

Striking Scenes in Washington on Armistice Day, When the Nation Honored Its Unknown Dead in the Great War

Upper left, the body of America's unknown hero being borne down the Capitol steps on the last part of the journey to the Arlington amphitheatre; right, general view of the burial, showing General Pershing, Secretary of War Weeks and other high officials in the foreground. Center, left, President Harding and General Pershing arriving in front of the White House, where the president left the procession and entered the reviewing stand; in group, at left, Secretary Christian, Colonel Sherrill and Captain Holmes; right, President and Mrs. Harding entering the White House grounds after the president had walked from the Capitol, down Pennsylvania avenue. He later left for Arlington by automobile. Below, left, former President Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Wilson as they were leaving the procession; right, Mr. Wilson being assisted from his home to greet the thousands who surrounded his house and gave him an ovation in the afternoon.

Seminary Professors Unorthodox, Charge Hurlled by Committee

(By United News)
Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 15.—Charges that several professors at Dubuque university, the Presbyterian theological seminary at Dubuque, Iowa, are unorthodox and are guilty of such heresies as teaching the Darwinian theory, were aired in the executive commission of the general Presbyterian assembly in session here.

at the convention in Des Moines next May.

to throw out Germans connected with the university, which was founded by German Presbyterians 70 years ago, adding, however, that during the war one German had been removed for what was considered treasonable utterance.

Grande; J. A. Knight, Elgin; Mrs. M. E. Ketelsen, Yakima, Wash.; W. H. Burnett, Portland; Roy A. Baker, Hot Lake; A. A. Steel, Parma, Idaho; Mrs. W. F. Edria, Spokane; R. G. Bennett, Pendleton; Mrs. J. L. Stephenson, Asotin, Wash.

He who boasts of his goodness is seldom much good.

Pastor Opposes Move to Close Sunday 'Movies'

Newark, N. J., Nov. 15.—(United News)—People go to movies on Sunday because they can't get what they want at church, declared the Rev. Henry Rose at a lecture at the Church of the Redeemer, Universalist.

"To close motion picture houses on Sunday would be a calamity," said the pastor, announcing opposition to the movement of the Federation of Churches to enforce the Sabbath closing laws with respect to the theatre.

Mother Theresa, Founder of Local Hospital, Is Dead

Mother Mary Theresa, who founded St. Vincent's hospital in Portland in 1874, died in Montreal recently, according to word received by sisters in the hospital.

Mother Theresa came to Portland during her early 30s and established St. Vincent's hospital at its first location at Twelfth and Marshall streets. Its capacity, then was about 75 patients.

Milwaukee Boasts Of First Man to Crack Volstead Act

(By Unusual Service)
Milwaukee, Nov. 15.—Cheers greeted the first man to legally buy beer here since the Volstead act became effective when he emerged from a drug store with a case on his shoulder today.

News that medicinal beer was to be on sale here at Mrs. E. B. Pliszozek's drug store attracted a long line of prescription holders before the liquor was delivered from the brewery.

As soon as the truck drove up the store became a busy place. The first allotment was quickly sold out. This was the first beer sale in the United States under the new arrangement.

Portland to Get Coast Vocational Education Meet

Salem, Nov. 15.—The next annual conference on vocational education for the Pacific States region will be held in Portland during the second week in June, 1922, according to H. M. Skidmore, representing the federal board for vocational education, who has been in Salem checking up on vocational education activities in Oregon.

Oregon stands at the top of all states in the country in the percentage of increase in the number of new departments of vocational agriculture organized and in the enrollment of students, Skidmore said.

Legal Means for Corporation Fee Collection Cited

Salem, Nov. 15.—The state corporation department has recourse to the courts in an action at law for the collection of unpaid corporation fees due from a foreign corporation operating within the state since 1913 without ever having paid its fees, according to an opinion prepared by Attorney General Van Winkle for Corporation Commissioner Handley.

In an opinion to T. H. Goynes, district attorney of Tillamook county, Van Winkle holds that counties are authorized by law to maintain and conduct county fairs at county expense.

COREY URGES AITCHISON
Salem, Nov. 15.—Reappointment of Clyde B. Aitchison as a member of the interstate commerce commission at the expiration of his present term on January 1 is urged by H. H. Corey, member of the Oregon public service commission, in a letter forwarded to President Harding, Monday.

U. S. DENTIST
264 1/2 WASHINGTON STREET
Corner Second—In the Same Location.
"A PERSONAL SERVICE HONESTLY"
Has made many friends for this office. Our small overhead expense in this location allows us to do high-class dental work at small fees.
Set of Teeth $8.00
Our Work is Fully Guaranteed.

Cuticura Soap
—Is Ideal for—
The Complexion
Keeps Outbreaks of Skin Diseases from Returning Solely Prepared by Cuticura Laboratories, Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

GIRLS! SKIRTS
DOWN ONE INCH
Fashion decrees that skirts come closer to the ground, but that is no reason why one need buy new clothes. If the hem is faded or soiled when you let it out, get a package of Diamond Dyes and recolor the skirt like new.
Easy directions in each package of Diamond Dyes tell you how to dye or tint any old, faded garment, also your draperies. Just tell druggist whether your material is wool or silk or whether it is cotton, linen, or mixed goods.—Adv.

IRRIGATION PLAN DISCUSSED
Salem, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the Glacier Irrigation company were in consultation with State Engineer Cupper, Monday afternoon, relative to the organization of a drainage district, comprising some 4000 acres in the upper Hood River valley, to be irrigated with water taken from Sand creek and Fall creek, tributaries to the east fork of Hood River.

DIES READING PAPER
Harrisburg, Or., Nov. 15.—Z. T. Scott died Monday seated in his chair reading a paper. He was 74 years old and had lived in this vicinity for 45 years. Mrs. J. B. Colburn of this city, a daughter, and a son reside at Marcola.