4th U. B. Church Assigned Minister

Dr. Hinson, pastor of the East Side Baptist church, aided by his associate pastor, Rev. H. H. Brown, is conducting five Sunday evening services during January which are awakening widespread interest.

During 1932 a series of articles on 12 popular hymns appeared in the Delmonico and attracted widespread attention. These hymns are being featured in the five Sunday evening services. The choir, aided by the orchestra, leads the audience in these famous hymns. Both Dr. Hinson and Rev. H. H. Brown speak each service. Mr. Brown's subject will be "The Days of the Open Fire." The subject of Dr. Hinson's sermon will be "Breaking Home Ties."

The church has had a phenomenal growth the past four years. During that time it has acquired the beautiful structure at East Twenty-third and Commercial streets, renovated and finished it. The auditorium has a capacity of 400. The trustees have under advisement plans for the enlargement of the building to accommodate the rapidly growing work. Last Sunday night 300 people came forward with the same number in the morning, making a total of 600 for the day.

On Thursday evening the officers and teachers of the Bible school will meet for the regular monthly business meeting and conference. Services will be at 8:30 and 10:30. The school will be at 8:30. The school has taken up a special offering for the purchase of a new Bible for each child in the school.

At the First Baptist church (last Temple) Dr. Arthur P. Hinson will speak on "The Church and the World." The subject will be "The Church and the World." The church hopes to hold a regular Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. on Tuesday, January 12, at 9:45 with classes for all. The young people's meeting Sunday will be led by Dr. George H. Young.

Breaking the Fetters will be the theme of an illustrated drama which Rev. H. H. Brown will deliver Sunday evening at the Third Baptist church. Some portions of the play will be shown on the screen at the address.

Rev. B. Ross Evans Scandinavianians Join For Revival Series
