

Former Beaver Shortstop Traded to Boston by Yanks. Xmas Boxing Card Arranged

Boxing Card For Xmas Is Completed

HARRY HANSEN, matchmaker of the Portland Boxing commission, has completed the Christmas day smoker card.

It is as follows:
Johnny Griffiths vs. Alex Trambitas, six rounds.
Peter Mitchell vs. Mickey Hannon, six rounds.
Eddie Gorman vs. Neil Zimmerman, six rounds.
Ivar Svenberg vs. Jack Davis, four rounds.
Jack Rose vs. Dick Simons, four rounds.

The card appears to be a good one, especially when the champion of Sweden, Ivar Svenberg, is scheduled to box in one of the four-round bouts.
Hansen attests that Svenberg carries a regular wallop. When Svenberg first came to town he was asked to work lightly, and he stepped around in a little fashion, hitting with open gloves. His showing did not satisfy Hansen, but he kept asking for a bout and finally Hansen consented to take the champion on.

"How do you want me to work?" asked Svenberg.
"Oh," said Hansen, "just like in a regular bout."
Svenberg did. He put a "shiner" on Hansen's face and had him dizzy with a punch on the head from a 10-ounce glove.

That satisfied Hansen and now the boxing fans are going to get a chance to see the champion of Sweden.
Griffiths is due to arrive in Portland Friday under the wing of Tommy Walsh. Like numerous other Eastern fighters, Griffiths is arriving in town just a couple of days before the battle and he may have some trouble getting in his boxing ability and can be depended upon to put forth an aggressive battle.

Efforts to match Archie Stoy with Peter Mitchell and Mickey Hannon, a Seattle boy, has been placed on the card.
Tickets for the smoker are being grabbed by the fans at a fast clip and indications are that a good house will witness the smoker.

Trambitas worked out Tuesday with Ward, a newcomer from Spokane, and showed all kinds of speed. Trambitas seems to have gained more confidence in his boxing ability and can be depended upon to put forth an aggressive battle.

Efforts to match Archie Stoy with Peter Mitchell and Mickey Hannon, a Seattle boy, has been placed on the card.
Tickets for the smoker are being grabbed by the fans at a fast clip and indications are that a good house will witness the smoker.

Trambitas worked out Tuesday with Ward, a newcomer from Spokane, and showed all kinds of speed. Trambitas seems to have gained more confidence in his boxing ability and can be depended upon to put forth an aggressive battle.

High School Hoop Schedule for 1922 Ratified by League

The interscholastic league basketball schedule for the 1922 season, which was arranged by President Hugh Boyd, was ratified at Tuesday's meeting of the league directors.

January 17 is the date set for the opening of the circuit with Jefferson and James John as the opposing quintets. The season will close March 9 with Jefferson and Washington as the contestants.

Following is the schedule:
January 17—Jefferson vs. James John.
January 18—Washington vs. Benson.
January 19—Franklin vs. Lincoln.
January 21—Jefferson vs. Commerce.
February 1—James John vs. Benson.
February 2—Washington vs. Franklin.
February 7—Lincoln vs. Commerce.
February 8—Jefferson vs. Benson.
February 9—James John vs. Franklin.
February 14—Lincoln vs. Washington.
February 15—Benson vs. Commerce.
February 16—Jefferson vs. Franklin.
February 21—James John vs. Lincoln.
February 22—Washington vs. Commerce.
February 24—Benson vs. Franklin.
February 28—Lincoln vs. Jefferson.
March 1—Franklin vs. Commerce.
March 2—James John vs. Washington.
March 7—Benson vs. Commerce.
March 8—James John vs. Washington.
March 9—Jefferson vs. Washington.

BASKETBALL

THE University of Oregon basketball quintet will make its initial appearance in Portland tonight on the Y. M. C. A. floor in a game against the North Pacific Dental college team. Coach Dewey of the dentists announces that he will start Bates and McLoughlin at forwards; Taylor at center and Pantland and Butler at guards. The dentists have been practicing hard for the contest and are expected to give the college boys a hard tussle. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

The Holiday Aces defeated the Albina Stars Monday night, 20 to 10.
Line-ups:
Aces: Pos. Albina.
Wright (2).....F.....Willmont
Jassman (8).....F.....Fawcett (2)
Roeder (6).....C.....Doerr (4)
Hagen (1).....G.....Arnold
Dopetro.....G.....DeBord (4)
Ham (4).....S.....S.

The B'nai B'rith basketball team will meet the Benson Tech team tonight on the B. B. floor. The B. B. team is anxious to arrange games with other teams. For games call Jack Smokoon, Broadway 638.

Phil Unkells is anxious to arrange games for his basketball quintet with teams averaging from 120 to 125 pounds. For games telephone Main 2955.

The South Parkway quintet will hold its final workout Wednesday night for the big game with the Oregon Aggies Thursday night on the Neighborhood House floor at Second and Wood streets. Manager Pander put his players through a long workout Tuesday night. The team is in fine shape for the clash with the Aggies.

Kalama, Wash., Dec. 21.—Two basketball games are scheduled for Friday night at the school gym.

The Colonials are leading in the Y. M. C. A. basketball league with a perfect record. The Victorians, Froquois, Olympians and Columbians have broken even in their games and the Excelsiors have yet to win a contest. The league games are played every Thursday night, the public being admitted without charge. Thursday night the Olympians will play the Victorians and the Froquois and Colonials will play the second contest.

Tuesday night the Christian Brothers college team beat the Sellwood Aces basketball five in a snappy game, 21 to 12. At half time the Aces led, 11 to 10, but the guarding of Captain Glenn and the shooting of O'Conner and Cunningham in the early stages of the second half gave the Juniors a lead that they held until the final whistle. Cox, Johnson and Peet did the scoring for the Sellwood five.

In a preliminary College Middlets won their eighth straight game, noosing out the crack Jackson Park Juniors, 20 to 18. The park boys held the lead up to the last few minutes of play. Cal-sahin, Keating and Temple made most of the points for the losers.

This evening in the C. B. C. court Mt. Angel college five tackled the college unlimited-team in the big annual game for both schools. B'nai B'rith Juniors will mix it with the Holy Name club in the preliminary, which will start at 8 o'clock.

Washington and Jefferson has finally taken heed of repeated warnings from the west "to watch out for California's forward passes." Practically the entire week has been devoted to building up a defense against the expected aerial attack. The eastern team travels west Saturday.

West Point is discussing rowing with the possibility of meeting Annapolis on the water as an annual event. But the possibility has gone no further than discussion, owing to the well known attitude of the cadets, which might be summed up as:
"When you meet us in polo we'll meet you in racing shells."

Washington and Jefferson has finally taken heed of repeated warnings from the west "to watch out for California's forward passes." Practically the entire week has been devoted to building up a defense against the expected aerial attack. The eastern team travels west Saturday.

West Point is discussing rowing with the possibility of meeting Annapolis on the water as an annual event. But the possibility has gone no further than discussion, owing to the well known attitude of the cadets, which might be summed up as:
"When you meet us in polo we'll meet you in racing shells."

Washington and Jefferson has finally taken heed of repeated warnings from the west "to watch out for California's forward passes." Practically the entire week has been devoted to building up a defense against the expected aerial attack. The eastern team travels west Saturday.

FOOTBALL

ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—It has been definitely announced that the navy will play Georgia Tech next year. The Golden Tornado has been booked for October 28. The annual clash with the army will come either on November 25 or December 2.

San Francisco, Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Sudden changes in traveling schedules delayed the expected arrival here yesterday of Center college's football squad en route to San Diego to meet the University of Arizona December 26. Center is expected today.

American Teams Swap Players Peck Goes to Boston for Scott

By Westbrook Pegler
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The skies are adazzle with shooting stars.
Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop and captain of the Yankees, goes shooting up to Boston. Everett Scott, the Red Sox star shortstop, is coming this way to swap jobs with Peck. Stuffy McInnis, the Red Sox first baseman, is now a member of the Cleveland Indians, traded for George Burns, first baseman, Elmer Smith, outfielder, and Joe Harris, another first baseman, who is now under suspension, but may become eligible to play next season.

The Yankees are now made up largely of stars drawn from the Red Sox for Babe Ruth, Wally Schang, the N. S. A. and the only two real pitchers on the 1921 Yankee club, Carl Mays and Waite Hoyt, were acquired from Frazer by trade or purchase. Now the Yankees are a veteran pitcher but still a good pitcher in Joe Bush, famous years ago as the "bullet" because of his speed. Joe is regarded as having an edge on three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

PECK CANNOT UNDERSTAND HIS TRANSFER TO BOSTON
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I can't understand why I have been made the goat," said Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, in commenting this morning on the deal which sends him to Boston in exchange for three pitchers set up to Boston. Fraze and Colonel Ruppert, half owner of the Yankees, both insisted that there was no money in the deal. However, if there had been money in it for Fraze he probably would have wanted the fact kept quiet to assuage the pangs of the Boston fans over the transfer of these stars. There are the wisecracks of baseball feel at liberty to speculate on the amount of cash Fraze received along with the three pitchers and Peckinpaugh.

Heilman Is Champ Hitter On 5 Points

(By United News)
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The season of 1921 was a batting jamboree in the American league and the fine art of base stealing was almost forgot. Official batting averages of the league, released for Wednesday morning, show that 12,525 hits were made in 615 games, including the record smashing number of 477 home runs. There were also 2140 doubles and 694 triples. Hits averaged more than 20 to the game and 25 per cent were for extra bases.

Harry Heilman of Detroit led the league with a batting average of .394 and Cobb was second with .389. Babe Ruth, author of 59 home runs, rolled in third with a standing of .378. George Sisler, who hit .371 was fourth, and Tris Speaker was fifth with .362. Ruth hit for a total of 653 extra bases, more than any other player in organized baseball. These included 44 doubles, and only three players exceeded him there, one being Tris Speaker with 52 doubles. Babe made it 16 triples. Several batters tied this figure. Sisler and Tobin of Washington 19. Detroit led in club batting. The figure was .316. The other figures in order were Cleveland .308, St. Louis .304, New York .300, Chicago .283, Washington and Boston .277 and Philadelphia .274.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

Sargeant, who comes to Portland from Detroit, hit 253 in 66 games.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tallies and Tobin of St. Louis was second with 132. Sisler finished third with 125 and Cobb was fourth with 124. Averages made by former Coast players are as follows:
Sutherland, Detroit, .407; Kenneth Williams, St. Louis, .347; Devermer, New York, .347; Mays, New York, .342; Evans, Cleveland, .333; Hooper, Chicago, .327; R. Meusel, New York, .318; Blue, Detroit, .308; Basler, Detroit, .307; Plagstead, Detroit, .306; Sheely, Chicago, .294; Graney, Cleveland, .299; Ernie Johnson, Chicago, .295; Peckinpaugh, New York, .288; Ehmke, Detroit, .284; Cole, Detroit, .283; Helling, Detroit, .270; Sojiron, Cleveland, .261; Mulligan, Chicago, .251; Oldham, Detroit, .224.

COASTERS WELL UP
Ruth was the leading scorer with 177 tall