De Temple and Bruun reported mediately at police headquarters. Br strole the Rell telephone system point and even then let ts lowest operating companies, of which the Pa-American shipping concerns flounder ific Telephone and Telegraph compan or themselves in the face of conditions at Portland is a unit, have a total o of competition that are ruinous, or shall 13,000,000 subscribers, of which 8,500,000 the government enter into a sort of are under the direct supervision of operpartnership with private enterprises. ting companies.

paying a subsidy for mail delivery and During the war the telephone compather items in order to develop routes nies fell away behind in the regular con-

Lad Misses Footing and Falls to A total of $93,000,000 in stock was, floated Death in Willamette River; Search for Body.

better service." said Thayer. "In our While trying to catch some pigeons on work service is dependent not alone municipal dock No. 1 shortly after 4 upon the operating company but upon o'clock Saturday afternoon, 9-year-old the customers, so that it is necessary to work with both to bring this about." Daniel Marcina lost his balance from When questioned about complaints rethe pier on which he had climbed and garding Portland service Thayer seemed plunged headlong into the Willamette surprised that much objection should river and was drowned. develop here. for he said the charts subnitted by the local operating company

His little playmate, Fred Adams, 9, was the only witness of the tragedy. Daniel, who lived at 404 North Six-teenth street, was playing on the dock showed it to be one of foremost in class of service rendered in the country. The A. T. T. executives are making our of the country and came to Port with several other youngsters. He had land from San Francisco. They will climbed out upon a point and was reachleave Sunday night or Monday for ing up for a pigeon when he slipped. All the children had left but Fred Adams, who lives at 624 Savier street. Seattle. Woman Acquitted; The child fell just off the stern of the steamship Bearport. Fred ran for help, but in his panic, failed to find the workmen who were around the docks. It was about 5 o'clock before he reported the accident to Patrolman Darrow. Darrow at once called in to police headquarters Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 8 .- (U. P.)-Mrs. George Thomas, Tulsa society woman, charged with horsewhipping Mra. Billie Dailey, for alleged association with the former's husband, was late today found and the harbor patrol was sent out to Austed Ahern and Dock Inspector Hoff had not found the body at a late hour Saturday night. not guilty of assault.

Washington, Oct. 8 .- (WASHINGTON | tarily conducted by friends in Michi-BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)-The gan. I have taken no part in it whatnglish language seems to be on trial ever, and no contributions or expendiin the case of Trutures have been made with my knowledge or consent."

WRITES MANAGER

The question as to whether contributions and expenditures were made with his knowledge and consent is the nub of the Michigan law, so his declaration is much to the point in "saving Newberry," inasmuch as he declined to ap-and submit to cross-examination. The pear before the investigating committe plain English of the record makes a head-on collision with the Newberry anguage becomes declaration. A few examples will be given. Space is too limited for more than a few. evident when the Sen. Newberry. reader of ordinary Early in March, 1918, nearly 'five

"plain English" scans the testimony as to Newberry's active part in the Michnonths before the primary, Newberry igan primary campaign and then is conwrote to one of his campaign managfronted by his sworn declaration aters. Paul King: "If not too much trouble I should be tached to his statement of expense filed at the end of the campaign wherein he glad to have a letter from you as often SAYS: @ as you find time and inclination to The campaign for my nomination for

United States senator has been volun uded on Page Fourteen, Column Two)

Olcott, Chairman R. A. Booth of the state highway commission. Secretary of State Sam A. Kozer, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hosstruction program, according to Thayer because of the nature of the equipmen needed. Material could only be obtained pital at Salem; A. Phimister Proctor, noted sculptor of Round-Up themes, and for an emergency, so much needed work was left uncompleted. He explained the Portland Ad club caravan failed to that in the telephone business it takes reach. Astoria in time to open the Youngs bay bridge as scheduled. Abbott was about to arrest members of the distinguished party when he dislong period to complete construction work and that for this reason the oper-ating companies of the country are still far behind in their program. covered their identity. They were al-

"This year, for example, the operat lowed to proceed. Others, including ng companies under the A. T. T. have Mr. and Mrs. William P. Merry of the ade gross expenditures of $190,000,00 Portland delegation, were not so fortufor construction work, of which $146,-000,000 was for new work," said Thayer. nate and were stopped as speeders. They were assessed $15 before being allowed help care for this expenditure and the 'o proceed. list of stockholders was swelled to ap- MAKING UP TIME proximately 175,000. The state officials and Ad club mem-PROBLEM IS SERVICE pers were making haste on their way "The biggest problem which the tele shone companies are confronted with is

Astoria and Seaside for the "End the Trail celebration." They were in haste because the governor's party had been delayed en route from Salem to Portland, and in Portland and were seeking to make up time that they might be present for the dedication of the bridge, scheduled for 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon

When they falled to arrive the dedication was called off but President Harding touched the button at the na tional capital which sent the electrical (Concluded on Page Fourteen, Column Five)

Runaway Portland Boys Are Picked Up by Roseburg Chief Horsewhipped Vamp

Roseburg, Oct. 8 .- Two Portland boys giving their names as Rudolph Huserik and Howard Benedict, and their ages as 15 and 16 years, were picked up here today by Chief of Police Shambrook

"Don't you suppose that if the chief executives of the Northern Pacific and The lads were beating their way south Relatives of the boys residing in Portland have been notified and will arrive here to take them in charge. Great Northern take such a keen interest in the Northwestern corner of Oregon hat they have more in mind than the Local police records show no mention ( Rudolph Huserick. Howard Benedict mere construction of a logging road 20 miles in length?" Both Donnelly and Budd are keenly interested in the possibilities of a major humber traffic out of the Northwest for heir lines. They are anxious to see the Eccles tract opened for operation because of the traffic it would bring to urday said :

Braves Rapids in Trip Down Columbia

River in Small Boat in this section. The N. P. and S. P. & S. officials will probably return to Wenatchee, Wash., Oct. 8.-Traveling n a small dory, in which he left Athal-Fortland Tuesday. mar, on Lake Windermere in British Co-umbia, June 13, M. J. Isorraine, civil Umatilla-Wallula engineer of Alhambra, Cal., is making a trip down the Columbia river from its source to its mouth. He passed through Wenatchee, Friday. He carries his camping and cookin equipment with him and stops over night along the banks of the river. He has successfully negotiated every rapids so to ford. "Most of the rapids are not so bad as they are represented to be," he said, "An attack of piomaine poisoning pulled me down in weight about 30 pounds but I am now recovering. I expect to make Astoria about December L." Oregon.

cause of the traffic it would bring to their lines and for the same reason it is considered that they are interested in the development of a still larger tract through the ouliding of a track only 12 miles longer than the one entering the Eccles tract. Officials of the S. P. & S. have ad-mitted ever since Budd's visit that some-thing more than development of the Eccles tract might be in consideration in this section. The N. P. and S. P.

section 6, Pages 1-8. On the Finar Stide Cut-off Is Urged m. Oct. S.-D. C. Brownell of Ha visited the highway departs Friday in the interest of a state ay from Umatilia to Wallula, This road, according to Brown-uid afford a cutoff between Walla and other Washington points and olumbia river highway which Salem, Oct. S .-- D. C. Brownell of Umatilla visited the highway depart-ment Friday in the interest of a state

Section 7, Pages 1-8. Comic Section 8, Pages 1-6

Further proceedings in the case wer uddenly halted after 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when Judge Bingham anhouse in question, which is known as the McGreal place, was a renderyous nounced that the special venire panel of 50, of whom but 37 reported for duty. for moonshipers, entered the house at 2:30 p. m: In one room, they reported, they found a shotgun and ammunition. had been exhausted. Up to this time 11 tentative jurors had been selected. The defense had exercised seven peremptory Entering the cellar, they found it ap-parently empty, but on scraping the dirt floor found a trapdoor leading to ges and the state three. Of the 11 men in the jury box, three, their identity for the present unknown, a vault eight feet square, walled with will hear the testimony in the case in of which was padlocked. The deputies stood guard while the ly that a jury will be secured by early Tuesday morning and possibly late Mon-

The following tentative talesmen were ated when court adjourned Saturday : J. O. Metz, Roseburg; Joseph Winni-ford, Oakland; A. B. Cripp, Riddle; Q.

Rotary Convention

Salem, Oct. 8 .- Changes suggested by U.S. Senate Confirms international headquarters in the con stitution of the Northwest Rotary club and the question of whether or not Ro Brodie Appointment tary clubs should indorse or condemn local or national political issues, held the attention and precipitated considerable discussion at the Northwest convention of Rotary clubs, which opened here to-Forty-seveen executives of Rotary clubs included in the Northwest district are in Salem for the convention, over which Ernest Skeel, governor of the district, is presiding. This morning a survey was made of 14 towns in the sation committee of Rotary clubs, gave

Chairman White Calls Committee

Washington, Oct. 8.-(U. P.)-Chair-man George White of the Democratic national committee will issue a call tomorrow for a meeting of the committee, "to discuss the welfare of the party," he announced here tonight, fol-lowing conferences with Democratic

The meeting, it was indicated, will be held before the disarmament confer-ence opens, November 11, and will take place in a Western city, probably Chi-

The Author Puyallup Fair Is Breaking Records

Puyallup, Wash., Oct. 8.--(U. P.)--With an estimated attendance up to Saturday night of 90,000, one of the best agricultural and industrial exhibitions arricultural and industrial exhibitions of the Northwest, the Western Wash-ington Fair, has gone over the top and permanently established itself in the Northwest. Today an attendance of 35,-000 broke all officially records for fairs in the state.

on the pavement on account of the pap light at the corney and did not realize he had hit anyone until bystanders shouted to him. When the Bruun car His companion is Matt Babich. A girl who was in the company of the two when they were apprehended eluded the officers.

was stopped, it was on Gayner's body and had to be lifted off. The officers, acting on advice that the Neither Bruun nor De. Temple placed under arrest and Bruun was allowed to go on his personal recognizance pending further investigation by the po lice. He left, announcing that he would return to police headquarters as soon as he had taken Mrs. Bruun home. They have been living at the Waverley Cou

> SICTIM NOT IMPROVED Attendants at St. Vincents hos

try club.

reported Saturday night that Mrs. Wal-

(Concluded on Page Fourteen, Column Four HARDING FAILS TO CONVINCE MINERS

vich, gave his address as 15 Third street north, Portland. Babich was placed in jail. While the officers were attending to Union Officials Decline to Promise President That Will Not Strike in Spring.

By Raymond Clapper United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 8 .- President Harding failed tonight to persuade union Washington, Oct. 8 .- The appointment miners' officials to promise not to strike of Edward E. Brodie of Oregon to be minister to Siam was confirmed by the senate late today. Fred M. Harrison of senate late today. Fred M. Harrison of tailed to move the officials from their Alaska was confirmed as United States | stand that they were powerless to bind attorney for the Second division of the United Mine Workers of America to any such agreement.

Northwest in which, it was believed. Rotary clubs might be formed. This afternoon Fred Everett of Seat-lie, a member of the international edua short address on the purpose of Rotary clubs. Tonight the visitors were guests of the Salem Rotary club at a banque. Helps Out His Prophecy

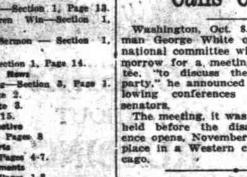

> New York, Oct. & .- This was one of benefited the most, I know who it didn't the stormy days exclusively predicted by the Undersigned and now all I need to make my world's and the breaking up of homes for some serious prophecy 100 of we boys. That's what it means. The storm caused a rush of brains to Harry Stevens' cafe under the stand. per cent perfect is another P. M. of another P. M. rain and a couple of Down there I run into Judge Landis to tie games. The boys say nothing about George B. Christi will still be playing this serious a week will still be playing agy nothing about George B. Christian secretary to Pr. Harding, and Bill Pipp, who is Wally Pipp's, old man. Pipp introduced us all to Mrs. Pipp and a couple of Pippins. Mr. Christian wouldn't say what was the object of his visit to New York, but he made the re-mark that the president would like aname out. The spirother golf game with I and Grantia came out. The spir-its is plentiful you the flesh is week. When news come that is was raining many of the town been asleep under the up and sought vaptage h to enjoy the novelty. first glimpse of water ew York. diarge policeman in the runway be-a large policeman in the runway be-a large policeman in the runway be-a large policeman in the runway be-and he challenged everybody that tried to go to and from including not only Judge Landis, but his secretary. Mr. O'Connor. As these two gents is really them who is running the serious, its a wonder, the officer did not bean them with this billy. A policeman's place is with his billy. A policema on the third base coaching Well, friends, that is all I am going to write about a game that wasn't played. This is going to be a long serious and us experts will need all words we got without wasting any a rainy day.

rock, in which was a quantity of moonshine and mash, and having an exit leading through a woodshed, the door the capacity of permanent jurors, as the state and defense have but eight peremptory challenges left. It appears like-day afternoon.

(Concluded on Page Fourteen.; Column Seven) Discusses Entry

Paderewski Visits Burbank-Section 1, Page Dining Car Prices Cut-Section 1, Page 8. Trial of Mrs. Southard-Section 1, Page 2. Two Loggers Injured-Section 1, Page 2. miles remain to be built to link Port- Hermiston Fair Closes-Section 1, Page 5. land and Tillamook with a standard Many Tourists Visit Salem-Section 1, Page

SPECIAL PANELS EXHAUSTED

Ataska

and and Thiamook with a standard Many Tourists Visit Salem-Section 1, Page 6, gauge rail system. Completion of this road would also involve the purchase of 13 miles of the Gales Creek & Wilson River road. At present the United Railways runs as far as Wilkesboro, where it connects Joseph H. Dawson Is Dead-Section 1, Page 11. Vancouver Church Celebrates -- Section Alleged Thief Bound Over-Section 1, Page 12 school Head Hanged in Effigy-Section New Auto Stage Service-Section 1, Page 13. Would Leave Pulpit Vacant-Section 1, Page 14 Charles C. Quine Falls Dead-Section 1, Page 14

Portland Telephone Hearing October 19-Section Page 3. Ernest McCoy Injured-Section 1, Page 3.

President of Reed College Speaks on Disarms ment-Section 1, Page 6: Evans and Myers Sworn In-Section 1, Page

Max Smith Jr. Is Dead-Section 1, Page have reported that their interest in this Cute for Leprosy-Section 1, Page 7. section was in the logging road into the Song Leaders to Be Trained-Section Eccles timber tract, but one of the of-Page 10. Pregon Electric Cuts Bates-Section 1, Page 1

W. C. T. U. Meeting-Section 1, Page 11. Husband, Supposed Dead, Files Suit-Section. Page 12. City Pruning Budget-Section 1, Page 12. Labor Meeting Constructive - Section

Page 12. Legion Response in Loan Shurala Page 12.

ceused of Violating Dance Regulation Section 1, Page 12. rmenian Sunday to Be Observed Page 13.

Boy Scouts Plan Semion-Section 1, Page 14 Portland School Children Win-Section 1

Section 1. Page 14. Real Estate and Building Section

Section 6, Pages 8

Section 2, Pages 4-7. Amusiments Section 5, Pages 1-8.

since reaching New York. The opinion amongst the experts seemed to be that the postponement helped the Yankees. It give Huggins'

The Attroop that is was raining many of the town fans who had been asleep under the grand stand got up and sought vantage points from which to enjoy the novelty, as it was their first glimpse of water since machine. New York