game, the collegians went into the consnow and sleet storms in other sections test with a determination to put a red of the state inflicted a great amount of mark on the club's record for this sea-

Loughlin, who lacks the weight of Calison, but who is a fighter, will play center, and Leslie will start at tackle; but in case his hand bothers him. Huntington will probably call upon Strachan to step into Leslie's place. Multnomah is outweighing Oregon by many pounds, but weight does not mean much in modern football. Coach Huntington may depend a good deal on the forward pass and open sivle of play against the club men, provided the ball does not get too slippery. Huntington has a new formation for this contest, which he says is the only new play introduced on the coast since the days of "Lonestar" Dietz.
