

DINING CAR PRICES HIT SLIDE; T. P. A. CLAIMS CREDIT

The Travelers' Protective association in the Northwest claims credit for prevailing lower dining car prices.

First, he says, the price of a pot of coffee that had been 30 cents was lowered to 15 cents on all dining cars in the Northwest.

Second, the price of bread and butter dropped to 10 cents when it had been 15. This was so encouraging that another concerted effort brought still further satisfactory results.

Recently Secretary Evans was officially notified that baked potatoes had retreated from 20 and 25 cents to 15 cents.

Of course the estimated percentage of service is 60 per cent of the price charged, and there are many problems in connection with dining car service that do not enter into that of merely handling so many guests in a hotel that stays where it is put and does not have to be caught on the wing with supplies.

Hood River Post of Legion Seeks Name For Annual Climb

Members of the Hood River post of the American Legion are seeking a permanent name for the Legion mountain party that annually scales Mount Hood.

Edward W. Van Horn, commander of the Hood River post, asserted that as a result of the publicity the first annual event last July brought the valley all civic organizations have sponsored the American Legion ascent of the snow-capped peak, and the six-service men will receive valley-wide cooperation in preparations for next year's recreational expedition.

At the Sunday morning church services Rev. H. R. Leach, pastor, announced the names of the building and finance committees, which held a joint meeting Monday evening and outlined plans of procedure.

One Is Arrested of Two Implicated in Auto Gear Losses

Claire Helmke, alleged auto accessory thief, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Patrolman Perry and Abbott, at Tenth and Burnside streets of a charge of larceny.

After a quiz at headquarters, Helmke is said to have admitted a number of the cases charged against him. He implicated an 18-year-old lad in his confessions. No complaint has as yet been sworn out for his companion.

Of course the estimated percentage of service is 60 per cent of the price charged, and there are many problems in connection with dining car service that do not enter into that of merely handling so many guests in a hotel that stays where it is put and does not have to be caught on the wing with supplies.

Robert Louis Stevenson said—

"Not even my own friends are quite so dear to me as D'Artagnan." Thus wrote the immortal author of "Treasure Island" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," in speaking of the gallant and indomitable, great-hearted soldier of the king whom Douglas Fairbanks has recreated for the sincere delight and really unparalleled entertainment of millions of men, women and children. "The Three Musketeers" is its own indorsment. Ask anyone who ever read it!

It is the greatest adventure story of all time.
