Washington And Aggies In Readiness

CCOMPANIED by nearly 100 rooters A and being trailed by nearly 400 others in trains, auto buses and private automobiles, the University of Washington football squad passed through Portland Friday morning for its first invasion of the Oregon Aggie Saturday.

The Sun Dodgers will stop at Albany the scene of a fierce 0 to 0 contest with the Aggies in 1917, until 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

KICKING FOR A VICTORY

The feature of the Washington departure was the fact that the players are arkably free from injuries. This has been true of the squad so far this season, and is attributed to the splendid condition in which Bagshaw has kept the men. this year in that not a single substitution has been made in all the games played to date because of injuries to the players. DRILLS TWO

Bagshaw is extremely pessimistic as to outcome of Saturday's game, and characterizes it as the hardest contest of the season for Washington. He is letting no chance slip by to develop possible points against the Aggies. For this reahe has drilled Halfbacks Leonard Ziel and Johnny Wilson steadily all week in the art of drop-kicking field goals. It was just such a play as this that cos aught by a similar play this time. Both Ziel and Wilson have been getting away nice kicks in practice, with Ziel having a little the edge. He has been ently from the 30-yard line.

Bagshaw is taking a squad of 25 men to Corvallis with him. He has refused to me a definite lineup to start the game, wever, the most likely combination appears to be Harry Quass, fullback; Capain Ray Eckmann and Leonard Ziel, halfbacks; Wayne Hall, quarterback; Gien Galligan and Ed Ferry, ends; Rob-ert Ingram and Newman Clark, tackles; on Kienholz, Ed Hobi and George Rogge, guards; Hanford Haynes, center.

YAKIMA FIELD TRIALS Yakima, Wash., Oct. 21.-A field trial meet for shooting dogs will be featured here Saturday and Sunday under the auspices of the Yakima Valley Field Trials association. Premier Fisherman And Authority on Salmon Dies Here

Oregon's premier fisherman is dead.
Ernest Woodfield, 39, died Thursday in a Portland hospital of an illness brought on by the hardships in which he worked, in a life time of less than two score years. He caught more salmon than probably any other man who ever lived on the Columbia river.

For almost 20 years he was boss of the Columbia River Packers' association seining grounds, on Sahd island, just inside the entrance of the Columbia. In many seasons his catches exceeded those of all other seining grounds combined. He also ran the seining grounds at Roo-ster Rock, on the Middle Columbia, during the early season.

Woodfield was considered an authority on salmon in the Columbia river and the foremost exponent of catching them. He is survived by his widow and four children, and a brother, all of As-

Wins Battle From Jeffs

By Earl R. Goodwin
THERE were plenty of thrills offered the fans who witnessed the Franklin high-Jefferson high football game on Multnomah field Thursday afternoon, the Quakers winning by a 27 to 14 scor Both of the Jefferson touchdowns came after 40 and 45 yard runs while Franklin registered its scores on an end run, blocked punt, double forward pass and a line buck. At the end of the first half Franklin was leading, 7 to 0, Holmes having shot through the center of the line for two yards after Slade and Peake had completed a 15 yard forward pass, Hobson kicked goal.

The third quarter had been under way a little more than five minutes when Franklin gained the ball on Jefferson's 25 yard line. Howard Hobson then skirted his left end for the remaining distance to the goal, Hobson converting the goal after the touchdown. After the kickoff, Franklin tried three downs and then Slade started to punt. Higgins blocked the ball and Byron Anderson came rushing through, picked up the ball and ran 55 yards for a touchdown making the score read Franklin 14, Jef-ferson 7. One minute following the next kickoff the Democrats were fighting for their lives on their own 15 yard line. A punt was tried, but Selfridge blocked it and Kelly fell on the pigskir after it had crossed the Jefferson goal line. Slade kicked goal.

In the final period each team counted a touchdown. Franklin making a forward pass, Peake to Slade to Hobson, for a touchdown. Hobson ran 40 yards to the line, but Slade failed to kick goal. George Mimnaugh then made the fans sit up and take notice when he ran through a broken field for 40 yards and crossed the Franklin goal line for the final touchdown of the afternoon Officer kicked the goal as he did after Anderson's score.

The work of Slade, Hobson, Holmes Kropp and Kelly featured for the winners, while Anderson, Officer, Mimnaugh, Higgins and Wade played good ball against the Quakers.
