

COMEDY OF ERROR AND NEAR TRAGEDY ENMESH 3 MEN

E. A. Wheelless, 584 Liberty street, and H. R. Seekatz, 1254 East Seventh street, went a-hunting and a-fishing Wednesday. All they got were one duck and 11 decoy ducks and a charge of trespassing placed against them.

The day started tamely when they cast their lines into the water from a bridge adjoining the Joseph Paquet game reserve near Burlington. Fish were not biting and the sportsmen lost interest somewhat and allowed their eyes to rove over the luxurious bottom lands of Columbia slough.

What finally held their gaze and brought rapture to the souls of these sportsmen was a covey of ducks, barely perceptible, nesting in the bushes. They appeared to be nice fat ducks and how quiet they squatted, ignorant stupid—their fate was near.

DUCKS IMPERVIOUS
Wheelless and Seekatz reached for their shotguns.

Bang-bang! Bang-bang! Bang-bang! The ducks seemed somewhat buffeted by the deadly shot, but a head fell nor was a dignified squat position altered. Nor did a frightened bird take to the air.

Action came from another direction, however. Leo Fisher, alert watchman on the Paquet reserve, brandishing a revolver, sped to the scene.

"You fellows are shooting at our tame ducks and trying to ruin our decoys," he said, as he forced Wheelless and Seekatz to get into their automobile and, leaving the dented decoys and one regular duck in the swamp, drive to Portland.

Fisher, intent upon his job, kept his revolver pointed at the pair during the ride to the city.

ALL TAKEN TO JAIL

"Hey, what kind of a party is this?" he said. He took all three to the station where they were held on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Fisher was released when he told his story. But he was rearrested when Wheelless conveyed a message to Deputy Sheriff W. Smith charging him with shooting holes in his automobile with his revolver and again he was set free. There is no charge against him. Wheelless and Seekatz are held to answer a trespassing charge under bonds of $25 each.

Tillamook Hunter Suicide, Is Verdict Of Coroner's Jury

Tillamook, Nov. 17.—The coroner's jury, which investigated the circumstances of the death of Roy Ward, killed while bear hunting with Walter Winters, brought in a verdict Wednesday, finding that Ward's death was caused by a gunshot wound in the head, inflicted by Ward after he had been shot through the body by Winters, Sunday. The verdict expressly exonerated Winters but recommended that Winters, who is 16 years of age, be restrained from the use of firearms until after he has reached the age of 21 years.

The jury spent two days investigating the case, including a trip to the scene of the tragedy. The facts developed at the inquest are that Ward and Winters started on a bear hunting expedition Friday, Sunday morning they started up the gulch through which Flat creek runs, one on each side of the stream. Winters saw what he thought was a bear, fired and hit Ward, who was crawling through the brush. The bullet entered Ward's breast, passing downward through his liver and intestines. Winters rushed to Ward, took Ward's gun and started for help. About 70 feet from Ward he dropped the latter's rifle in the trail. When he returned with the rescue party Ward was found near the place where his gun had been left, shot through the head. Medical testimony was that Ward would have died from the first wound. The jury decided that after Winters left him, Ward crawled down the trail to where his gun lay and, realizing he was mortally wounded, killed himself.

Let Children Vote

Offer them plain bread or raisin bread. See which they select, and why

Some day, soon, do this: Offer raisin bread and plain bread, side by side, to your boy or girl. Note how the little hand at once selects the bread with raisins. The flavor first attracts them—they know the deliciousness of raisins. Unconsciously they know too that these raisins are good for them. Every normal child craves sweets naturally, and should have them. Here are Nature's own sweets, the kind they should have—practically pre-digested and rich in vital iron. The iron builds up healthy blood—lasting vitality for play or study. Children need but a small lot of iron daily, yet that seed is vital. Healthful foods sometimes must be forced on children. Not so raisin bread. They choose it for themselves. Just try and see. Delicious raisin bread and raisin pie are sold by bake shops and groceries everywhere. Buy of them to save baking at home. Real Raisin Bread is made with lots of raisins. Insist on it. First-class bakers do not stint.

SUN-MAID RAISINS

less (grown without seeds); Clusters (on the stem). Also a fine, ever-ready dessert. Raisins are cheaper by 30 per cent than formerly—see that you get plenty in your foods.
