All Meier & Frank Furs Are Priced at the New Lower Levels

On all the important factors that determine a wise and profitable choice of furs—quality, fashion and price—this store passes the most searching test with flying colors. The purchaser of furs here is fully safeguarded at every turn. Stocks are new, large and carefully chosen with an eye to quality and fashion. Everything is priced at the new lower levels—usually lower than elsewhere for like grades—and many of our furs are priced well below the market. Incidentally, reports from trustworthy sources say that the fur market is stiffening.

This is an excellent time to choose furs for one's own use or for holiday gifts. A deposit will reserve furs for later delivery at the buyer's option.

Here are a few suggestions. Impossible to give much detail. Every fur of dependable quality.
