Pacific Coast Colleges May Seek Intersectional Football Contests for 1922 Season

Sectional Grid Games Are Sought

DACIFIC coast football followers are going to see some high class intersectional games during the coming sea-

The remarkable success of these games during past seasons has resulted in an effort to bring out three Middle West or Eastern teams to the Pacific coast this year, as well as schedule games for the California's hopes of playing the Yale team in the Stanford stadium have been blasted, the plan having been rejected by the Bulldog authorities. The Bears, however, have their wires out for other teams, and, if unsuccessful in lining up a game of their own, they will undoubt-edly accept the proposition to play at

BEARS WANT MATCH

The Pasadena Tournament committee is endeavoring to secure a representative Eastern or Middle West team to come to the Pacific coast, and it would not be surprising if the lowa team, champions of the "Big Ten." accepted the invitation, Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson are two of the strongest teams in the Eastern circles which are left in the running following the refusal of Penn State. Hugo Bezdek's champions, to consider a second game on the Pacific coast.

The post-season game at Seattle last year between Dartmouth and the Sun Dodgers was a wonderful success, and next week's game between the Penn Staters and Washington is expected to establish a Northwest football attend-

ILLINI WOULD PLAY

Washington will endeavor to bring another Eastern team to the Pacific coast next year, and it would not be surprising if either Oregon or O. A. C. billed a postbeason battle on Multnomah field.

The University of Illinois and California may arrange a home and home game mehedule for 1922 and 1923. According to word from Urbana, Ill., Illini is willing to arrange to play the Bears in Chicago next fall and come to the coast in 1923. San Francisco has invited the Notre Dame team to the coast New Year's day to play the Pacific Fleet eleven. Center college has already accepted an invitation to play at Pasadena, but just what team will oppose the Kentuckians has not been decided upon. Football in this part of the country is every bit as good as it is in the East.

Club Cue Title Meet To Begin This Week

November 28 is the date set for the nament at Multnomah Amateur Ath-

The W. R. Seibert trophy cup will be icanized Ted Kid. awarded to the winner, to be held one year. Winning of the cup three times said Lynch. "Frank Moran licked him In five successive years will win per- so I reckon I can too." manent ownership of the Seibert cup. The player making the highest run in son the entire tournament will be awarded Billy Defoe of St. Paul, and Lynch to a gold "Winged M" medal. Porty-five games have been played and 43 are yet to be played in the annual straight rail billiards tournament after which will come the finals. This tournament will run for about three weeks more. The winner will hold the A. D. Walker trophy cup and winners in each class will be awarded jointed

Penn State Declines Trio of Grid Games

State College, Pa., Nov. 24.—(U. P.)—Post-season intersectional football games with the University of California, Centre college and Notre Dame have been declined with regrets by the Penn State athletic authorities. The state team leaves for Seattle after the Pitt game tomorrow to meet and Coach Bezdek declared that the training and saholastic strain would be too great for the players to seriously consider the offers.

Wrestling Matches to match at Myrtle Creek last night Warner promoter might have been disgraced but for the fact that thousands of people Be Held in Gresham head the wrestling card to be held at Siegrist in five minutes by a trick fall key's ball park, Chicago, years ago Gresham Friday night. John Videhoff and was given the decision of Portland and "Red" Nutting of Gres ham will enter the ring at 145 pounds it the final bout of the evening, while Oscar Butler and Charles Olson will be seen in the first main event. Olso claims the middleweight championship of Canada, and he is ready to defend his title any time. Two preliminary bouts site on the program which is being ar-ranged and promoted by Ad Garlock.

football team is claiming the 1921 championship for freshman elevens of Portland as well as the 115-pound independent title. Captain-Manager Spencer Houghton's squad has won four games, the last victory being a 7 to 0 affair over the Jefferson high freshmen on Multnoman field Tuesday afternoon. The Baby Railsplitters defeated the Hill Military scademy juniors, 48 to 0 : Hawthorne distriet, 14 to 7; Arleta Grammar school champions of the Portland Grammar School league, 19 to 7, and Jefferson freshmen. For games with the Lincoln freshmen call Main 7549 and ask for Spencer Houghton. Frank Mimnaugh was the big star for the losers last Tues-

ANSWER TO QUERY G. R. D., Brownsville, Or.-Rule 6 section 15, covers your question. It is, "A touchback is made when the ball in possession of a player guarding his own goal is declared dead by the referee, any part of it being on, above or behind the goal, provided the impetus which sent it to or across the line was given by an opponent." Ruling of official in declaring such a play a safety should not stand.

-HOLIDAY-TURKEY SHOOT American Rifle Range 430 Wash. St.

Young Jake Schaefer Uncrowns World's Famous Billiard Champ Winged 'M' Is Son of Famous Cue Veteran Victorious Over Willie Hoppe

Chaney and Lynch Will Go to England For Ring Battles

(By United News) New York, Nov. 24 .- Andy Chaney the Baltimore featherweight, and Joe Lynch, former bantamweight champion, pet bags and weigh out of here for Eng- | News Staff Correspondent | New YORK, Nov. 24.—Tex Rickard, world famous first

Chaney is to fight Joe Fox, British featherweight champion, whom he once start of the star pocket billiards tour- had the pleasure of knocking out in Hartford, and Lynch yearns for the letic club to determine the club chamble, the latter being Britain's best banplonship. Entrants are being signed up for this event. All games will be society of Jimmy Wilde or Tommy Nofor 100 points and there will be no han- but above that class, to the light heavyweights, all titles are held by the Amer-

"I want to challenge Joe Beckett," CHAMPS TURN ON HIM

Both are on this week's card at Madi-Square Garden, Chaney to fight box Midget Smith of New York.

BASKETBALL

36 TO 8 walloping was handed to the A United States National bank basketball team by the Columbians of the Portland Young Men's Christian Asso-ciation in the association's gymnasium Wednesday night. The great work of Oliver was responsible for the victory while Chase was the best scorer for the

Bankers.	The t	meups
Columbian	(36		U.S.	Nat. Ba	nk (8)
Andres (6)		F			Nami
Radcliffe (8)	A 4 2 4 1	F		(Has
Oliver (18)					W
Feike		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	arrana arran	orona il	4) Ch
Patterson (2	1	G.			Ma
Patterson (2 Lewis (2)		Spar	e	12	Berk
Grilley	- 1 - 5 -	Spar		755
			-

The South Parkway Amateur Athletic club basketball team will work out Sunday morning in the Neighborhood Washington university on December 3, House gymnasium, Second and Woods streets, starting at 10 o'clock. All the players are requested to be on hand.

TRICK FALL WINS

Roseburg, Nov. 24.-In a wrestling Cedarstrom of Roseburg. The match suspected that Pesek had been "sent in" was for the welterweight championship to sour the exhibition. of Southern Oregon. The two men were

Tex Rickard Face to Face

By Westbrook Pegler United News Staff Correspondent

land right soon, to collect anything in wizard who overcame apparently inthe way of ring titles that Ted Kid superable obstacles to put on the Jef-Lewis has not picked up on the other fries - Johnson, Willard - Dempsey and Dempsey-Carpentier fights, is now fighting a harder scrap than any champion and Ralph Snoddy had been withdrawn ever fought in any of his many arenas. Two trusts are trying to smash Rickard. One wants to throw him out of the fight game, which he has elevated ized by the ladies and gents of the avenue, which means Avenue V, not pions respectively, will not fight for trust. Rickard Johnny Wilson the technical middleweight champion, than whom there is none more awful and never can be, is barred by Rickard, but has joined

Leonard and Britton. A great many non-champion fighters. but good cards just the same, are reported to be stringing with these champions to break Rickard for various personal reasons. That's one trust,

Then there is the wrestling trust. FIRST BOUT A JOB

Monday night somebody "sent in" a faker to make a farce of Rickard's first attempt at promoting in the wrestling proved to be a graceful quitter when game in New York. John Pesek, the Pesek started after him. Nebraska farmer, former comrade of Strangler Lewis and other trust wrestlers, entered the ring to wrestle Marvin Plestina, the Italian, with a lame elbow and without any training at all. Pesek knew he couldn't wrestle for a fall, but said he might be able to make Plestina quit by roughing him. Pesek was disqualified three times for gouging and resorting to other atrocious tactics, and the last time the disthe characteristics of a trust enterprise.

CURLEY HEADS ONE TRUST Rickard's show was ruined and the promoter might have been disgraced but

The head of the wrestling trust is

Thirteen Drivers in L. A. Auto Classic Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 24.-(I. N. S.)

speedway classic at the Los Angeles speedway.

In spite of showers during the night and low lying clouds this morning, the day night drivers asserted they would take their chances. It was expected the track would be thoroughly dried by the time the race was to begin.

Fifteen drivers were entered in the riginal list, but those of Don Fretwell early teday, leaving the following starters: Eddie Hearne, Tommy Milton, Frank Elliott, Ralph De Palma, Joe Thomas, Roscoe Sarles, Eddie Mil-seemed to be rousing exhibitions, but along toward the end of the season people became suspicious. Strangler Lewis, ple became suspicious. Strangler Lewis, Recruit Gets Bigger Benny Leonard and Jack Britton, Joe Stecher, Earl Caddock and Stanislightweight and welterweight cham- laus Zbyszco were the big stars of the

This season Curley has been unable o get an armory in which to put his bouts and, with the wrestling game newly placed under the supervision of the state athletic commission, he has not even applied for a license to promote

PESEK BARRED

Rickard saw the opportunity to promote big wrestling bouts, for a starter signing Pesek, a sort of hanger-on with the trust, to meet Plestina, who has been saying for two years that the trust

Plestina's manager is under suspension pending investigation of some aspects of his past. Pesek has been "barred for all time"

by the athletic commission Rickard is through with wrestling now, but he is also up against it hard for good fight attractions for good fight attractions

Benny Leonard, in boycotting Tex. claims that Rickard refused to give the Garden to some Hebrew charity in qualification "took" because the referee which Leonard was interested, although jumped out of the ring and refused to the Irish got it for their shindy. Rickbe further connected with what had all ard says he didn't refuse Leonard, but nevertheless there's a war on against

TWO DEATHS AT NORTH BEND North Bend, Nov. 24 .- Mrs. Ruby As-She is survived by her husband, two Curley's many shows here last year all brain fever after several weeks illness. | will be watched with keen interest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, now fighting With Trusts Defying the world famous hoodoo, 13 drivers will start this afternoon in the welterweights, will have his second fight 250 mile international championship in eight days, next Tuesday night, meeting George Ward of New Jersey in a charity show at the Garden. Benny beat Sailor Friedman in Philadelphia Tues-

Milwaukee, Nov. 24. — (I. N. S.)— it until V Johnny Buff, world's bantamweight champion, and Pal Moore, contender for STENGE the title, will meet in a championship bout here on December 15, it was announced today. The articles call for anteed $6000 for his end with an option of 35 per cent of the gross. Frank Mulkern will promote the match.

Paris, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Georges Carpentier, holder of the European neavyweight prizefighting championship, is ill at his training camp at Blois, senting a full share in the winning play- place. ers' pot. And the other check came to Jess Burkett, and called for $250. It was the "share" of the veteran coach and scout for the part he had in making the Giants world's champions by whipping wrestlers were boycotting him. Plestina their pitchers into line — making them proved to be a graceful quitter when pitch, and pitching won the series. Furkett wouldn't have got that, according to the story, except that John McGraw personally saw to it that he was remembered. A paltry $250 for Burkett and $5370.64 for a youngster pitcher.

Check Than Coach

Attempt Come-Back

New York, Nov. 24 .- Miss Fanny Durack of Australia, for many years undisputed champion woman swimmer of the world, who was defeated by American mermaids in 1918 and retired from competition the following season, is about return to activity. Word comes from kew of Powers died at Mercy hospital Sydney, her home town, that she is pre-Sunday night, following an operation. paring for the approaching Australian title tests and that she has accepted an evenly matched and wagers were at Jack Curley, promoter of the notorious sons and a daughter. Miss Vera Stalinvitation to attend the next water carmain event is scheduled to even money. Cedarstrom was thrown by Gotch-Hackenschmidt fake in Comis-Mrs. C. B. Stallard of Powers, died of lulu. Her attempt to effect a comeback

Olympic Club THREE out of the four inter-club box-ing and wrestling bouts between the Olympic club of San Francisco and the

Winner From

Multnomah Amateur Athletic club repsium Wednesday night were recorded as victories for the Portlanders. The ing in knockouts. Olympic club's lone victory came in forced to the canvass twice before Referee Ollie Dranga decided that the local boy was through. Walter Dellamore was the victor, and he clearly demonstrated event was in the 145-pound class, Clayat the end of three rounds with Herman Alpers. Frye continually kept his left hand in the Californian's face and only from taking the count.

HAMLIN GETS EVEN

Virgil Hamlin of Portland and Nathan Sosnovsky of San Francisco are even trust" which was believed responsible some action despite the fact tha now. The two met in the 135-pound for the foul work of John Pesek, which has had a weak eleven all season. vrestling division during the A. A. U. ruined Rickard's first attempt to prochampionships at Los Angeles last spring. Nate being awarded a decision which Hamlin believed should have come to the Oregon end of the program. The lau Zybysco, world champion wrestler, will defend the title against Strangler. two star matmen met again Wednesday will defend the title against Strangler night and Hamlin started right out to Lewis, from whom he won it last year even the score. He did. At the end of at Madison Square Garden next Montre 15 minutes of hard work he was day night, under Rickard's auspices. given the decision by Referee B F effort to overcome Hamlin's aggressive- throw the champion, but the referee closed with the games of last Saturday ess in the last three or four minutes will be instructed by the state athletic bring him the call.

In the other wrestling number on the merely to weaken his man. inter-club card, Frank Bolin made quick work of Ed Roper of San Francisco. Bolin won the fall in 4 minutes and 14 seconds. The surprise of the night was the defeat of Carl Freilinger of Multnomah by Paul Wilkinson, also of Mult-nomah, and formerly of the Washington high wrestling team. Freilinger took things easy for about seven minutes, and then he evidently did something that he shouldn't, for it put him on the de-fensive immediately. In the next minute his shoulders were touching the mat and he was the loser. Freilinger entered the ring with a weak ankle, and he forgot it until Wilkinson came upon him unex-

STENGEL IS WINNER

Bud Stengel, Multnomah's 125 pound Northwest boxing champion, was awarded the decision over Joe Blank of the 118 pounds ringside and Buff is guar- B'nai B'rith Amateur Athletic club, after three hard rounds. Stengel boxed in great form, but he found Blank a tougher customer than he had antici pated. Frank Sullivan of the Armory Amateur Athletic association knocked out Meyer Richenstein of the B. B. club in the second round.

All the contestants will be guests of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club at the annual Thanksgiving day football game against the University of Oregor on Multnomah field this afternoon.

BOY HAS LOCKJAW

Freewater, Nov. 24.-Keith Goithe. year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Goithe Two Worcester (Mass.) residents got fell on the hard surface road two weeks checks recently in the same mail. They ago and suffered several severe cuts. It represented their shares in the world was thought he was recovering until this week, when lockjaw set in and he series. Rosy Bill Ryan, a rookie pitcher, is now in a critical condition at the found that his called for $5370.64, repre- Walla Walla sanitarium at College

Eastmoreland Golf Club Board Is Nominated

The report of the nominating committee of the Eastmoreland Golf club was posted Thursday in the clubhouse by Victor A. Johnson, Pollowing are the municipal players nominated for the positions of directors of the club: J. M. Banchop, Ira F. Dond, W.

N. Gatens, George G. Irvine, A. A. Knowiton, A. B. McAlpin, E. L. Mersereau, W. D. Seamu and J. K. Shanks. T. Morris Dunne, A. D. Wakeman, J. L. DeHuff and R. S. Muckenzie served on the nominating committee with Chairman Johnson. The club election will be held between December 8 and 18 at the clubhouse, members placing their ballots in a box in the clubhouse.

Zybsyco to Defend Wrestling Crown

(By United News) New York, Nov. 24.—The dispute between Tex Rickard and the "wrestling of long standing and promised to develop Lewis will be permitted to use his fa-Sosnovsky made a desperate mous headlock in genuine attempts to the bout, but his spurt was too late commission to make him relax the hold should it appear that he is using it

> TECH TO PLAY CENTRE IN 1922 Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 24.-(I. N. 8.)leorgia Tech's football team has accepted an offer to play Centre college in Memphis next fall. The game probably will meet here for the national profeswill be staged November 11.

Big Eastern Teams to End Play Today ·

By Jack Velock International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov 24 - Football's most brilliant season virtually came to a clore today with the playing of Thanksgiving games.

The annual clash between the Army and Navy will be staged Saturday, along with a few scattering games that will mark the final gusps of dying schedules. FOUR BIG GAMES

Four big games featured the Eastern-Southern schedule, with Pitt meeting Penn State, Cornell tackling Pennsylvania, West Virginia facing Washington and Jefferson and Georgia Tech taking on Alameda Poly.

Other games brought Center college and Georgetown college together at Georgetown, Vanderbilt and University of the South at Nashville, Johns Hop-kins and W. & L. at Baltimore and Texas and the Texas Aggles at College station. Penn State, Cornell and W. & J. went out to keep their slates clean today. This trio, along with La Fayette, had not tasted defeat this season. The Cornell-Penn game at Philadelphia is a fixture some action despite the fact that Penn

The Pitt-Penn State joust was the real center of attraction, however. Defeat at the hands of Glen Warner's team will deprive Penn State of her rights to claim the Eastern title.

NOTRE DAME TO BATTLE MICHIGAN AGGIES SQUAD

Chicago, Nov. 24.-(L. N. S.)-Although the Big Ten football season officially Turkey day games will not be missing from Mid-West gridirons. Michigan Aggles and Notre Dame will provide one of the feature battles at South Bend. The annual Missouri-Kansas struggle and the Colorado Aggies at Nebraska are other games that hold in-terest for hundreds of fans. In professional football ranks the Buffalo All-Stars and the Staleys of Chicago

Overcoats Raincoats for Men and Young Men

Exceptional Quality at

· Men, here are garments of the same high Ben Selling quality at prices which will interest you; note how small an outlay you need to make for one of them: $25, $30, $35.

OVERCOATS in heavy tweed, motorings and novelty weavings; correctly designed in the prevailing modes; smartly tailored.

RAINCOATS in gabardines and rainproofed tweeds; garments light, yet warm, that will repel wind and dampness.

The Sooner Bought, the Longer Worn!

BEN SELLING

Leading Clothier - Morrison at Fourth

Sole Distributor Highland Heather Overcoats

