

ALLEGED SLAYER, FEARLESS, TO TELL JURY HER STORY

Twin Falls, Idaho, Oct. 21.—(L. N. S.) "I am feeling fine this morning. I have heard all they have had to say about me and seen the horrid pictures they have painted. It does not scare me. I know my own innocence, and I feel that when I frankly tell the jury the truth about my troubles I will have that vindication which I so much crave," said Mrs. Lydia Southern to the International News Service correspondent this morning. Continuing after a moment, she said:

FEELS NO ANIMOSITY
"I have no bitter feeling toward anyone. Sometimes I have felt that I have been harshly dealt with. But again I think of the satisfaction which will come with that vindication of which I am so confident."

"I do not know much about courts, but I have been reared in the faith that justice will be done, and I trust this jury to see that I have a fair deal. The state has painted a black picture, I know, but if I remain strong, and I think I will, and tell the jury the full truth about my life, there will be none to condemn, I am sure."

This is the first intimation as to whether or not Mrs. Lydia Southern, on trial for the murder of her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, and charged with the murder of three former husbands and the brother of one of them, will take the stand for testimony in her own defense.

EMOTION NOT SHOWN
During the weeks the state has been presenting its case, the prisoner has sat with staring eyes, but without evidence of emotion. During the week the jury was being selected, she showed marked signs of weariness. But when the presentation of evidence was begun, she seemed to gain in strength, and today, with her own counsel battling for the elimination of testimony as to collateral cases involving charges aside from that charged in the information, shows a spirit of confidence and combat.

If she goes on the stand in her own defense, she will tell a story of a drab life. It will be a story of labor, a story of hardships endured and fatigue suffered.

Former North End Leader Jailed on Vagrancy Charge

Walter Hutchinson, at one time prosperous owner of a saloon and one of the influential characters of the north end, was sentenced to one month in jail Thursday by Judge Roseman in municipal court on a charge of vagrancy.

Wednesday evening at West Park and Stark streets Hutchinson begged Patrolmen Kniskern and Gallagher, plain clothes men, for the price of a meal. Thinking that he was some poor fellow down on his luck, instead of arresting him they gave him 25 cents and directed him to a restaurant across the street. But he did not go to the place, and the patrolmen followed him, their suspicions aroused. He begged from another man and the patrolmen placed him under arrest.

Since the balmy days of the north end passed with prohibition Hutchinson has been meeting misfortune after misfortune, and recently he has been arrested several times. His condition is attributed to the use of drugs.

Ross Island-Crest Fair Site Boosters Will Meet Monday

South Portlanders interested in the Ross Island-Crest site for the 1925 exposition are invited to attend a meeting in the Holman school house Monday at 8 p. m. This meeting has been called by D. A. Norton, Gasco building, executive secretary of the Ross Island-Crest site committee. George T. Newman and Bert Jones will deliver addresses and Kenneth Brown will exhibit motion pictures. L. Schanck and A. Rosenstein of the financial committee will arrange for the financial quota of the South Portland district to meet the expenditures for the engineering work on the questionnaire submitted by the fair site committee. Eight similar meetings of this fair site committee are being held this week.

Man Runs for Car; Falls and Loses Foot Under Wheels

While running to catch a St. Johns street car at Broadway and Larrabee streets Thursday afternoon, W. H. Parker, Grand Union hotel, slipped and fell under the wheel of the car, which passed across his left leg above the ankle and crushed off his foot.

Parker was taken to St. Vincent's hospital, where he is being cared for. It was found there that his right knee was injured in the fall. He is employed at the Western Coöperage company plant at St. Johns, and was on his way to work when the accident happened. He is 31 years old, married, and has one child.

When I say "THE GAMBLER'S CHANCE" that is the only name I can give it. That is —when a man is hard up for money and has been so for some time because he made FOOLISH INVESTMENTS outside of his own line of business, and in addition to that GOES EAST and BUYS OUT NEW YORK —more than his capital allows — BUYS WITH BORROWED MONEY—can you call him any other name than a GAMBLER? THAT IS ME! THE WRITER OF THIS STATEMENT!! BUT WHAT COULD I DO? What would you do if you were in my place? When I was East a month ago and had the opportunity to buy

Real Honest High-Grade Merchandise at Ridiculously Low Prices

WHAT COULD I DO. I TOOK THE GAMBLER'S CHANCE. I bought as freely as if I had MILLIONS behind me. Now the goods are in and THERE ARE MORE COMING. Of course I realize now that I plunged beyond my means and DAY BY DAY the time is coming nearer when the notes for the borrowed money will be due, and also the other bills bought for NET CASH, TEN DAYS, are all OVER DUE, so you can see that this was a great undertaking and puts me in a CRITICAL CONDITION, more so than may appear to you.

Now—unless a miracle happens and I can raise sufficient money to pay a part of my obligations, I WILL BE BANKRUPT. My stock will be sold to the highest bidder by my creditors, and it would surely bring more than you are going to pay for it at this

Sacrifice Sale

There is nothing else for me to do. I cannot afford to play with this stock of goods because I bought it cheap. I realize my DANGER. There is but ONE THING for me to do.

I throw my HIGH-GRADE MERCHANDISE to the PUBLIC, no matter what it will bring to SAVE MY NAME FROM BANKRUPTCY, and I sincerely hope the good people of Portland will come to this SALE. IT IS TO YOUR INTEREST, you can save greatly by buying at this sale, NOT THE ONLY SALE—NO, IT IS
