TELEPHONE-Main 7173, Automatic 560-51. All departments reached by these numbers.

NATIONAL, ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE—Benjamin & Keutnor Co., Brunswick building, 225 Fifth avenue, New York; 900
Mallers building, Chicago.

Mallers building, Chicago.
PACIFIC COAST REPRESENTATIVE—W. R. Bernger Co., Examiner building, San Vrat-cisco; Title Insurance building, Los Angeles; Post-Intelligencer building, Seattle, THE OHEGON JOURNAL, reserves the right to reject advertising copy which it deems objectionable. It also will not print any objectionable. It also will not reading a copy that in any way simulates reading a tey or that cannot readily be recognized advertising.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES By Carrier, City and Country. DAILY AND SUNDAY One week . . . . . $ .10 BY MAIL, ALL BATES PATABLE IN ADVANCE (Without Sandar) ne year....$6.00 ne months....3.25 (Only) One year. One month ... WEEKLY AND SUNDAY

...$3.50 $1 00 | One year .... secupted. Make all remittances payable to Journal Publishing Company, Portland,

The peoples of the world want peace and they want it now, not merely by conquest of arms, but by agreement of mind.—Wood-row Wilson.

TODAY the contribution to the world might live in freedom, liberty, prosperity and peace.

But today, while the words of praise are spoken and written, there are ex-service men, mutilated by from lack of quarters.

the necessaries of life. Nine hundred time for people to be reading and thousand veterans are walking the pondering. streets in quest of employment.

One day a veteran jumps to his death from a hospital. Another day

And where is the peace for which the veterans fought? What has become of the "war to end war"? Are not the nations preparing their poison gases, building their battleships, perfecting their fighting planes and constructing bigger cannon than they ever constructed before? Has America herself not refused to join the stock industry. only organization so far proposed to end war? And has she so far offered any substitute?

The service man completed a forbidding task. He fought a glorious fight in a glorious cause. He gave all that was asked of him and more without quibble or question. Have fact they do, except that more exwe given to him in the way he gave perience and information are necesto us? Are we even going to estab- sary in order to give the sentiment lish the status we told him he was entire unanimity. fighting for? If not, why not?

was revived to help the farmers. Its Northwest's show at Portland covers 700.000,000 barrels a year. latest loan seems to be one of $1,- 10 acres, as compared with Chicago's company. Is that a loan for the exhibits surpass all others in the consumption of oil will mount to benefit of the farmers or for the world in size and importance. Even 1,000,000,000 a year. benefit of a loan company?

PLAY A SQUARE GAME

THERE continues to be in Port-

The exposition management should true. Second, it is an appeal to class ures do not occur where purebred

The exposition is too worthy an representation that but 20 per cent in livestock production means the not in thousands or hundreds of of the population will have to pay feeding of urban communities by thousands but millions, is back of for it. Everybody knows that every their hinterlands and the prosperity the search. renter and every consumer will help of the towns in proportion to the pay for it because of the shifting of prosperity of the country. part of the taxes to him in rent he pays or goods he consumes.

Again, the exposition is too well class prejudice. This argument is reseats. that the have-nots should vote for it because the haves will be forced to should take root in America? Ad- an operation on a 13-foot cobra after partisan league ever went, yet those who are making the class-prejudice argument shrick at the Non-partisan The Journal thinks the exposition tax should be voted, but not on any untruthful representation that only a few will pay the bill. And not through rotten appeals to class prejudice.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

INDEED it is time that the United States government investigate and investigate thoroughly the activities One week ..... $ .05 of American railroads in aiding foreign shipping companies to sweep the > tered into contracts with foreign forever. shipping concerns to secure freight Ransdell says free freight handling is the affairs of my children." provided the foreign lines. Senator Jones says the same thing. Both is the mother-in-law. maintain that American railroads are providing free and exclusive use of piers and warehouses to foreign shippromised to use their influence in securing exemption for foreign ships

The senators who make the charges are responsible men. Documents on file with the interstate commerce commission tend to substantiate their claims. The records of American railroads in the past certainly would not suggest that such a status is impossible.

Certainly the railroads are put in a unique and unseemly position if the charges are substantiated. On the one hand they are asking the support of the public to beat down the wages of railroad employes. They are asking and are apparently to receive financial support from the people through the government on world of our war veterans and flimsy claims. And on the other their hereic deeds will be painted and hand they are accused of being in praised from platform and press. league with foreign shipping inter-Their bravery, their gallantry, their ests in an effort to drive the people's sacrifices, their hardships, their suf- ships from the seas and thereby force ferings and their glorious service to upon the people a loss of $4.000,000,mankind will be reviewed and glow- 000 spent in building vessels. And ing tribute paid the veterans. This if they succeed how are the people passenger rates'

What does the government think of the situation?

A gain of 20,429 in the circulation war, suffering from improper medi- of books by the Portland public lical attention. They are suffering brary is officially reported. A "great demand for books on disarmament" There are veterans suffering in is noted. With Oregon's federal tax are or who have been members of deen (S. D.) World (Ind.) is sure, and practically tied up. want. There are veterans hungry, increased from $1,000,000 a year to the league. It should be given by the Minneapolis Tribune (Rep.) holds equipped to carry eight cattle, but under veterans without homes and vet- $28,000,000 a year to pay war bills the dairymen who have stayed out- that "those who chose to do so may be- the regulations the farmer who wants erans' families foregoing many of and dreadnaught costs, it is high side their cooperative marketing lieve that the brotherhoods have suf-

LIVESTOCK LIVELIHOOD

in the Windy City.

In Denver, when business is dullin every store and industry.

Naturally there is no lack of ap-

Kansas City and Omaha.

Visitors who come part way across Portland expect to find a correspond- disruption of the league. ing sentiment here. As a matter of The Pacific International Livestock exposition is not so old as the nage of the world is idle. It has been understood all along Chicago International Livestock ex- But with conditions thus, the connow the beef cattle, poultry, sheep and swine exhibits take front rank among all livestock exhibitions. west is pressing forward to interna- able to continue to do so for the next land a claim that 80 per cent of tional leadership in livestock produc- quarter century. the voters are non-taxpayers and tion. It means that we are catching that only about 20 per cent will bear up with and passing the Middle West time about 23 per cent of the world's ened against the future." Is public opinquality of our dairy stock.

Translated into the terms of indi- increased production. Oil explorers to be depended on under all conditions?" rak for that line of argument to be vidual farms, it means agricultural are at work in South America, Meso- The railway labor board, the Topeka dropped. First, the contention is not success and prosperity. Farm fail- potamia and Asia. livestock is produced.

The livestock exposition in North Portland startles the observer with energy from streams that flow with its immense size, extent and variety. grounded on reason for arguments But it is no less startling in the magto be made for it through appeals to nitude of the resource which it rep-

What if that kind of argument with two assistants, tried to perform tipodes?

sional hour in the sunshine on the

TEXAS WONDERS

PEXAS is a state of wonders. Down there they grow fields and fields of cotton. The oil resources are extensive. Hospitality is in high gear, the summers are hot and negroes are there in abundance.

But of all the wonders of which Texas can boast none is more unusual than a certain Southern man. Like some other men, he has a mother-in-law. But, unlike most other men, he has a strong affection for the mother of his wife.

Jones act. And the public wants to greet his marital relative. He was see a prosperous and healthy merchant marine on the oceans.

Senator Ransdell of Louisiana Service the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to find. Rep.) suggests? Or, can the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to find. Rep.) suggests? Or, can the way from 1 decays to find the way from 1 decays to fi charges that the railroads have en- in this country and at his house for foreign shipping companies to the Texas wonder man and his strong and has, accordingly, "won a great morexclusion of others. Senator Jones affection for his mother-in-law. She makes the same charge. Senator sums it up thus: "I never butt into which the cooperative marketing organizations of California experienced in their first stages years ago.

Perhaps, after all, the real wonder

But they did not quit, and the co-California have become one of the marvels of the world.

Courage.

eague and its members.

bankers. A repledging of loyalty by dairy-

A pledge of renewed lovalty should organization and who have reaped the benefits of organization without men of Oregon. Another day a veteran dies in want.

Twenty per cent of Chicago's Their form of cooperative organization is based upon the widest exthey "go their way rejoicing, remindto about twice the population of perience interpreted by the best ing their followers that twice within five treatment of veterans in hospitals or Portland, depend for livelihood upon minds. Their organization has the years they have forced their government the livestock industry which centers express sanction of federal and state to capitulate, and the railroads, through law.

their product.

cago of the importance of the live- decide to go forward they can capiwon by California cooperators.

feel economic depression. Half of the merchant marine ton-cent of the universal demand. The victory which has been won." All of this means that the North- official estimate is that it will be Portland's proportion of the cost of and the Southwest in, at least, the supply from an aggregate area of without improved legal machinery for 1200 square miles, is looked to for the prevention of transportation strikes,

The quest for fluid fuel from be-strength see what can be done in the production of hydro-electric volume and power far beyond comparison with the greatest oil wells? The apparatus consists of a number of Why isn't 21,000,000 horsepower ancient movie machines unearthed at of potential hydro-electric energy in the National museum in New York. the Columbia basin as worthy of de-Every one to his taste, is the old yelopment right here at home as to saw. The New York doctor who, search for petroleum in the an- The cinematic art as practiced hundreds

WHOSE IS THE VICTORY?

In the Railway Strike Matter the Editors of America Award the Palm Variously, but Public Opinion Has Many Votes as the Power That Dictated the End - Brotherhoods Credited With Substantial Victory in One An- alysis, Though Foes Continue to Taunt - Call for a Stronger Law. Dally Editorial Digest

(Consolidated Press Association)

Something flagged the plan for a railroad strike just as it was tearing along under a full head of steam, and it came to a dead stop with scarcely any grinding of its wheels. What operated the signal that read "Stop"? Did the men Like other men, he is married, realize that "they had embarked on an impossible venture," as the Brooklyn Eagle (Ind. Dem.) says, and that "a public opinion overwhelmingly adverse to their policy doomed a strike to disastrous defeat?" Was the strike or-The mother-in-law recently ar- dered remanded because, as the Butte rived in New York from Denmark. Post (Rep.) thinks, "the simple truth we shall not see reasonable taxation for American merchant marine from the rived in New York from Denmark. Fost (Rep.) thinks, the shiple trade of the properties of the brotherhoods the next 25 years. Much of it there is gress. In Great Britain they "stand" for an investigation. Senator Jones was the son-in-law. He had driven bluff was called," as the Portland Oreasks that the government enforce the all the way from Texas to New York gonjan (Ind. Rep.) suggests? Or, can ly and we are paying a high price for > "Public opinion really compelled the cancellation of the strike order." de-But there is a reason for the clares the Boston Herald (Ind. Rep.) al victory," the Minneapolis Journal the question of where the victory lies is tion. It certainly would be a good answered in various ways. The Colum-There is a certain inconsistency "for once the people are victorious in a for themselves. Why not get behind this battle royal for their rights and interests," and the Roanoke World News (Dem.) also finds that "the real winner would have been the worse loser in case that the finest dairy animals in the of a strike." The brotherhoods "have capitulated before a rising tide of public a "fiasco" which the Wheeling Intelligencer (Rep.) says "has given organized with all the high wages that he got, he labor a black eye from which it will be had to bow to the will of the grafter. long recovering," a view entirely contrary to that held by the Lynchburg declare all days holidays and Sundays? News (Dem.), which considers the fact THE troubles which the Oregon "that the brotherhoods had the moral Dairymen's Cooperative league is courage and nerve and patriotism to experiencing today are the troubles meet the terms of their obligations to the public and the public interests is to their high credit, and should be so proclaimed."

country in many years," many editors thinks that "probably the brotherhoods have won what they went after," and World Herald (Ind.) insists, the wage The day is not lost for the dairy- sees it, the unions "stand triumphant on the greater issue of receiving from some authoritative source assurance that wage reductions are a thing of the past," and government intervention, to yield." est, the annual livestock exhibition dairymen in their attempt to sethe laurels of victory can be filed by farmer to help remove it. If the pavemakes its stimulating influence felt cure a fair share of the value of the railway labor board, in the opinion ment won't stand up, we ask you on beof the majority of the press. If the dairymen through the di- triumph of a sound principle and a just light. The fallure of the big trucks to preciation in either Denver or Chi- rectorate of the Dairymen's league policy was won," the Adrian (Mich.) carry maximum loads in to market is a Telegram (Ind.) feels, "when the author- severe blow to farmers in the first inity of the railway labor board was vin- stance. And the failure to carry maxitalize impending failure and trans- dicated," and "in the final analysis," mum loads out is a restriction of outlet Nor is there less appreciation in form it into the quality of success the Buffalo Times (Dem.) thinks "the that reacts on any patron of the Portresult is a triumph for arbitration." We They can defeat the hostile agen- are working toward a time, the Cinthe continent to attend the Pacific cies whose undermining influence is cinnati Times Star (Rep.) says, "when International Livestock exposition in visible in the very proposals for the sible, but if we are not to have strikes a general railroad strike will be imposwe must have governmental machinery which will provide for hearings and the settlement of disputes without industrial warfare." In its handling of the recent crisis the railway labor board has THE principal nations of the world earned "a vast amount of credit," the Toledo Blade (Rep.) thinks, for "it has shown singular ability in getting itself listened to by men determined stubborn and angry," and the Springfield Republithat the War Finance corporation position. But even in its youth the sumption of oil is at the rate of lar prestige." The great gain, in the opinion of the Boston Post (Ind. Dem.). What is more, government experts is that "the labor board, backed by pub-130,000 to the Portland Cattle Loan three. Even now the dairy cattle have estimated that in five years the lic opinion, has demonstrated that its decisions must be accepted as final. and "in the recognition of these principles of governmental authority and Where is the supply to come from? public interest," the Philadelphia Bul-The United States supplies 70 per letin (Ind. Rep.) believes, "lies the real But while, as the New York Post (Ind.) puts it, "a sea wall thrown up against the inundation of industrial warfare has held in an emergency," it still Mexico, producing at the present remains imperative that it be "strength-Capital (Rep.) points out, had no legal authority for the position it assumed, neath the earth's crust has extended the government in fixing wages and and "if it is to assume the function of Translated into the terms of cities, to the Arctic circle of the western working conditions, its authority will enterprise to be urged on the mis- the Northwest's remarkable progress hemisphere. Capital, enumerated have to be made clearer than it is now."

Curious Bits of Information

Gleaned From Curious Places America is not the original home of the moving picture. This assumption, according to the Detroit News, is disproved by an apparatus of ancient Siamese civilization recently discovered. where they had been hidden away in boxes since their presentation to this of years ago in Slam was carried on as follows: The proper number of figures, designed from leather by hand, were mounted on rods and projected on the screen by the hand of the operator. The screen was a white cloth hung between the audience and the light. The shadows were manipulated by the operator's pushing the manikins along in a 'As action advanced through cliniax and anti-climax, the operator recited in a singsong voice five reel

Letters From the People

[Communications sent to The Journal for ublication in this department should be written in only one side of the paper, should not exceed 300 words in length, and must be signed by the writer, whose mail address in full must ecompany the contribution.]

SOME REMARKS ON TAXES Writer Believes the Bonding Dusiness

torials are certainly grand. Your edidid not come soon enough. We have stock show surely is an exposition of already encumbered ourselves by bonding for one thing and another. already encumbered ourselves by bond-ing for one thing and another, so that mortal may well be proud. full, also receiving the $60 bonus congress gave. Any soldier who had his health injured or was maimed so he is incapacitated is entitled to help and not just a mere pittance, but enough so that with what he can earn he can live in (Ind. Rep.) adds. The position that the comfort and be able to lay up a little. recall order was due entirely to the The loan feature of this bill is good, but pressure of public opinion is held by the cash feature is not. I heartily agree an impressive number of papers. But with E. A. Linscott on this loan quesif the state would make this loan to bia (S. C.) State (Dem.) believes that apply to all who wish to make homes question and put it over? There are many men with families who are paying rent that, if they could get money on the public, the public which for themselves and stop paying rent. long terms, could and would build homes think this question has merit, and the man who stayed at home and ate substitutes without a murmur is just as enfury," the Peoria Transcript (Ind.) feels, titled to the benefits of this law as those who volunteered or were drafted, for,

Why not give us all a pension and Square Dealing.

SPEAKS FOR TRUCK OWNERS Charging That Load Limit Is a Hardship on Them; Also on Producers. Portland, Nov. 3 .- To the Editor of The Journal-I write relative to the dilemma of the truck owners who are handling livestock, because of your well While a number of papers feel with known interest in the welfare of prothe Charleston News and Courier (Dem.) ducers. The state of Oregon has and surgeon of Salem, is at the Multinothat "in calling off the strike the launched forth upon a $100,000,000 hard mah for a short visit in Portland. Dr. brotherhood leaders have had to accept surface road-building campaign. Mil- Byrd is the father of Winifred Byrd. the worst humiliation which has been lions have been spent and hundreds of who appeared in concert at the Heilig visited upon organized labor in this miles of roadway have been built. Oppo- Wednesday evening. nents call them scenic highways; operative marketing organizations of view the outcome very differently. The sponsors call them market roads. On Lansing (Mich.) State Journal (Ind.) the theory that they are market roads. voters have approved them. But there and attending the exposition. Mr. Moisan The Oregon dairymen most need in this belief more positively stated is held are market roads or highways. Five by many. The issue was not, the Omaha years ago receipts by wagon and truck years. at the stockyards were very small, but if they succeed how are the people day is their day, and is given over to national and international tribute to those who fought and died that the the those who fought and died that the the those who fought and died that the those who fought and died that the those who fought and died that the the those who fought to test that the railroads were very small, but the stocky and succeed how are the people which the internation of the boundary of the livestock which the railroads were very small, but the stocky are sended in the socky and those of the those who destroying the unions are the people which the railroads were very small, but the stocky are the wide internation of the socky are the very small, but the stocky are the the the died in the railroad ordered, that led the labor chiefs to bers and there is not a section in the Support by business men and exercise their authority to call a strike," whole Willamette valley that is not rep-And as a settlement has been made "on resented daily, or was until recently. the strength of the assurance of the Now we find them checked by state and labor board that it will give the railway county officials who say our paveworkers a square deal," the Muskegon ments won't stand the traffic. A big Chronicle (Ind.) concludes that "the fleet of trucks here at the stockyards real victors in the episode are the rail- which serves the country by going out way unions themselves." The position for livestock from the farms and which taken by the railway labor board "is renders a like service to numerous small clear gain for the unions," the Aber- killers by trucking purchases out, is Their trucks are fered a defeat, but it is hardly possible the market road can't do it. Officials to delude oneself into thinking that the say the pavement won't stand the load railroads scored a victory." In fact, as Perhaps it won't. And if it won't it's the Richmond Times Dispatch (Dem.) a good time to find out all about it right now. One thing is evident: the concrete pavement from the Interstate fill to the stockyards will stand any load on any truck that runs. What's the matter with the rest of them?~

Freight rates are prohibitive and the trucks are just about to solve the problem. Is this regulation a discrimination against the farmer, and for the railroad? Or is it true that our pavement won't stand up? If it is discrimi-"The half of all of us to help turn on the land market. I have referred here to the fleet of trucks at the stockyards. but R. L. Clark,

> The Message of the Unknown Soldier

By B. E. Chappell, Member Louis Leidle Post No. 116, Goldendale, Wash.

(Dedicated to the Unknown Soldier buried Arlington Cemetery) Rack from the field of strife I come Midst funeral darge and muffled drum— Back to the land I called my own— But my lips are cold, they are cold as stone! No one will know from whence I came; No one will know my face or name; Someone will shed hot tears and sigh While draped in the Stars and Stripes I lie:

Somewhere my father, aged and gray, I loved, I was human, with flesh and blood Swirled about in war's grim flood, I fought and I tried to do my share, For it was "Carry on"—over there.

Mothers will come with tear-dimmed eve May kiss a picture—will one be of me,
Who fought for the life of democracy? Perchance for my sins I may atone While mothers, sitting by the stone Will breathe a prayer, for I may be Their boy who died across the sea.

To the Unknown Dead Harvey M. Watts in Philadelphia Public Ledger

the Arc de Triomphe com

England in Westminster Abbey and France

day by reburying the remains of one unidentified dead in these famous Where pomp of worshp and of civic pride Have consecrated to the state these fanes.
They lay in peace these lone and chill remai
That they, in common dust, with kings beside,
May tell their humble tale and nothing hide,
As noble ceremony naught remains
In way of golden tribute ere there wanes Remembrance as to why they fought and thed.
So let them rest; beneath the swelling vault
And take the honors others long have share Denied the casual accidents of name,
Free from the fact of fond desert or fault
They live, the symbol of a youth that dured, Immortal in the world's unchecked acclain Where pomp of worshp and of civic pride

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF SMALL CHANGE

Wasn't it Kurds and whey we used to hear so much about in the happy days of long ago? Rail chiefs plan another heavy cut. Amputating the pay of the "chiefs or of $3 men. . .. . Whatever may be Dempsey's virtues, he'd never make a graceful dancing partner for a flapper. Coney Island will walk on Oregon fir next season—and on Western money to a large extent, no doubt.

Armistice day, freighted with such timent as only the memories of thos who lie in heroes' graves can sanctify.

A good way to insure the state

Has Been Overdone.

Prineville. Oct. 28.—To the Editor of ties of the golden advice of experience and rub it in thoroughly.

SIDELIGHTS

There is a shortage of wood in the valley. When one considers that one has to haul it all of five miles one is not surprised.—Medford Mail-Tribune. We hear there is a man employed at the courthouse who does nothing but fill ink wells. Who has the job of distributing chewing gum to the typists?—Roseburg News-Review.

We understand that there is a on foot among the Amalgamated Holl-day Advocates union to have Thanks-giving come every quarter instead of once a year.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Idaho has also brought in a verdict of guilty in a murder case; it looks like of guilty in a murder case; it looks like people are becoming so annoyed over murders that there is sentiment in favor of punishing those who slay. It is all very brutal on the part of the law, of course.—Pendleton East Oregonian. What has happened to the unemploy ment conference called by President Harding? No one hears about it any more. It has apparently died, faded into thin mist and dissipated. Halled with much publicity at its inception. conference has silently vanished.—The Dalles Chronicle.

The budget committees provided by the legislature have done one thing, if nothing more. They have attracted attention to budgets, and therein lie some staggering facts. Payrolls of every political unit have mounted skyhigh and increased numbers of employes in many instances have been noticeable. — La Grande Observer.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Random Observations About Town Nowhere in the country are the deci-J. Paupart, esquire, who dispenses the sions of the judges of the Pacific Inter- Oregon apples in London which he ache judges of the Pacific Inter-Livestock exposition being quires through the industrious agency with greater interest than by students at the Intermountain at Weiser, Idaho, which en-Holsteins in competition, ac-have hit the English palate right. Mr.

Oregon apples in London which he ac-quires through the industrious agency of Sam Rich of Portland, reports, by just received a letter signed by King George of England, enclosing a silver Victory medal awarded McLelland for have hit the English palate right. Mr. watched with greater interest than by of Sam Rich of Portland, reports, by the 125 students at the Intermountain cable, that the juicy Newtowns and institute at Weiser, Idaho, which en- Spitzenbergs of Hood River seem to tered 12 Holsteins in competition, ac- have hit the English palate right. Mr. cording to A. H. Morgan, superintendent Rich, who is spending what sleeping of the school, who is at the Multnomah. hours he has to spare during this apple One of the conditions on which the harvest time at the Multnomah, has repupils are accepted as students at this ceived a cable from J. Paupart to the school is that part of their tuition must effect that a large shipment of Oregon be paid by actual work, the boys work- apples has arrived in London and has ing around the ranch and the girls do- been sold for 50 cents a box above the ing cooking and other work, so that current market, the Newtowns bringing when it was decided to enter dairy cat- $4.32 a box. Rich is waiting with a good the great exposition the boys, deal of anticipation to hear from a shipwho had cared for these cattle as part load sent to London through the Panof their tuition, became exceedingly ama canal, for if the consignment stands eager to see if any of their entries would the long water voyage in good shape win a prize against so many competitors. it will make a good deal of difference get should The news that seven prizes have been in future shipments, the freight by awarded the herd will be a great water being approximately $1 a box fault stimulus to the students of that in- from the municipal terminal in Portland Yak stitution, Mr. Morgan says. The in- to the docks of London. Incidentally, attute was principally endowed by Rus- a second shipload of approximately 70,- sell Sage, and through this endowment 000 boxes of apples collected from Ore-sons and daughter of farmers have been gon and Washington orchards will be able to get an excellent practical edu- shipped from terminal No. 4 next week.

cation. Dr. W. H. Byrd, prominent shysician

River are visiting friends in Portland the proprietor of the Marion hotel at and attending the exposition. Mr. Moisan Salem. is a big question now as to whether they was formerly in business at Salem, but are market roads or highways. Fine has been located at Hood River several C. P. Bishop, former senator and pres-

> Mack Anderson of Reedsport is at the man of Fossil, is at the Imperial. Portland, having come up to give the exposition the once over and to transact the entire refrigeration space of the vessel having been chartered for the shipment Mr. and Mrs. James R. Linn of Salem are registered at the Imperial. When Jim is not doping out the political situation. buying hops and prunes or running the Mr. and Mrs. Gus Moisan of Hood Pilot Butte ranch, up at Bend, he is > Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Reedy of Tillamook are registered at the Oregon while attending the livestock exposition. Dr.

> Carey W. Foster of Prineville is the Portland for a few days.

OBSERVATIONS AND IMPRESSIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

By Fred Lockley

[A soldier whose disabilities incurred in the , 20, 1914. While at sea on our way to war incapacitated him for getting into the the one and his tribulations in connection with the other. Mr. Lockley appends to the resulting article a neat little plece of verse in praise of a well-known actress ! "My father and the father of General Jan Christian Smuts, present premier of After making numerous attempts to en-South Africa, were brothers, so Premier Smuts and I are cousins," said Captain John A. Smuts to me recently. "I was born at Capetown, January 26, 47 years manager of a rubber plantation at ago. When L was 17 years old I went Singapore. This plantation was owned died Monday at the home of his daughto Cambridge. After receiving my degree there I returned to South Africa and became a lieutenant in the Cape artillery. Two years after my return to South Africa the Boer war broke out.

After putting in a year or two there at a most satisfactory salary I ran to South Africa the Boer war broke out.

Pocatello is to expand as a city at the expense of the United States forest est service, the surveyor general become across my old comrade-in-arms, Dudley eree there I returned to South Africa My cousin, Jan Christian Smuts, being Rideout. He had become a general. We a Boer, like myself, was soon in the had served together in the Boer war as thick of the fight. As you know, he captains. I told him how anxious I was was one of their ablest generals.

with the British forces. I asked to be secure my commission I had to take transferred from the Cape artillery to another examination, and was again. the South African light horse, where turned down. I heard that the Canadian there are hundreds of trucks there would be opportunity for immethroughout the state that were bought diate action. We were sent to Natal. and equipped to transport heavy loads and, as you know, the battle of the of livestock and upon which the farmers Tugela occurred shortly thereafter. It tried his best to get me into the service. of the state are dependent for a market. was there that the son of Lord Roberts but again I was turned down. Then I Three months of this regulation will was killed. I will say this for my kinsbreak the truck men and seriously in- men, the Boers: they are wonderful would be some place for me in her servshots and courageous fighting men. The ice, but my injured foot barred me from South African light horse, in which I every branch of the service. I went to had become a captain, was employed in Los Angeles, where I bought a small scouting, a most honorable but some-scouting, a most honorable but some-scouting, a most honorable but some-man and raised potatoes and rabbits. comrades were killed. I was wounded by a pompom shell. Later I received a Mauser bullet in my side. I served from | hold of you its call is almost irresistible. October, 1899, to June, 1901, being in Yes, my wife, too, likes the East. She the battle of Spionkop and in many other is here—she can speak for herself. She engagements, as well as being in at the has lived in Portland at various times, relief of Ladysmith. I received my pro- having spent several years here. You motion to captain in June, 1900. It so probably know her best as May Yohe, happened that I had come under the observation of Lord Kitchener, who gave me my promotion and transferred me to the railway staff. I was a railway staff officer on the lines of communication east of Dalmanutha. After the war I was appointed resident magistrate of Brandvell, a district lying south of German Southwest Africa. I served as resident magistrate there 10 years. My duties ranged all the way from settling disputes between the natives to acting as judge and administering the affairs of the district.

"I decided to go into farming, and so I took up 4000 morgen of land and began raising sheep and wheat. Four thousand morgen is about 8000 acres, as you measure it here in America. After some years of ranching I sold out and went to England, where I was married, June

Uncle Jeff Snow Says

exas, and Stewart's ranch there was a patch of road, fore Chester A. Arthur fell into the president's cheer, that run acrost a big flat, and ever winter teams mired down in there—especially if they got offen the road seekin' a better way -until they couldn't git the wagons out The only thing they could think to do was to leave 'em there till the road dried up and then go dig 'em out. Old Man Ike Dever had a ranch nearby and uster buy them wagons at bargain prices and dig 'em out later. He was dead

South Africa we received word of the declarations of hostilities in the World war. We went at once to German cated a copper still, a large amount of paraphernalia and five 52-gallon barrels of mash ready for distilling. because of the severed ligaments in my foot which made me limp slightly. Ceylon and thence to India. After look- government. by the Sultan of Jahore.

to get into the service. He had pull enough to get a doctor to pass me as "Having graduated at Cambridge, I had the English viewpoint that the isonation of the Dutch was a mistake. Be-while I was to be a captain in the Bgitshad was right. I fought ish forces. Unfortunately, before I could be a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in a ditch filled with water. She was to be a captain in the Bgit-like was to be a captain in the Bg examination was less strict, so I came over to America, and at Spokane ran across a British recruiting officer who turned to America, hoping that there

"My wife and I expect to go back to Singapore. When once the East gets former wife of Sir Francis Hope."

Janis "over there" will feel his pulses thrill when he reads Harold Speakman's poem, "To a Steam Launch in China" in a world of ancient things, Of high-walled cities, temples vast.

Every overseas man who heard Elsie

Where time with hobbied feet and wings Comes creeping slowly from the past, I saw, beside a bamboo dock, A small launch lying, trim and white, And then its name—dynamic shock— The Elsie Jahis, sprung in sight!

The Chinese landscape fied away

And in its place was France—and then A car, a tired girl in gray, A thousand happy, mudstained men Crying "There's Eisle good ole scout: w's Elsie—good ole scout; rs! . . . " The vision flickered out And slowly I became aware Of reliow men with raven hair, saring from bridge and wall and most To see a foreigner salute a boat.

college come down there and got the county board to dig some rock outer a Down on the stretch 'tween Uvalde, acrost that flat, and busted Old Man Dever's game all to flinders. THE REST MINDS

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger Nothing but simple truth matters to the true scholar. Prejudice, preconceptions, self-interest, do not weigh in the scientific mind. If a thing is, it is, and it must be reckoned with. Of life, war, economics, politics, government, medi-cine, diplomacy, religion, social opportunities and human relationships genersure there wasn't nuthin' else to it but ally, the scholars are saying today what abide by the ways of Providence. However, a crazy galeot from A Northern live by in generations to come.

The Oregon Country Northwest Happenings in Brief Form for Busy Reader.

J. A. Thompson, a rancher of Midland Klamath county, had a leg, ankle and three ribs broken last Thursday when his team became frightened away. Gibson G. Hickey, veteran of the World war, committed suicide near Cedar Mills Sunday by shooting himself through the heart. His wife had deserted him and he was despondent.

Because he shipped more hay last year than any other shipper in the state. M. G. Reed of Albany has been appointed vice-president of the National Hay Press association from Oregon. Coos county has obtained par and premium of $945 for $150,000 worth good road bonds voted last June to natch the state highway money on the Bandon-Camas valley road. North Bend will have a special city election November 28 to decide whether to raise $6000 more for general city purposes next year, as called for by the poses next year, as called budget recently made out. City Recorder Ross Farnham has cost the city of Bend just $1 in the 10 months he has been in office, salary and ex-penses of the office being $1775 and fees and fines reaching a total of $1774. When a cylinder head from an engine at the Sears planing mill in Albany blew off, Charles Moore was hurled 10 feet through a door, sustaining a fractured arm, shattered leg and other serious njuries. Permission has been granted the Valley & Siletz Railroad company by the interstate commerce commission to issue $70,000 in capital stock against its lines n Oregon for the purpose of paying off

The Oregon Growers' Cooperative association has already exported more than 12,000 boxes of apples and it is expected that the total export from the Villamette and Umpqua valleys pass the 12,000 mark.

The Pacific Livestock company has paid to the state $53,000 in full settlepaid to the state $55,000 to last strength ment of a suit brought by the attorney general to recover certain lands alleged general to recover certain lands alleged o have been acquired by the livestock corporation through fraud.

WASHINGTON The state has purchased $46,000 worth of Wilbur school bonds at par, with per cent interest. Through alleged laxness of city officials, no municipal tax can be levied at Springdale for 1922. The bud-have been prepared in tember, but was allowed to go by Yakima, Sunnyside and other towns along the route of the Yellowstone trail are opposing efforts to change the route to the Columbia river and Portland, or o establish a branch route in that di rection. Charged with inefficiency, Drum, former warden of the Walla Walla penitentiary and since April 1 superintendent of the state game farm, will be dismissed from that position December 1. Oil seepage, heavier than flowed from the well, caused the drillers at the Attalia operations last Friday to cease drilling and to begin setting the casing to dry the hole and give the a chance to flow. William, 9-year-old son of Fred Knaust, car repairer at the Great forthern shops at Hillyard, is dead as the result of a broken skull received when he was struck by a car driven by J. F. Monahan. Mrs. Minnie E. Brown aged 53 was attacked by a thug at Spokane early Sunday morning and knocked down by a blow on the jaw. He snatched her handhag nickel as his booty.

Rather than submit to arrest, J. G. Shelton, 50, committed suicide frear Col-ville by shooting himself with a rifle. He was a homesteader and his body was found near a still where he had been making moonshine whiskey.

Joseph M. Campbell, aged 75, a pioneer of the Northwest, was found dead last Sunday night at his home in Chewelah. Campbell mined at Sliver City, Idaho, in the early days and staked a water right claim on Spokane falls in 1870 Andrew Simous and his wife and

IDAHO A battery of 60 artillerymen was muslist, and being turned down, I went to ceylon and there to Todio. Rev. H. E. Carter, 75, one of the first > ter in Caldwell. government land.

Nazarene preachers to come to ldaho.

The Sumpter Valley smelter having been completed, miners in the Boise basin will save from $10 to $12 a ton by shipping their ores to Sumpter inby shipping their ores to Sumpter stead of to Salt Lake as formerly.

cover. As the result of action taken at the ast meeting of the city council the ity of Boise will ask all banks in which unds of the municipality are deposited furnish surety bonds instead of per-With the exception of wheat exhibit. Idaho grain and seed will compete against entries from the whole of the nited States and Canada at the national grain and hay show to be held at Chicago, November 25 to December 3.

What I Like Best In The Journal

J. R. MATTHEWS, 4047 East Stark street-Its alertness in securing news. For instance, it was announced that a $1,000,000 new produce market was to be built between East Oak and Alder streets on East Third. The next day The Journal showed a complete diagram of the market, the only paper that had it. I like Fred Lockley's articles, the market page and The Journal's loyalty to the common people.

MARTHIA LAMBAIN, 509 Hoyt street-The advertisements. W. O'NEIL, 415 Halsey street - The editorials. T spend my happiest hour of the day scanning the columns of The Journal.

, REX PRATT, Astoria-I read first the headlines on the front page, then "Jerry on the Job," then, seriously, the editorial page. H. A. SCHMIDTKE, 588

East Davis street-Its dependability. Its fairness in all dealings with the public. I esteem all Journal features. We have a fine carrier. What do you like best in The Journal? Be sure to include name and address when you pay the bill.

The second second second second second prejudiće.

vocacy of it is a polite form of urging it had nearly killed three other men confiscation of property. If you who attempted the job, may enjoy have not, runs the theory, then vote his work. But there are a lot of for whatever you want and make people who would rather clean the those who have taxable property pay streets for a living, with an occa-This is going farther than the Non- banks of the old swimming hole.

about the spectacle of the Oregon Dairymen's league going to pieces while the livestock exposition in North Portland presents ocular proof world are to be found in the North-

THE DAIRYMEN'S FIGHTING CHANCE

Had the California cooperators given up in the face of frouble and discouragement their later successes and profits would have been impossible.

meeting their crisis these things:

men to their organization. Broad zealous leadership and efficient administration.

participating in it.

Public sentiment supports the

____ THE UNIVERSAL SEARCH

Why doesn't capital in similar dramas of the loves and wrongs of the kings and queens represented.