

EGG PRICES ARE BEING KEPT DOWN

By Hyman H. Cohen

Efforts to advance the price of eggs have not been successful for the very good reason that the season for pullet laying is now starting and any advance in the price at this time would simply mean more serious disaster to values within the near future. There are such big stocks of cold storage eggs on hand at this time that dealers must unload them.

Chickens are showing no change in price generally in the retail shops. Turkeys are available in some of the leading markets. Best dressed stock is pulling around 55c a pound generally, although some are selling No. 3 birds a fraction lower.

Butter is unchanged again. Soon Australian and New Zealand stock will come forward and this is expected to beat prices down somewhat. For some reason unknown there has been an unusually small demand for oleomargarine this season, consumers willingly paying the price for butter.

Cabbage prices are now very low and the quality unusually good. Fine time for kraut making.

Retail prices in private stores:
Eggs—40 @ 65c.
Butter—Fresh creamery, 30 @ 35c.
Bacon—10 @ 20c; halibut, 25c; perch, 10c; sturgeon, 25c lb.
Four—Best local patent, $1.90 @ 2.00 per sack, 49 lbs.
Potatoes—Burbank, $3 per sack.
Onions—3 @ 6c lb.
Yamhill street prices:
Vegetables—Cabbage, 3c lb.; cauliflower, 10 @ 20c head; carrots, 3c bunch; lettuce, 10c head; dry onions, 4 1/2c lb.; tomatoes, 4c lb.; string beans, 10c lb.; apples, 5c lb.; tomatoes, 3c lb.; corn, 20 @ 50c doz.

Honey—Comb, 35c; quart, 70c; pint, 35c.
Foultry—Heavy hens, 82c; light hens, 26c; broilers, 35c.
Eggs—Best, 60c doz.
Butter—Best, 45c lb.; cottage cheese, 20c lb.

New York Girls on Hike Reach Pacific

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 11.—Garbed in neat hiking costumes and carrying 40-pound packs on their backs, arranged to delight the critical eye of a "sour-dough," Miss Adelaide "Dixie" Wilson and Miss Maybelle "Jerry" Halstead, arrived here Wednesday night on a hiking trip from New York city, which, when completed, practically will circle the United States. They will remain here a week or two before starting down the coast to Los Angeles.
