EGG TRADING CONTINUES STEADY Trade in the local egg market continues steady, eith selects at 60 @ 62c a dozen for fresh goods, while 40 @ 42c is being asked for storage hen-meries. First-class eggs are rather scarce.

While no amnouncement of change is indicated as yet by Tillamook, the word is being passed that cheese prices are likely to show a rise during the coming week for fresh goods, because of the extreme prices in California. LOCAL CRANBERRIES ARE MOVING

CHEESE ADVANCE IS CONSIDERED

Because of extreme good quality and the fact that Eastern stock is quoted at record values, the demand for local cranberries is improved. Prices are being held more uniform at $5.00 m CABBAGE IS ROTTING IN FIELDS

Because of the extremely heavy crop of late cabbage and the limited demand at this time, much cabbage is rotting in the fields because of lack of sufficient call. Selling price on best is 1 % c a pound in sacks.

MEAT MARKETS ARE UNCHANGED Both year and hogs were unchanged in price at the week-end trading of Front street. Re-celpts all through the week were liberal in both reme prices for their meats, despite all the price cutting at wholesale. The butchers have one of the tightest little organizations that exists in the local territory and among its members there is ritory and among its members there is no tendency whatever to cut prices. Wholesale meat men are up in arms regarding the lack of price cutting by the retailers in view of the fact that prices here at wholesale are lower than for many years past. This is especially true of country killed calves which are today selling in the wholesale are lower than to a nound for heet quality in the law is being violated by the marketing of "C" grade apples as "fancy" or even "estra fancy." Even some of the Hood River interests are doing this, although the regulations are holding their grades up to general specification.

Wormy apples and apples infected with San Jose scale are likewise being offered and sold, and as yet unmolested by officials. Some day these officials will wake up and protect the fruit in the matter. in the matter. The law specially specifies that, not only shall he name of the grower or shipper be placed pon each box of apples, but that the net weight ust also be published.

Dullness continues in the apple trade here.

Offers for club wheat at the moment are not above $1 a bushel, although the price is likely to fluctuate considerably, even during the day. Exporters are beginning to inquire for supplies, but there is little tendency on the part of growers to let go, despite all recent talk to the contrary. In fact, the movement of wheat is now limited, so far as new business is concerned.

With only three ships now listed for wheat loading here, it looks as if the big movement export is over. However, there are many ships which will take out parcel lots. This list is unusually long. For that reason export wheat movement is likely to continue for an extended usually long. York stock market showed little life at the 7.98 opening today. Practically all of the sales for the first 10 minutes were in 100-share lots. Pacific Oil continued heavy right through the first hour, selling as low as 44 %, off 3 % 10.00 from the recent high. Mexican Petroleum dipped below 105, and Pan-American "B" sold down to 42 %. Houston, after its early man up to 77%, reacted over a point. The early After the opening stock hogs sold up rise in Houston was due to the bringing in 387 to $9.75 at North Portland, a rise of 25c of a new off well in the Mexico field.
The pool in Corn Products stood by its gu and the stock was well taken around 86. Davis Chemical got below 40. Since Kelly-Springfield announced its price cut, its shares acted better. In fact, the 8 per cent preferred at 87 made a new high on the move up less 17 from the year's low. The short session was featured by a buy-ing of the Standard Oil shares, the Can shares and a number of specialties. Most of the recent favorites were heavy and Pacific Oil made a new low on the cur-went decline.

nt decline. The market closed firm.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Department of agriculture estimates wheat production of world for 1921, as shown by reports from 29 leading wheat growing countries, excluding Russia, at 2.852, 825,000 bushels, or approximately 190,000,000 bushels more than in 1920. For next year's crop the department reported favorable conditions throughout the northern hemisphere for wheat sowing. Notwithstanding the repeated attempts of gov-ernment statisticians to justify other govern-ment bureaus that the world has a surplus of wheat and prices are therefore where they should be, private crop men, who are among the best in the world, figure a shortage in the crop.
