'There are many conflicting reports regarding available stock in the producing sections. The general opinion seems to be that supplies are less plentiful than for several years past.

'Taking into consideration the fact that more poultry is being consumed than ever before, and that the crop is short—even if financial conditions are not what they should be—I believe the producer will receive encouraging prices.

present cales, are badly unsettled.

With fresh egg receipts slowly gaining from day to day and with unusually keavy storage stocks all over the country, the situation here today is one in which the storage operator is trying to save his hide. There are so many prices being asked for similar quality of torage eggs but the best is being sold as iew as 43 @ 85c a dozen, while as high as 45c is being asked in some quarters.
