FASHIONS REALM

New York—There is an old adage that says it is impossible to eat one's cake and have it, too, but the modern woman can wear either a suit or a dress and have both in one season.

FRATERNAL. P. W. Stewart, J. P. Coxon, J. Oliver, O. V. Badley and H. R. Lowry make up the committee of Hassalo lodge, I. O. O. F., commissioned to invite every member and his family to the Halloween social at First and Alder streets Thursday night.

Mrs. Mary Blake SUGGESTS I HAVE FOUND that mayonnaise is a boiled salad dressing can be made to go much further by the addition of a small amount of Carnation Milk, thoroughly beaten into the dressing immediately before it is to be used.

The makers of The Fleisher Yarns say—Wash knitted things in LUX. WHISK two tablespoonfuls of Lux into thick lather in half a bowlful of very hot water. Add cold water until lukewarm. Dip garments up and down, pressing suds repeatedly through soiled spots. Do not rub. Rinse in three lukewarm waters.
