COST LOWERING BAD MEDICINE, BUT THEY MUST TAKE IT DOWN PRICE MOVEMENT IN BONDS SINCE 1915

Business dispatches received within the last 24 hours show that a great number of manufacturing industries have sulped down their medicine and are on the mend. Railroads have followed suit, although they choked over the pill. Lowerof wages, although no business, senemic from lack of profits, can support either capital or labor. Lower costs means increased efficiency, better management and the raising of the individual standard of production. Manufacturers and business men have found this out. Many are maintaining capacity production with working forces less than those formerly required to produce capacity. Sales organizations have been improved and overhead

The agriculturists, however, are still sick and cries of pain are arising from them in every section of the country. Until foreign demand has returned to normal, through the readjustment of exchange rates, there is only one remedy for the farmers—the cutting of costs. has returned to normal, through the readjustment of exchange rates, there is only one remedy for the farmers—the cutting of costs.

One of the largest wool growers in the West, who is now in New York, outlined today the situation of the farmer and the stock grower.

"I lost $50,000 this year," he said, "but it was my own fault. The trouble with the sheep business is that too much sheep herding is being done from automobiles."

That same situation exists for the whest grower, the corn raiser and the cotton planter. Profits can be made to flow if costs are cut, and those who are sick enough of the present situation to want to get well, are realizing that fact and taking their medicine. That is one of the most encouraging symptoms of the complete recovery of business health in this country that has developed in the last six months.

ONDITIONS MENDING

Railroads have resumed purchase of material and equipment and this has been followed by resumption of equipment plants and increase of enployment. Bond Market Spurt Brings Scramble by Dealers to Purchase

With a runaway market now facing them, dealers in municipal and other high-grade bonds are in a wild acramble to purchase securities acceptable to their clients, according to F. A. Freeman of the Freeman, Smith & Camp com-Freeman of the Freeman. Smith & Camp com-pany, who is now in Chicago on business for In a letter to his company Freeman reports that while the advancing market was not unexpected, increase in bond prices came so rapidly that dealers are cleaned out of bonds which they had on hand. Now there is a keen rivalry among dealers in the East and Middle west in the purchasing of new issues.

One of the best indications of the so-called runaway market was the unprecedented success of the recent $50,000,000 lean of the New York Telephane company. The bonds, which earry 6 per cent interest coupons, were offered to the public at 97 ½ and were quickly oversubscribed. The statement is made that the syndicate which handled the issue received 68,000 sub-criptions, aggregating $488,000.

ing marked improvement as the result of the assistance received through the War Finance corporation, according to Eugene Meyer Jr hand, as can be done with the leather bag, the prospective purchaser has nothing but the word of the salesman by which to gauge his judgment, and the salesman's stock of circulars and illustrative pamphlets mean nothing. If he is selling oil, he will probably show you prints of gushers, veritable fountains of oil springing joyfully from the breast of Mother Nature. Or if it be coal, he may show you interesting leads and speak in superlative terms of favorable geological conditions. "They promise high rates of interest, huge dividends, enormous and quick returns, and if the prospect admits that he has no ready cash the salesman suggests that he trade in his Liberty bonds. In this way $125,000,000 in Liberty bonds were traded for worthless stock in the year of 1920.

New Capital Issues Are Less This Year Than in Oct., 1920

New capital issues announced by American ailroad, industrial and public utility corporations during October indicate a total value of only $103,148,500 This compares with $338,-793,300 in the corresponding month a year ago.

The grand total was made up principally of new industrial securities and railroad bonds. Since the calling off of the railroad strike a number of conferences have been held between officials of large corporations and heads of prominent banking institutions, which, it is believed, will lead up to the placing of an increased volume of new securities in the early future, par-ticularly in view of the favorable prospects for
