Both of his previous attempts at suicide have been by similar methods. Evans was sentenced to hang on December 2, but received a stay of execution until January 10 for the purpose of perfecting an appeal to the supreme court. He has repeatedly told prison guards that he wanted to die and have the orderl over with and is said to have opposed the move to appeal his case to the supreme court, which is being arranged by his wife.

fractionally lower.

Tire stocks held up during the first few minutes, Famous Players led the specialties with early sales above 72.

Northern Pacific made a new low on the decline at 80 %, which compares with the recent high at 84 %. Canadian Pacific was off % at 120. The St. Paul issues and Pennsylvania were still heavy.

Traders sold stocks short almost from the outset, but many issues rallied sharply around 11 a. m. The recovery was most pronounced in the specialties and big blocks of Famous Players were taken as high as 74.

Chandler made an early low at 47 %, off nearly 5 points from Wednesday's high. Selling was a reflection of the uncertainty that exists as to the action directors will take on the dividend at the meeting scheduled to be held in the next few days.

The market quickly recovered from the drive against the motor shares and during the re-

The market quickly recovered from the drive against the motor shares and during the remainder of the forenoon a strong tone prevailed in most of the active issues.

The railroad stocks showed a better tone. St. Paul common selling at 20 % and the preferred at 33 %; while gains of about one point were made in the standard railroad shares. U. S. Steel moved up from 83 % to 83 % and Republic Steel recovered one point to 53 %. Studebaker and Chandler railled about one point from the low level.

Pittsburg Coal became the market leader toward the end of the second hour, selling at 65 %, up 1% net. Quiet accumulation has been going on in this stock for several months, but it has only been this week that the stock has braken away to any extent. A representative of one Reket for hides is very sluggish, but the market for packer hides is firmly maintained. Reports from Buenos Aires record sales of frigorifico steers at from $54 to $54.50, Argentine currency.

RUTTER AND EGGS

Chicago, Dec. S.—Butter prices here are holding fairly steady, but the tendency is to-ward lower rather than higher figures. Eggs are in seasonal condition.

SHIRTS Kansas City. Dec. 8—An advertisement a local paper by a local haberdasher, offer shirts at $1 each, has brought the desier order for a shirt from Landon, England. COAL AND COKE

Pittsburg. Dec. 8.—The H. C. Frick com-pany has announced the resumption of several hundred more coke furnaces in the Connells-ville district, bringing the total ovens in op-eration to over 4000. Many additional men were put to work.

CANDY

New Orleans, Dec. 8.—Every candy factory in the city is running full force and overtime to supply the holiday trade. Sales, while not up to those of last year, compare favorably with previous seasons.

PAINTS

Philadelphia, Dec. 8.—The makers of white lead have given a guarantee price to extend to February, and this has aided to stabilize the paint market here.

STEEL.

Pittsburg, Dec. 8.—Local makers of cast iron pipe report more buying by public utility interests and increase in the volume of inquiry covering material to be delivered in the spring.

New Jewelry Store at Ontario Ontario, Or., Doc. 8.—W. L. Heseltine, late of San Francisco, is opening a watch and sewelry repair shop in the Moore building next to the Cash grocery. Heseltine has purchased the Braniff residence in Riverside addition and has moved his family here from Fruitland.
