Even if the teams were playing to se hich is really the world's worst football sleven, the game would be worth going For, after all, Harvard is Harvard and Princeton is Princeton, and when-wer the twain meet thousands of people re going to get together and shout and beer and pray and afterward cuss and iscuss. That's what makes football. ALE HAS SOFT ONE

Princeton is a broken reed and Harard is a fallen idol. Nowhere are their hances for earning the mythical Eastrn "championship" greeted with anyning but a mild lifting of the eyebrows. and yet, so peculiar to itself is collegiate football that the game at Princeton is had as they look, it ought to be a tie.

Yale, after one soft game, has another ning, against Maryland. Cornell, after field. unning wild over Dartmouth and piling IP a cricket score on the scene, had anther easy time in store with Columbia at the receiving end of her undeniable Of course, doleful Gil Dobie, who was observed almost to smile after the Dartmouth collapse, has once more reinto his slough of pessimism. But Dobie is always sourcest when the sweetest victories are in sight.

WHEN you get right down to it, replacing a silver spout with a tin one wouldn't be half as foolish as replacing a Continental Red Seal part with one of ALIEN manufacture.

You can see and observe the tin spout. But how about an alien part in your motor where it cannot be observed? Anything placed in a motor has a certain duty to perform—it must work and work constantly. Failure in its functioning always affects the other units designed to work with it.

Genuine parts of Red Seal Motors are made by the manufacturers of the motors themselves. They are available for use at any time. A little care on your part or the expenditure of a few extra cents insures you genuine perts and offsets the possibility of paying big, later.
