

RATHIE AND KIRBY APPEAR RESIGNED TO FORFEIT LIVES

Slayers of Sheriff Til Taylor to
Be Hanged Within Day of Year
From Date First Set by Court.

Salem, Nov. 5.—The trap through which Neil Hart plunged to his doom in the death house at the state prison a year ago today will function again in the execution of Hart's companions in crime—John Rathie and Elvie D. Kirby, alias James Owen—on December 1, within one day of a year from the date originally set for their execution.

Unless presented plans are changed the two men, condemned to die for their part in the murder of Sheriff Til Taylor of Umatilla county, will go to their death separately, the one trap serving for both executions. Only the rope, which is renewed for every execution, will be changed.

While plans for the execution of Rathie and Kirby have not been officially announced by Warden Compton, it is understood that the two executions will be staged in the early hours of the morning, probably between 7 and 9, with the witnesses limited to prison officials of Umatilla county, from where the two men were sentenced, newspaper representatives and two ministers.

Both Rathie and Kirby having exhausted every legal resource, are apparently resigned to their fate, according to prison authorities. They spend their time reading and smoking and exchanging conversation back and forth between their cells, in which they are constantly confined with the exception of a brief time each morning when they are permitted to exercise in the corridor of the cell room while their cells are being cleaned.

Prosecutor Armed In Court, Charge of Chicago Attorney

By Frank H. Bartholomew
United Press Staff Correspondent.
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 5.—When court opens before Superior Judge Reeve Monday, Charles E. Ebbetts, defense attorney in the Kennedy murder case, will file an affidavit in which he accuses one member of District Attorney Woolwine's staff of coming into court armed, he declared Saturday night.

This is but one of the thrills promised for the day, which is expected to be the biggest since the series of sensational connected with the trial commenced. Judge Reeve will decide whether Maxine Oberholser will be permitted to ask whether Arthur C. Birch, who is accused with her of slaying John Belton Kennedy, shall be tried before a jury to determine his sanity.

Employment Gains 1 Per Cent in Month; Portland Is Fourth

Washington, Nov. 5.—(U. P.)—Employment increased 1 per cent during the month of October over the previous month, the United States employment service announced tonight. This figure was based on a canvass of 1423 firms, employing 500 or more men each for a total of 1,240,000 workers and covering 45 industrial centers.

Forty-four of the 45 cities reported increase in employment; 20 cities reported decreases and Columbus, Ohio, stated no change had occurred.

Halloween Jokers Take Flag Lanyards

Goldendale, Wash., Nov. 5.—The Stars and Stripes will not float in the breeze at Goldendale until Sheriff Mel Warner can find a steeplejack to climb the 114-foot fir flag staff on the courthouse grounds at Goldendale and adjust new lanyards to replace 200 feet of rope carried away by Halloween miscreants.

President Declares Nov. 11 Legal Holiday

Washington, Nov. 5.—(U. P.)—President Harding tonight issued a proclamation declaring Armistice day, November 11, a holiday. This, the president set forth, "is a mark of respect to the memory of those who gave their lives in the late war, as typified by the unknown and unidentified American soldier, who is to be buried in Arlington National cemetery on that day."

ERROR IS COSTLY TO SCHOOL BOARD

Clerical Mistake Deprives The Dalles of Use of $12,750 for the Current Year.

The Dalles, Nov. 5.—Members of the local school board are endeavoring to find out just who is to blame for the clerical error which deprived them of $12,750 of school funds for the current fiscal year, and which now threatens to put the district more in debt next year because of the 6 per cent tax limitation.

The mistake, it has been found, occurred in transmitting the budget figures last year from the board to the county clerk. The $12,750 represented bonded indebtedness of the district. In some way this item was not included in the report to the county clerk and only $78,905.50 was actually called for in the special tax.

The assessor, however, under the arbitrary law that bonded indebtedness must be included in the levy, figured the $12,750 as a part of the $78,905.50. So this left only $66,155.50 raised last year by special tax levy, to which only 6 per cent can be added this year, making a total of $69,225.17 for 1932.

In the meantime, while the school directors expected to have all of the $74,908.99 for general expenses, the state law required the $12,750 for bonded indebtedness to be paid, regardless of anything else. So this left the school board in the hole, and it had to borrow money.

All of which means that the board now plans going before the people with a special election and asking for $12,750 to be used paying off this borrowed indebtedness.

Foch Likes Short, Snappy Talks and Irish Songs, Too

(By Universal Service)
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Marshal Foch likes short sermons and Irish songs. When Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty of the Knights of Columbus met the marshal today to officially notify him of the vote of the Knights of Columbus board of directors making the marshal an honorary member of the Knights of Columbus he gave the marshal details of the knights arrangements for their monster Foch celebration tomorrow.

The K. of C. chief explained that Father Harris Dauba, former K. of C. chaplain, would deliver a five-minute sermon in French at the mass at the Holy Name cathedral.

"Bless," said the marshal in French. "I like short, vigorous sermons."
Mr. Flaherty added that at the banquet tomorrow evening when Marshal Foch will be enrolled as a Knight of Columbus member John McCormack would sing in honor of the occasion.
"I like Irish songs," said the marshal. More than 10,000 Knights of Columbus from 15 states arrived in Chicago today to participate in the Foch celebration.

The assessor, however, under the arbitrary law that bonded indebtedness must be included in the levy, figured the $12,750 as a part of the $78,905.50. So this left only $66,155.50 raised last year by special tax levy, to which only 6 per cent can be added this year, making a total of $69,225.17 for 1932.

Overstuffed Davenports in Grand Array!

The rulers and notables of centuries past, when soliciting decorating critics to design furnishings for harmony, unwittingly established what has come to be known "Period Furniture." With their classic style of architecture and historic background to keep in accord, a pronounced tendency to overlook comfort was developed.
