

Portland Beaver President Swamped With Offers by Major Leaguers for Star Hurlers

Major Clubs Bidding for Two Hurlers

By George Berts

PRENEY BILL KLEPPER of the Portland Beavers is going to have a busy time at the annual meeting of the National Association of Minor Baseball Leagues at Buffalo, December 6, and the next couple of days that follow.

Upon his return from Los Angeles Saturday night, Bill had as much correspondence handed to him as he received by some football, basketball and baseball men who were interested in the two hurlers who were mentioned in the article in the Beaver of November 11.

Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club; Frank Navin of the Detroit Americans; and his chief scout, Eddie Herr, sent messages to the Beaver head regarding these two hurlers, while Danny Lonn, former manager of the San Francisco Seals, who is scouting for the White Sox, put in a big bid for Johnson.

Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit club, who is playing winter baseball in California, talked with Klepper in San Francisco about Pilette and Johnson, and also put in a request for Marty Krug.

Klepper believes that he will have no trouble lining up good deals for the two Beaver hurlers. The club that makes the best trade offer for the hurlers will get them. What Klepper wants in players in exchange for these two hurlers.

ISLER LIKES COX

There is also a possibility of Dick Cox going to the majors. George Sisler, who is doing a little scouting for the St. Louis Browns, believes that Cox is the best looking major league fly-chasing prospect on the coast. Cox has been hitting the ball at a terrific clip in the winter league, while the Weller has started to whang the ball at a good rate.

Eddie Herr intimated that Portland could obtain several several players, including a pitcher, who would be a valuable addition to the team. Herr is undecided which catchers of the three now in Portland's reserve list he will hold. "Rip" King, the big recruit, is almost sure to report to the President's training camp grounds, but whether Baker or Fisher will be taken south remains to be seen.

CATCHERS AVAILABLE

It is certain that Portland will have a new first string catcher, and it is quite likely that the second string catcher will be secured. Sacramento is going to put "Howdy" Elliott on the market. "Tub" Spencer is to be released by Seattle. Los Angeles may let Oscar Stange go, or it appears that a new catcher is going to the Angels from the Cubs.

MANAGER NOT CHOSEN

Klepper is undecided about the new manager of the Beavers. He is hopeful of landing Bill Kenworthy, although the prospects of landing "Duke" do not appear as bright now as they did a couple of weeks ago.

In addition to Kenworthy, Klepper is considering Bill Rodgers, former Portland captain, who is likely to be replaced as manager of the Sacramento club by Charley Plk. "Rowdy" Elliott is also listed among the prospects.

Others who are being considered are Joe Devine, who managed the Calgary team of the Western Canada league last season; Marty Krug, captain of the Beavers; Bert Niehoff of the Los Angeles club; and James H. Johnson, the most popular outfielder who ever played on a Beaver club, is also in the running for the position.

The question of a manager may be settled before Klepper goes East during the latter part of next week to attend the national association meeting. He will return Tuesday morning from Seattle to arrange for offices, and also open negotiations for the lease of the Vaughn street grounds.

Practically every Coast league club will be represented at the minor gathering. Del Howard of the Oakland club is en route to the East, and others are due to depart this week.

Rowing Club Meeting To Be Held Tonight

Every member in good standing is expected to be on hand at the annual meeting of the Portland Rowing club scheduled to start at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Besides the most important matters to be discussed will be the moving situation. The club may be called on to move from its present location at the foot of Ivvon street to its new property just south of the east approach of the Sellwood ferry within the next two months instead of early spring as originally planned.

Large fields of iron ore, similar to that of Cuba and the Philippines have been discovered in the Dutch East Indies.

Washington Winning in Japan Tour

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, baseball team, now in Japan, has won 9 of the 13 games it has played to date, according to Fred Hamada, a former Washington student and member of the Seattle Japanese ball team, now in Japan, who returned to Seattle Saturday.

The four games lost have been to Waseda University, the team that toured this country last spring. On this tour Washington defeated Waseda in a five-game series, three games to two.

Washington has played seven games with Waseda on the present tour, winning three. Two more games will be played this week before the Sun-doggers return. Seven games of the nine games Washington has won were shutouts, the other two being won by large scores.

Frank Setzer, second string pitcher during the regular 1921 collegiate season, has been pitching star on the present trip. Setzer has won all his games. Ralph Leonard, first string pitcher, has pitched in hard luck throughout the trip, the breaks in all his games going against him.

Perry Land, utility catcher, has caught all of the games on the present trip except one. Gilbert Maloney, regular catcher, has been sick and unable to hit most of the trip.

Hamada brings word that the Sun-doggers will return to this country on December 18.

THREE more games remain to be played in the Pacific Coast-Intercollegiate football conference. Two of these battles will be staged Saturday, Oregon and its rivals of 27 years—the Aggies—tangling on the Hayward gridiron at Eugene and the Bears clashing with the Stanford team in the Palo Alto stadium. The remaining game will be played Thanksgiving day at Seattle between the University of Washington and Washington State College.

BEARS FAVORITES
California is a top heavy favorite over the Cardinals as the result of its lopsided victory over the Washington team last Saturday. The Bears ran amuck in the game, scoring at will and piling up a score of 35 points in the last quarter.

The Cardinals, however, are expected to put up a fight. The Palo Altoans were evidently in a slump. They will, no doubt, be on edge for a bitter struggle against the Bears.

The Oregon-O. A. C. contest promises to be a battle. The stock of the Aggies slumped considerably as the result of the defeat at the hands of the Cougars, and Coach Lutherford is face to face with the problem of rebuilding his team's offensive for the big game.

Coach Huntington's men have had a rest of a week and all players on the squad are in good shape for the game. The Oregon mentor will drill his players with a hope of perfecting his offensive.

CLUB TO PLAY SOLDIERS
Tickets for the Oregon-O. A. C. game are on sale at Spaulding and Meier & Frank's. Indications are that hundreds of Portland football followers will take in the game.

The Multnomah club squad is being groomed for the Ninth Army team, which will play here Saturday. The camp will start here Saturday. The camp will start here Saturday.

Bachelors Annex City Grid Honors By Its Team Work

ONE of the largest crowds that ever assembled witnessed the independent football game in Portland saw the St. Johns Bachelors' club eleven defeat the Arleta Athletic club representatives, 12 to 6, on the Franklin high grounds Sunday afternoon. The match settled the 1921 championship of the Portland Football League.

Two drop kicks by Whalen and a touchdown by Eugene Hiatt counted the Bachelors points, while Arleta scored its six markers by virtue of a touchdown by Hoke. Whalen got in his boots in the second period after St. Johns had worked the ball to the Arleta 10-yard line on two occasions. Soon after the start of the second half, an exchange of punts was made and the Bachelors fumbled the ball. Hoke came racing along, picked up the pigskin and dashed 30 yards to the goal line. Hallier missed a goal kick.

With the score a tie, Arleta resorted to punting to keep the ball out of its territory. It was after one of Rolly Jones' 50-yard boots that "Butt" the Bachelors won a piece of head-work which resulted in the winning touchdown. Jones' punt sailed over Bigelow's head and the St. Johns started to recover the ball on his own 10-yard line. Just as an Arleta end started to tackle him, Bigelow made a return punt. Eugene Hiatt, coach and player, recovered the ball and started for the Arleta goal line. The attempt at goal kick hit the crossbar and bounced away from the uprights.

Big 10 Title Race Likely To End in Tie

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—(I. N. S.)—If only the schedule makers of the Big Ten could have foreseen the course of 1921 football events and arranged for Ohio and Iowa to meet next Saturday in the closing game of the season, what a fantastic finish it would have been for a studiously successful year.

But the schedule makers did not foresee, and probably would not have cared if they had, so the season will dribble out this week-end with the two greatest elevens in the conference playing teams they are almost certain to defeat and a couple of teams that are out of the running for the title furnishing what is expected to be the feature battle.

ILLINOI MAY SURPRISE
Ohio, with four victories to its credit, should make it five in a row next Saturday, with Illinois as the victim. Illinois, however, threw a stiff scare into Chicago last Saturday, holding the long end 6 to 0 at the end of the first half, and may make the going rough for the Buckeyes. Zuppke has his men fighting hard and the team that meets Ohio should be even better than the one that played Chicago.

CORNHUSKERS LEAD
Wisconsin and Chicago should furnish the real feature game next Saturday. Chicago was beaten by Ohio and is out of the title fight, and Wisconsin held to a 7-7 tie by Michigan Saturday, which blighted the championship hopes of the Badgers. These two teams are bitter rivals, however, and are certain to stage a furious struggle.

Purdue and Indiana will meet at Bloomington in a game that will hold interest for thousands of Indiana fans. Michigan and Minnesota will wind up the season at Ann Arbor.

While the championship of the Big Ten is likely to remain a matter for argument long after the close of the season, the championships of the Missouri valley conference and the Pacific coast are virtually settled. If Nebraska beats Ames next Saturday, which is expected, the Cornhuskers will have a clear claim to the title.

Penn State Squad Football Record Held to Be the Best

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(I. N. S.)—Five teams remained in the field of contenders for the mythical Eastern football championship today. Penn State, Yale, La Fayette, W. and J. Cornell have not tasted defeat this season, and it is more than likely that at least four of the five will come through with clean slates.

Of the contenders on this side of the Alleghenies, Penn State looks best. Hugo Beszdek's eleven has gone through a harder schedule than any of the others, and outside of one little blot on its record—the tie with Harvard—stands out today as the strongest team in the East.

Cornell, adding another victory and 14 more points to her tally last week, is leading the teams of the country today as a scoring machine with a total of 251 Georgia Tech, with 145, is second and leads the South. Notre Dame, with 106, is third and leads the West, while California heads the Pacific coast with 235 points.

Similarly, Washington and Jefferson, which is no mean aggregation of players, sent Glen Warner's Pittsburg dreams a-glimmering.

This leave two teams which, however scooped at by the proponents of big three-men, can point to actual records in the field as proof of their superiority over anything else the East can produce. The two are Penn State and Lafayette. The third, Yale, might be considered had Yale played a schedule approximately 18.2 balking line billiard tournament at the Congress hotel.

The second match of the tournament, is to be played tomorrow afternoon with Ora Morningstar opposing Edouard Horemans, the Belgian; Jake Schaeffer and George Sutton will meet in the second match of the afternoon. Willie Hoppe is the favorite to retain his title with Schaeffer regarded as the likely runner up.

Boardman Students Build Sport Courts

BOARDMAN, Nov. 14.—At the annual school budget meeting Saturday all members were accepted with the exception of one for the construction of a gymnasium. It was, however, voted to provide material for a basketball and tennis floor outdoors, the boys of the school to do the construction work.

Football in East Showing Up Champions

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Eastern football situation is clearing up. Saturday's games went far to settle the claims of many aspirants to the mythical championship and definitely eliminated from consideration some of the most powerful contenders.

The Penn State-Navy game, a surprise, ended once for all the Midway claims as unbeatable eleven, and very nearly the same time advanced Penn State's claims by that much more. Penn State stands as the most highly developed machine in the East. Even though Yale was beat Harvard, which, on the face of past results appears probable, the present glory of the team that won a moral victory over Harvard, and a very material one over Georgia Tech, cannot be disputed.

Similarly, Washington and Jefferson, which is no mean aggregation of players, sent Glen Warner's Pittsburg dreams a-glimmering.
