Evicted Blind Man Is Pessimist, Says Supt. J. F. Myers

Charles L. Bishop, inmate of the Oregon Employment Institution for the blind, is a pessimist. This is the reason, says J. F. Myers, superintendent, that he and his pal, Oscar L. Johnson, also an inmate, spent Friday night in the city jail on charges of trespassing.

Bishop, who went to the institution last June, according to Myers, continually found fault and tried to give other inmates his darksome viewpoint. "He was destroying the morale of the others and ruining the little discipline necessary to the successful operation of the institution, so when the state board of control authorized me to evict him, together with Johnson, who has not been in the state long enough to receive state aid, I called the police," said Myers, in explaining his action.

The two blind men were ordered released Saturday by Municipal Judge Rossmann, who reprimanded Myers. Saturday night they were back in their old quarters at the institution. Although neither man is known to have relatives in Portland, both, according to Myers, have places at which they could be cared for. Bishop, a member of the Hoquiam lodge of Odd Fellows, could go to the lodge's home in Walla Walla, if he wished, said Myers, and Johnson's parents have a poultry ranch in Battleground, Wash.

47 Witnesses Are Summoned in Todd Land Fraud Trial

Forty-seven subpoenas for witnesses in the John W. Todd land fraud trial were issued Saturday by G. H. Marsh, clerk of the federal court, and given to United States Marshal Clarence R. Hochkiss for service. Deputy Howard Sweetland has been instructed to serve them Monday. Nearly all the subpoenas are for people residing in Salem.

Todd is charged, along with Carlos L. Byron, with using the mails to defraud Marion county residents out of approximately $48,250 in a timber deal. Byron is a fugitive, having forfeited a $5000 bond last November. Todd's trial is set for January 18. He was tried last November on a similar charge when the jury acquitted him on three counts of an indictment and disagreed on the fourth. He has since been reindicted, two new offenses being alleged in the later indictment.

We are entering our 40th year of business history in the Pacific Northwest. In making this statement, it is not our desire to point out the growth we have made but rather to make plain the fact that we know and recognize the fundamental basis of business success. The buyer must receive full value for his money, and a fair and square deal in every transaction.

In no department is this policy so manifest as in our used car department. Buyers have found that we handle used cars in a new way. We maintain a special department in our shop for overhauling and refinishing used cars. We put our cars in serviceable condition—many of them look and run like new. All of them are genuine bargains at our prices. We will take light cars in trade and make convenient terms. Before you buy any car come and look over our select stock of high grade low priced used cars.
