WITH SUPPORT, PORT CAN'T

LOSE, DECLARES DOBSON
Although strong financial and political combinations are pulling together to prevent Portland from obtaining the allocation of three combination passenger-cargo steamers from the shipping board for Oriental service, this port has such a strong case that it can not lose if the community stands strongly behind the effort, said W. D. B. Dodson, general imanager of the Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting of the foreign commerce committee of the chamber Thursday.

That the community was standing as a unit behind the desire to have the larger and faster steamers was exhibited by the attendance at the meeting.
