

JUST 32 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS—NO MATTER WHERE YOU SHOP, SHOP EARLY

Miss Simmons Is Coming to Teach Parchment Shade Making

We have arranged to give patrons, through a class in parchment shade making now being formed, an opportunity to receive from Miss Dorothy Simmons, noted New York artist, personal instruction in selecting, applying and mixing colors. The work is fascinating and is so arranged that no knowledge of drawing and painting is necessary. There will be morning and afternoon lessons. No charge for instruction. The number of applications that can be received is necessarily limited. Please register at once.—Seventh Floor.

Symphony Hall—Our New Piano Salon
Invites You to Hear the Ampico

There is a double pleasure in store: the pure unalloyed delight of hearing the Ampico—the marvelous reproducing piano which recreates the world's musical masterpieces—and the pleasure, second only to that, of hearing it under the ideal conditions made possible by Symphony Hall. We invite you to hear the Ampico in the celebrated Knabe and other famous pianos here into which the Ampico has been introduced. Informal musicales daily in Symphony Hall. Ask for a selection by your favorite pianist.—Sixth Floor.

Tricotine and Velour de Laine Suits Special

$39.50

Modes of the Moment

We emphasize the qualities, for they best emphasize the price. These are distinguished suits of excellent tricotine and velour de laine, bespeaking in the manner of their designing and workmanship a notably higher pricing, to say nothing of the splendid furs with which many are beautified—these of the fashionable wolf, mole, squirrel and opossum. There are also modish suits with embroidery that will endear themselves to women who have their own furs. Shades are those in highest favor—voliny, brown, taupe, navy, French blue and black. Sizes for women and misses.

Those Lovely Model
Gowns at $75

will soon bid their adieu, but women who come in tomorrow will be captivated by the beauty of these remaining masterpieces from America's most famous designer.
