

Opens Tomorrow!

Events of Opening Day

Western Dairy Products Show. Big government exhibit of butter, cheese and milk. The best thing of its kind ever seen on the Pacific Coast!

Hear Ye, Poultry Fanciers! See the biggest Poultry and Rabbit Show of the year! 800 Bunnies, thousands of pedigreed fowls!

School Children Free. The Exposition wants every boy and girl to attend the 1921 show and have an opportunity to win a cash prize in the Essay Contest. Tomorrow everything is free to school children!

—Impromptu Horse Show

Students' Judging Contest. Students from western colleges, compete, judging horses, cattle, sheep and swine. Judging begins 8:30 a. m.

Official Exposition Band

TOMORROW is that long-looked-forward-to day. Tomorrow the massive gates of the $600,000 pavilion swing open on the greatest livestock show ever staged under one roof!

There's a fascination about pure-bred livestock that brings folks back year after year to the Pacific International. Here is the visible evidence of one of the West's great industries! It's the biggest and best thing of its kind in all America. Come Tomorrow! Children admitted free on Saturday! Eight days crowded full with fun and interest! Eight days you can't afford to miss!

Brilliant Horse Shows begin Monday night and continue throughout week. Matinees Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

Ex-Governor Frank E. Lowden speaks Tuesday at two o'clock. Fifteen thousand people can hear him under cover.

100 industrial exhibitors. Exhibits Hall is crowded full of interesting and educational displays. Food, Automotive, Dairy Products, Cereals, Refrigeration Plants, Electrical Supplies, Dry Goods and many others. See them!

Watch Next Week's Papers for Each Day's Program

Through Car Service to Show

Take Stock Show cars on Broadway direct to Exposition. 5c additional fare from Kenton. Plenty of parking space for automobiles.

Get Tickets for Horse Show NOW!

On sale at Sherman-Clay Company's store, Sixth and Morrison streets, also at Meier & Frank Co., Center Aisle.

Nights—Reserved seats, $1, 75c, 50c, 25c. Matinees—50c. General admission—50c.

Pacific International Livestock Exposition

Largest Livestock Show in America—10 acres under one roof