Oregon Aggies Beat Sundoggers; Score, 27-0

By George Bertz
BELL FIELD, Corvallis, Or., Oct. 22.—Uncovering a powerful line-smash attack that swept the Washington forwards off their feet and a dazzling assortment of forward passes that were as successful as bewilderment, the Oregon Aggies walked over the Sundoggers in the opening Pacific coast conference game, 27 to 0.

Coch Bagshaw's men seemed helpless before the onslaught of the fighting Aggies, who lived up to their name. The Beaver machine was a human steam roller, crashing through steady consistent gains through the Washington at times put forth a stiff defense.

Fifteen minutes after McFadden sent the oval flying through the air for a 30-yard kick into the arms of Ziel, who made a return of 5 yards, the Aggies scored a touchdown with a brilliant march down the field by line-smashing attacks by the backs.

AGGIES LINE HOLDS
Washington tried to gain through the Aggie line, but the Aggies held them to two yards in two downs and then an offside penalty gave Washington only one other opportunity to get into the game. Gill allowing the ball to roll to the Aggie 10-yard line before he fell on it because of the great speed shown by Wilson.

From their 10-yard line, the Aggies started to tear the Washington line to shreds. Joe Kasberger made the first touchdown of the conference season by a plunge through an opening made by Christenson and Looney. The Aggies gained 90 yards in this march in 23 downs. McFadden kicked.

AGGIES GO THROUGH
The Aggie backs went through openings for gains from the line and then without losing the ball once and without the loss of a single inch of ground after they had started their offensive.

In the second quarter, the Aggies scored their second touchdown on a forward pass from Kasberger to Powell. It was just a matter of time before they caught the Sun Doggers off their guard and Powell was standing free when he received the ball.

The Aggie's unexpected possession of the ball after an exchange of punts in which the Sun Doggers lost 30 yards. In scoring this touchdown, the Aggies started their forward pass attack, sandwiching their aerial shots in between line smashes. A triple pass from Powell to Kasberger to McKenna netted 27 yards.

AGGIES OPEN UP
The Aggies opened up. The ball was passed back by Stewart, Kasberger started to run as if to make a tackle smash, but he dropped back and after making an attempt to get into the end, turned suddenly and shot the ball into the bear-like paws of Powell. McFadden again kicked, making the score 14 to 0 in the third quarter. Andy Crowell, whose toe beat Washington last year, boosted the score to 17 points with a beautiful place kick from the 25-yard line from an angle.

THIRD TOUCHDOWN
Kasberger scored the third touchdown after intercepting a forward pass on Washington's 25-yard line and carrying the ball to the 4-yard line before being "downed."

Gill made no gain on the first down and Kasberger made two and then plunged through a hole made by Christenson for the points. McFadden converted.

Washington had but two chances to score, but the Sundoggers seemed to forget all their offensive when in possession of the ball. Their only opportunity came in the second period on a forward pass to Eckman, who, after gaining 10 yards, slipped with nought, but the Aggie safety to halt him. Eckman fell in trying to kick the Aggie tackle.

PASS IS SMOTHERED
The second opportunity also came in the second quarter, after Galligan had recovered a punt fumbled by Kasberger on the Aggie 27 yard line. Spurred on by the fumble, the Aggies baited a powerful bunch of backfield men, who have all the qualifications necessary in the makeup of a ground gainer. The four men were: Christenson, Taylor, Hagedorn and Loughey. Taylor replaced Harold McKenna, who was injured in the first period. Christenson advanced time after time by forward passes, center smashes and end runs. They worked as a unit.

POWELL SEEMS RIGHT
Powell himself ripped off yard after yard and oftentimes carried his tacklers several feet before being downed. The big fellow seems to be right this season. Kasberger played a wonderful game, his offensive attack was almost flawless and in addition to his great field generalship he showed up well in ground smashes.

West Meets East; West Grabs Bacon

By Danica Baynes
PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 22.—Through this pleasant afternoon in the little town of Princeton, a small party of men and women huddled together in one corner of the big concrete stadium, as if for mutual protection, kept piping in the Chicago news.
And Chicago went. Princeton will say so, contemplating the score of 9 to 0 that hangs on the scoreboard.
Princeton might add, too, that the going isn't all roses. The Chicago team is a great deal of all Chicago goes was Milton Romney, called "The Utah Flash."

HE'S SOME BOOTER
Behind the barricade of maroon sweaters and the Eastern football state first booted the ball between the Princeton goal posts from the 15-yard line, then he clutched a forward pass from the left field. Cole and moved over the Princeton goal line for the only touchdown of the game.

"Old Man" Stang is either the most prodigious or the best a pessimist past all hope of redemption. He came out of the West with his football outfit mumbering and muttering with dire foreboding to the Chicagoan. He didn't know much of the history of 1921 team, judging from quotations from his conversation. In fact, the more he thought of it, the less he thought of it.

Then he unwrapped an outfit that played hoops around Princeton both on attack and defense.
SURPRISE IS PULLED
It was a big surprise to Princeton and the Eastern football world in general, as if the Centennial high school of Pueblo, Colo., had come east and licked the navy.

Stang, old Yale man, whose last football year was played in 1917, was whipped by Princeton, brought the first big Western team seen in the East in some years.

West, affectionately, sat on the sidelines today watching the game, a quiet smile curving his lips.
This game was regarded by many as a test of Eastern Western football methods. If there is an answer it must be in the score.

Louise, star of the Princeton team, was not in the game today. He was constantly trotting up and down the sidelines getting ready, but Roper, the Princeton coach, would not let him in.

FARDONS TOO LATE
Garry, another star, who has been out of football because of injuries sustained in a forlorn hope late in the game, but was of little use to the Tigers then.

The Westerners would have been glad to see Louise in the game, of course. They want to hear no excuses. They want no comeback and especially to see Louise play for the victors. He can make in the far and somewhat effete East.

"I'm from Chicago; I'm from Chicago," that great big bee-yoo-it-ful town, as he said to Chicago to go, and "Chicago went."

YALE DEFEATS ARMY IN HARD GAME BY THE SCORE OF 14 TO 7
By Jack Vestack
International News Service Editor
New Haven, Oct. 22.—Yale's husky Bulldogs triumphed over the Army to-day by a score of 14 to 7, with a great bright afternoon in the stadium.

The victory of the Blue was not unexpected, but the game was hard-fought and interesting all the way. Army's error work of the Yale backs and the loss of French to Army stood out. Aldrich, O'Hern, Beckett and Jordan played well offensively. Taylor and Hagedorn played well in the line. McKenna made two through left tackle. Johnson that saved the cadets a shut out.
