

OREGON WHEAT IS NORTHWEST'S PEER, DECLARES HYSLOP

"Oregon grown wheat is superior to any other Northwestern wheat," said Professor George R. Hyslop of O. A. C. Monday afternoon, at the land products show...

The Hard Federation wheat shown by Ammis is a new variety in Oregon. It is interesting to note that the deviation of the local show is the reversal of a recent deviation at Pendleton...

Hard Winter—W. W. Smead, Heppner, first; Geo. H. Smith, second; H. M. Thayer, third...

RICH EASTERN STOCK BREEDERS SEE SHOW of the armament conference, of which he might have been a central figure had his colleagues swept the presidential nomination and election his way...

Modern war scored The word "really," spoken as Mr. Lowden vigorously pulled a comb through ample silver locks...

Divestock was his favorite topic this Holstein on his Oregon, Ill. farm. Until about eight years ago he was interested in Shorthorn cattle...

SOME PRIZE SPECIMENS IN VARIOUS LINES AT PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SHOW

Above, left, a 17 pound rabbit, which weighs more than many dogs. It is a steel gray Flemish Giant. At the right, first prize White Wyandotte cockerel of the show, owned by J. A. Green, Eugene. Center, basket of fruit shown by Oregon Growers' Cooperative association...

CLUB SHOWS MEAT CANNING METHODS

The canning of surplus meat stock is being demonstrated at the Pacific International Livestock exposition this week, by members of canning club teams...

Additional awards made in draft horse section. Additional awards on draft horses, not previously announced...

ADDITIONAL AWARDS MADE

Champion mare—D. F. Budge of Albany, Ore., on Greatview; best four animals A. C. Ruby of Portland; best two animals either sex and any age, produce of one dam, D. F. Budge.

NORTHWEST SHEEP HOLD THEIR OWN

Northwest sheep and goats are holding their own at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in competition with those shown from Montana, Texas and New Mexico...

COMPETITION OF SWINE BREEDERS AT SHOW IS KEEN

Swine breeders are facing the keenest competition of any of the breeders at the Pacific International Livestock exposition. Hogs have been brought to the show from almost every Western state...

BEST BEEF STEER IN ENTIRE SHOW

Idaho Senation, junior Hereford steer, winner of grand sweepstakes at livestock show. He is owned by the University of Idaho and was bred by Herbert Chandler of Baker, Or.

HUBBARD FANCIER HAS BEST CHICKEN

A Black Minorca cockerel owned by G. W. Spaight of Hubbard, Or., ran away with the grand champion chicken ribbon Monday afternoon at the 1921 winter show of the Oregon Poultry and Pigeon association...

William M. Coats of Seattle and Thomas F. Riggs of Iowa Falls, Iowa, the poultry judges, declare that much better quality stock is being shown this year...

Portland, first cock, first and third cocked, first, second and third best, second and third best, first young pen, first old pen, first young pen, first old pen...

GOOD for everybody —at any time: Red Rock Cottage Cheese —It's always meal time when it's in the house!

Fresh daily from the RED ROCK DAIRY Hillsdale

CLUB SHOWS MEAT CANNING METHODS

The canning team demonstration is proving to be one of the most interesting educational exhibits of the livestock show. There are displayed products canned by girls throughout the state...

RABBIT SECTION WINS HIGH PRAISE

The exhibit of rabbits is as good as any in the country is the assertion of John C. Fehr, judge in the rabbit department at the livestock show.

ADDITIONAL AWARDS MADE

Champion mare—D. F. Budge of Albany, Ore., on Greatview; best four animals A. C. Ruby of Portland; best two animals either sex and any age, produce of one dam, D. F. Budge.

Introducing the Norman-Shoulder Topcoat. Snappy, yet not too snappy; different, but well within the bounds of good taste...

NORMAN BROS. Tailors to Men and Women. 101-106 Mezzanine Floor—Northwestern Bank Bldg.

Live Stock and Poultry Show Visitors Attention!

Before leaving do not fail to see the exhibit of the Lantz Oil Burner Co. to the east of the main entrance.

Lantz Oil Burner Co. TILLAMOOK, ORE.

SALEM PETER ADMIRAL MAYO

Salem, Nov. 8.—Admiral Henry T. Mayo, former commander of the Pacific fleet, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Salem Kiwanis club...

Supreme Court Finds Member as Trial Judge Erred

Salem, Nov. 8.—The decree of Judge John McCourt of the Multnomah circuit court, now Justice John McCourt of the Oregon supreme court, in the case of Charles Brown vs. John Austin and Arthur Gardner...

Safe Milk for INFANTS and INVALIDS. Ask for Horlick's Malted Milk, the Original. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes.