

SOCIETY POURS OUT AT OPENING OF FLOWER SHOW

Immense chrysanthemums bowed their heads in majestic splendor to the social gathering which marked the opening day of the first annual chrysanthemum show in the green room of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon.

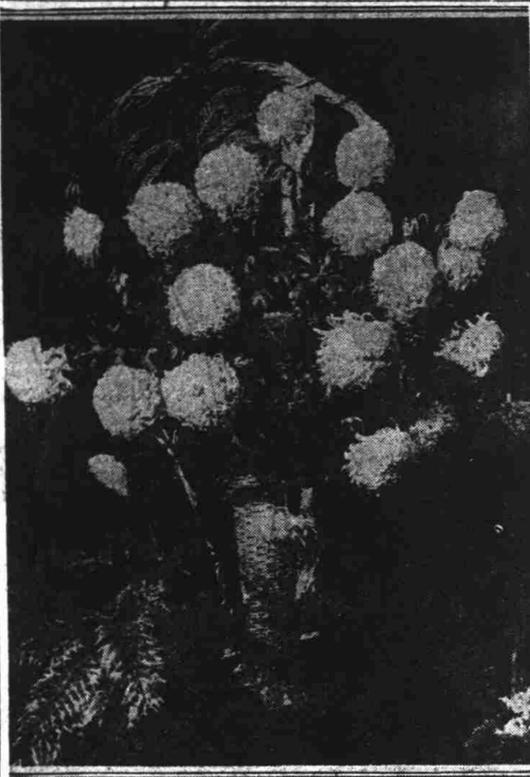

And the roses, orchids, chrysanthemums and other prize blooms of the flower kingdom clustered in groups whispered as they swayed to the tunes of an orchestra embowered in a multitude of vari-colored vines flanked by green shrubs and palms.

The opening day of the chrysanthemum show was a success. Between 3 and 5 o'clock tea was served for the wives of members of the chamber and about 250 patronesses.

TEA IS SERVING In the receiving line were Mrs. H. B. Van Dusen, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. E. G. Crawford, Mrs. Max S. Hirsch, Mrs. John T. Dougall and Mrs. W. D. B. Dodson.

Included in the exhibits were the displays of 22 florists and individuals including the city park bureau. Several out of town firms were also represented.

College Lotteries On Football Games To Be Investigated

Chicago, Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—A sweeping investigation of the alleged practice of conducting lotteries on football games at colleges in and near Chicago was started today as a result of the arrest at Champaign, Ill., of Stuyvesant Smith of Evanston, a student at the University of Illinois. Smith is charged with promoting a lottery on "Big Ten" football games.

According to reports, the University of Illinois is not the only place where lotteries have been conducted. At Northwestern university a lottery was started this year for the first time. Co-eds, as well as other students, have evinced a deep interest in the little blue chips which carry the names of the Big Ten teams. The sale of tickets has not been confined to the student body.
