

A Great Week Ahead!

YESTERDAY marked the opening of the greatest livestock show ever held under one roof! All day long the crowds surged through this new $600,000 pavilion.

TODAY: THE WHITNEY BOYS' CHORUS. 750 voices. Hear this stupendous chorus and specially arranged band concert of sacred music. Concert begins at 2 o'clock. One admission of 50c entitles you to see the big Livestock Exhibits, Poultry and Rabbit Show, Splendid Industrial Displays, Animal Husbandry, Dairy Products and Marketing Exhibits, and to hear this famous chorus.

MONDAY: 250 Boys' and Girls' Club Workers participate in big livestock judging contest and juvenile livestock exhibit. Horse Show opens Monday night.

TUESDAY: Governors' Day. FRANK O. LOWDEN, ex-Governor of Illinois, speaks at 2 o'clock, his only public address while in Portland. 15,000 people can hear him under cover.

Brilliant Horse Shows Every Night—3 Matinees

Programs are more spectacular, more thrilling than ever before! No show in all America has ever staged so many jumping events as you will see here this week. "Flash" from the Skinner Stables, New York City, jumps again this year. Other Hunters and Jumpers of Madison Square Garden and London fame. Prancing harness horses, four-in-hands, six-in-hands, thoroughbred saddlers, colorful drills by the Hunt club—not a dull minute in any program! More than 1600 individual jumps during the week. All the old favorites are back. Many new horses and riders that you'll want to see.
