

Everett Football Team Gains Victory in Contest With Columbia University Eleven

Passes Beat Columbia in Hard Battle

COMPLETING two forward passes that took their opponents by surprise, the much heralded Everett (Wash.) national scholastic champions turned what appeared to be certain defeat at the hands of the Columbia university team into a glorious 14 to 10 victory on Multnomah field.

With the score 14 to 10 Columbia's fans at the end of the third period and the prep schools battling like a bunch of collegians, chances did not appear bright, but the Washington invaders pulled the unexpected victory returned victorious in their first game in Oregon.

Everett received the kickoff after Columbia had taken the lead through McLean's field goal and gained nine yards in two downs.

At the outset of the final period Everett was penalized 15 yards for holding. This forced a punt and Wilson came through with a great boot, the ball rolling out of bounds on Columbia's 5-yard line.

The Columbias punted on the second down to Everett's 35-yard line when, after a line struggle, Carlson was on the receiving end of a long pass and led Columbia's 10-yard line before being downed. On the next play Everett was penalized 15 yards for holding, but this did not dampen the spirit of the invaders, and Kfauz, charging around his own team's right end, pulled a pass from the air and raced to Columbia's 10-yard line, where he tackled just as he crossed the line.

Britt converted and Columbia made a desperate attempt to score but its efforts at the aerial game went for naught and as a last resort Schumacher kicked an onside kick but the play went wrong when one of Columbia's players who was not onside fell on the ball with one of the onside men close at his heels.

Wilson made a 30-yard gain through tackle, but another intercepted pass halted their march as the quarter ended. In the second quarter, after an exchange of punts Columbia was penalized 15 yards when Everett's safety was tackled in making a fair catch. This cut the ball on Columbia's 33-yard line and Wilson converted a beautiful kick which carried the ball to the 13-yard line. Here Everett was penalized again for offside but in the next play Wilson broke through the onside hole again for 17 yards and a touchdown.

Columbia received a break shortly after the kickoff when an Everett man in an attempt to break up a pass knocked the ball into the hands of Hicks who ran 40 yards to Everett's 10-yard line. Columbia was held on the first downs and had a yard on a punt when McLean dropped back and made a place kick.

Then Everett came front with its forward pass attack, which won the game and put them on the other step nearer the coveted Northwest title.

SCULMERICH STAR For a bunch of prep schoolers, these youngsters sure did know how to tackle. Schumacher's big 200-pound star of the Columbia was unstopable during the early part of the game, but

TRAPSHOOTING Oregon Team Shifted for Cougar Game

With a shifted line-up that is expected to bring out more speed in the backfield and a determination to fight for their alma mater, the Oregon football eleven is ready for the referee's signal to start their annual fight against the Washington State college Cougars at Pullman today.

This game will have no bearing on the conference race, unless the dope bucket is kicked over and the Cougars trample upon by Huntington's revamped aggregation.

The Pullman team has been whipped into good condition for the game by Gus Welch.

The other Coast conference game today is between Washington and Stanford. The Cardinals are favored to win, and although Bagshaw's eleven is not in the best of condition owing to the crippled condition of six first string players, the Sun Dodgers are expected to put forth a hard battle.

According to the Dope Stanford should win easily, as it defeated the Oregon Aggies 14 to 7, following O. A. C.'s 24 to 0 victory over the Sun Dodgers.

BEAR COACH SMILES, BUT HENDERSON, U. S. C. IS GLOOMY Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 5.—(U. P.)—The smile of Andy Smith chased the gloom of Gus Henderson's coach, who was frankly happy at the prospect of meeting the California-University of Southern California football game this afternoon.

Smith, California's coach, was frankly happy at the prospect of meeting the Trojans this afternoon. He expected his team to win and was ready to tell his players that. He admitted it would be a fight, however.

Henderson, as is his custom, was as sad as a bartender during the first week of prohibition. That is, he said he was glad about it, but his team. His sorrow almost brought tears.

The Trojans, who are playing their first game outside of the Sunny Southland today, worked hard to the last minute. They went through a grilling practice late yesterday.

Harvard Is Engulfed in Grid "War"

Harvard men, it appears, have become extremely unpopular in Boston and Boston asserts its hostility to Harvard's football entering its fourth year against the crimson team. Last Saturday something in the nature of a riot immediately following in the wake of Center's victory Harvard undergrads accuse graduates of other colleges taking courses at Harvard of precipitating the disorder.

The writer is informed by one close to the heart of things at athletic Cambridge that fraternities still exercise almost absolute control over the makeup of the football team and crew and that as a result of this the student body is split into a small aristocracy and a large democracy.

The main antipathy to Harvard in a football way, however, consists of Harvard's disregard of the public demand that players be chambered—a policy to which Harvard has adhered, while Yale and Princeton and almost every other institution in the East has submitted to it.

Harvard's trouble, we are informed, is deep-seated and ancient, and nothing but a volcanic upheaval will effect a cure. The writer is informed of the crimson popularity with the public at large.

O. A. C. Track Squad Starts Fall Training Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 5.—Fall track practice under the direction of "Dad" Butler is the program of the day for more than 30 track aspirants. The men are practicing to get in training for the spring meets.

They should be a wonderful year in track," said "Dad" Butler. "Oregon, Washington and ourselves should have great track teams."

Men who are turning out for fall track practice are: Captain, Book, Swan, Dodge, Walker, Hoelings, Dolton, Draper, Kellog, Sims, Swarthout, Cook, Stone, Connett, Sterns, Osborn, and many others. Track men who are on the varsity football team are Jessup, Day, Richert and Taggart.

GOLDENDALE WANTS GAME Golden Dale, Wash., Nov. 5.—The Golden Dale Athletic association football team, composed of former college and high school players, would like to arrange a game for Armistice day at Golden Dale.

Everett finally braced after solving the Columbia shift, and held him. Arrangements were made Friday whereby the Washington team, Portland Interscholastic champions, will play the Everett team at Everett, Thanksgiving day.

Famous Promoter Says He's Making Coin in Ring Game

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—"I'm making money all the time and no receiver is going to handle my affairs." Until Monday, when he will file a formal reply in the state supreme court here, this will stand as the answer of George L. Rickard, known as "Tex" Rickard, the world famous promoter of championship prize fights, to the petition of Frank C. Armstrong that Rickard be required to show cause why his business should not be placed in a receiver's hands.

Armstrong is a Broadway broker. He and Rickard have been having trouble for some time over a claim for an interest in the Madison Square Garden fight club. Rickard claimed to be the sole owner of the club, although he is associated in a business way with John Ringling, the circus man, who was said to have furnished much of the backing for the Dempsey-Carpenter fight.

Some people say that I was making good at the garden and earning good money there," said Rickard. "Immediately they tried to find some excuse for declaring themselves in as partners. But I have no partners and you can tell the world that Tex Rickard isn't broke."

Frank C. Armstrong named William W. Armstrong, president of the National Copper Bank of Salt Lake City, Utah, as one of the creditors whose interests demand the appointment of a receiver. Rickard said in reply that anyone with a "legitimate claim" might obtain payment as other creditors do.

Chehalis to Play Hoquiam 11 Today Hoquiam, Wash., Nov. 5.—With two wins and no defeats, Chehalis high school leads all other schools in the football pennant race of the Southwest Washington league. Hoquiam, with one win and a tie game, ranks second. Central is the only team which has not won a game.

Charles Weinert Is Given Beating in Bout With H. Greb

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Nov. 5.—Harry Greb, only a middleweight, but chuck full of cantankerous cussedness, took on Charles Weinert, Adonis of the Jersey cabarets, in this old wagon shed Friday night, gave away 15 pounds in weight, conceded one foot in height and handed out one glorious 15-round lambasting at the end of which even the judges agreed on Greb as the winner.

Whitman Grid Team Loses Another Star

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 5.—Hard luck seems to be camping on the trail of the Whitman college football team, for under his feet learned today that Herman Leander, left end, will be out of the game for the rest of the season with a broken ankle, received in the Whitman-Montana game at Missoula last Saturday. Leander is the second Missionary player that Coach "Nig" Borleske has lost this season with a broken leg. Art Walker of Spokane, center, having been hurt since the opening game of the season against Multnomah at Portland.

Oregon Frosh Will Play Chemawa Today

University of Oregon, Nov. 5.—The doubling which the Oregon frosh got at Seattle from the Washington frosh last Saturday did them good, according to campus sport fans. They have been fighting hard this week to get in shape for the game with Chemawa Saturday, and it is thought that their chances for victory are more than good.

Cougar Basketball Quint Loses Star

Washington State College, Pullman, Nov. 5.—Richard Clana of Spokane, one of the two basketball letter men back in college this year, was announced today as ineligible for a place on the team on account of his having registered too late. College rulings in regard to registration bars his participation in basketball contests. This leaves Captain Jack Friel the only letterman veteran with which to start practice.

Hoop Shooters Draw Big Salaries in N. Y.

New York, Nov. 5.—(U. P.)—Basketball players in the league will make more money than the stars of the Giants and Yanks. The Celtics, Manhattan's greatest professional team, has a payroll of $15,000 a month for nine players. Individuals draw salaries from $7,000 to $20,000 per month. They are under contract for six months, which makes the "lean winter months" worth from $8000 to $12,000 to them. The players are not allowed to play with any other club.

Portland Girl Is Honored at O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 5.—Ruth Ferguson of Portland was elected president of the Physical Education club. Other officers are Mary Bayne of Salem, vice president, and Edith Weed of Beaverton, secretary. This club consists of all women students specializing in physical education.

Aggie Co-Ed Appointed

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 5.—Leta Agee, 21, has received an excellent position—that of physical education director and principal of the high school at Arago. Miss Agee was prominent in women's athletics while at college. She was on the varsity basketball team, and a member of Delta Psi Kappa, honorary physical education fraternity. She is introducing physical education work in the high school, and is building up her own department.

Hockey Season Dates Set

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 5.—The Pacific coast hockey season will open December 5. The Seattle and Vancouver teams will play the first game. The teams will each play 12 games.

Goal Record Is Made

The goal the Blackburn Rovers, one of the famous English soccer teams, scored in a recent game with Aston Villa brought their total points to 1000, since the institution of the English league. Only three other clubs have passed this mark, namely: Aston Villa, 1157; Everton, 1135; and Sunderland, 1132.

Tacoma Boy May Battle Farren Here

THIS make-up of the Portland Boxing Commission card to be held next Wednesday night is still in doubt. Harry Hansen, the commission matchmaker, is endeavoring to sign Morgan Jones, the Tacoma lightweight, for the 10-round main event with Frank Farren. Archie Stoy and Young Sam Langford will meet in the 6-round semi-windup. This should be a rattling good contest, as Stoy is a mixer from start to finish and Langford has oftentimes demonstrated his ability to please the fans.

TURKEY SHOOT IS BILLED

HARRISBURG, Or., Nov. 5.—The Rod and Gun Club, which recently organized here, has filed a motion for incorporation and is going into the affair with both feet on the ground. They have employed a man to keep intruders off their leased grounds, and Frank Pendergast was elected field captain at a recent meeting. One of the events which they propose to stage at an early date is a Thanksgiving shoot which will be held near town. If there is enough interest the shoot will be continued at regular intervals.
