Gerlinger Home To Be Opened For Social Tea

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger will open her home on Willamette Heights Saturday, January 14, for a tea given by the American Association of University Women, this being one of a series of teas which are being given for members in different sections of the city under the sponsorship of the social committee of which Mrs. Caroline Under is chairman. This affair is especially for the women of the Westover, Arlington and Willamette Heights and Nob Hill districts, although a cordial invitation is extended to all women who have not attended the previous teas.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Jordan Brumfield, Mrs. Edward T. Geary, Mrs. Richard Scholz and Miss Bertha Young. Those assisting include the following members of the social committee: Mrs. Forrest S. Fisher, Mrs. Lee Patterson, Mrs. William Purcell, Mrs. Pat H. Allen, Mrs. Norman F. Coleman, Mrs. Joseph E. Withrow, Mrs. Dean Hays, Mrs. William H. Thomas, Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, Mrs. Richard Parke, Mrs. Jerome Mann, Mrs. Richard W. Baker, Mrs. Beatrice Locke and Miss Florence Knapp.

Baker—A wedding of much interest to their friends occurred here Tuesday when Mr. Wallace Eakin, son of Judge J. A. Eakin of Astoria, and Miss Gladys Baird, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Baird, were united in marriage by Bishop J. W. Eardley. Mr. Eakin was formerly city editor of the Baker Herald but is now employed in Albany, where the young couple expect to reside.

Ridgefield, Wash.—Ridgefield's novel "500" club, numbering 24, held its annual dinner Thursday night at the Hotel Ridgefield after which they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brattle and played cards. Six tables were used. Mrs. A. P. Mackey captured the ladies' highest prize and William S. Miller was awarded like honors for the men. Refreshments were served.

Estacada, Or.—The Modern Fricellia club of 13 ladies, held its monthly meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Armstrong. There were also five visitors and after a dinner served at 1 o'clock, the ladies spent the remaining hours of the afternoon visiting and doing fancywork. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Haisle at Currivanville.

Dates for the season's hops at Hill Military academy have been set and are eagerly awaited by members of the younger set. The parties scheduled will be: January 21, senior and intermediate hop; February 25, patriotic party honoring Washington's birthday; April 1, "First of April" informal; April 23, cotillion, girls to wear fancy costumes; May 7, formal May hop; June 14, commencement and dance honoring the graduating class.

Mrs. Lawrence H. Holman entertained Friday with a luncheon to meet her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Holman. Covers were placed for 10 as follows: Mrs. Rudolph Frazer, Mrs. A. E. Mackay, Mrs. A. L. Pease, Mrs. James Malarky, Mrs. Dan J. Malarky, Mrs. Gustave E. Bruer.

Forest Grove—Miss Esther Shearer and Lawrence Brabham of Eugene, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Shearer of Hillsdale, the Rev. J. M. Barber of Forest Grove performing the ceremony. The Misses Napper and Case of Hillsboro furnished the bridal music.

Mrs. W. J. Burns entertained Friday with a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Edgar W. Baird of Philadelphia, who is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Minnot.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Roy McLaughlin on the arrival of a daughter, born December 20. Mrs. McLaughlin was formerly Miss Loretta Hardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood entertained quite informally Wednesday evening for 15 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koshlar were dinner hosts to a few close friends Saturday evening.

DANCE IS AMUSING ALL ARE "HAYSEEDS"

AN INNOVATION in the series of winter dances given during the season by the Tillicum club was the "country dance" at which members of the club were entertained Saturday night at Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Earl C. Latourcelle was hostess for the evening and details for the entertainment features were unusually amusing. A country store was a point of special interest, the decorations included strawstacks and barnyard fowls and bits of local color from the farm and the musicians wore the togs of the old-time dance hall band. Guests arrived in their jumpers and hayseed hats, the women in gingham and pinafores and variously attired in the "unfashionable" clothes from the old trunks in the attic.

Several dinner parties—country dinners—served without ceremony and including a menu of plainest food, preceded the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Hesterton were hosts for one dinner party and Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter entertained guests preceding the affair. Quadrilles and old fashioned dances, with oldtime favorite melodies constituted the dance program.

One of the enjoyable social events of the season was given by "Ye Merrie Tymers club" at St. Johns branch Y. W. C. A. Many of the college young people were home for the occasion. The building was artistically decorated for the holiday season. Those present were: The Misses Arline Shaw, Ethel Hufford, Ruth MacGregor, Donaldia MacGregor, Margaret Dickie, Alice Wrinkle, Marie Brodesen, Gladys Brodesen, Marian Dunmore, Virginia Dunmore, Jennie McInven, Nettie Johnston, Bernice Shew, Catherine Hill, Clara Nelson, Minnie Nelson, Minnie Moe, Edythe Cochran, Nina Soales, Agnes Orr, Agnes Nelson, Beulah Beam, Opal Welmer, Carline Lind, Helen Caswell and Lola Murphy; the Mademoiselles Gladys Wright, Catherine Poff, Bernice Grantham, Bernice Sahlin and Annie MacGregor; the Messrs, Merle Harrington, Lee Johnston, Ralph Finch, Clyde Thayer, Ivan Faber, Bertal Sandstrom, Harold Davis, O. Wiemer, Lyman Belamy, Earl Keilber, Dr. Lewis Keilber, Louis Grantham, Frank Wright, Louis Dunmore, Frank Bugbee, Chew Anderson, Marshall Shaw, William Pahl, Viking Larson, Theodore Bugbee, Cecil Magone, Cyril Magone, J. Cole, W. Williams, Claude Poff, A. Jones and Norman Nelson. Through the evening punch and wafers were served by the Misses Margaret MacGregor, Helen MacGregor and Inez Brodesen. Patrons and patronesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shaw, Mrs. Bess Nesbit and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Towler.

Lebanon—Zachariah T. Bryant, veteran of the Civil war and a resident of Lebanon for more than 25 years, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday on Christmas day at the home of his brother-in-law, David R. Ambler of Portland. A distinguished soldier, Mr. Bryant first enlisted in 1863 at Indianapolis, Ind., in the United States cavalry and served for three years. He took part in the capture of Atlanta and marched with Sherman to the sea. For one month he was incarcerated in Libby prison and was the last man to be liberated on the day before Vicksburg surrendered to General Grant. Mr. Bryant was married here, December 25, 1880, to Miss Mary Ambler, now deceased. His children living are Miss Sylvia Bryant of Honolulu and Hugh Bryant of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Helen Watt will be hostess for members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national medical sorority, Monday night, at her home, 775 Wasco street. The evening will honor Mrs. Louis Seagrave, who is leaving this week for Boston, where she will make her home. A musical program of American composers and selection of officers will be features of the meeting. Members may take Broadway car to Twenty-fourth street and walk four blocks south.

Metzger—A pinocchio club is being formed and will hold its first meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd. The following are members: Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gault, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gault, Mr. and Mrs. C. Keagle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harris. The New Year's masquerade dance at the Metzger community clubhouse drew a large crowd. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated by MacDonald Potts and the men on the entertainment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Duncan of 1550 Mobile street are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a daughter, born December 17. The child has been named Mary Elizabeth Duncan.

Xmas Vacation No Holiday for Little Dan Cupid

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis.—Six faculty marriages, one engagement and one student marriage are the result of the holiday vacation period at the college. Ralph O. Coleman, '18, director of intramural athletics and a pitcher for the Portland Beavers, and Miss Eleanor Flynn, '21, were married in Eugene during the holidays. Kenneth L. Binns, junior in commerce, and Miss Hazel Fleener, sophomore in home economics, were among the first to take the wedding vows. They were married at the Xi Beta house, of which sorority Mrs. Binns is a member. Mr. Binns is editor of the Orange Owl and sports editor of the O. A. C. Barometer. Miss Wylilian Dunning of the botany department was married to Mr. Frank Ballard. Mr. Ballard is assistant county agent in the extension service. Another Christmas marriage was that of Mr. Joseph E. Simmons, assistant professor of bacteriology, and Miss Alice Miller. Miss Miller is a graduate of O. A. C. and has been employed as bookkeeper in the dairy department. Miss Esther Grus, instructor in physical education for women, was married to Frank Lester Knoviton, research assistant in poultry husbandry. Another vacancy in the physical education department will possibly occur soon as the result of the engagement of Miss Ruth Wisinger to a California rancher, Mr. Walter Bailey. Two weddings were among members of the chemistry department. They were the marriage of Mr. William Yates and Miss Phoebe Chamberlain, instructor in the junior high school at Albany, and Miss Mildred Hall to Mr. Hans P. Schmidt, director of the Crystal theatre orchestra.

One of the enjoyable New Year's parties was given by Mr. Sam Gortler and Mr. Carl Gortler at their home in Monroe street, when they entertained a number of the high school set. Dancing was the diversion of the evening.

Snowball Dance To Be Odd Event At Laurelhurst

PLANS for a number of interesting events for the near future, to be given at Laurelhurst club under the auspices of the Women's Progressive unit, were made at the last meeting of the club Tuesday afternoon. A snowball dance, which is planned for the evening of January 21, promises to be a unique affair. Mrs. Homer Goshler is chairman of the committee of arrangements. At this time the luncheon set, which have been made by the women of the unit, will be allotted to the fortunate owners. A large card party will be given in February under the auspices of the unit and at that time Mrs. George W. Powis will be chairman. The regular meeting of the unit will be held at the clubhouse January 17.

At the last guest night dancing party, which was an event of December 29, a large attendance enjoyed the affair. The New Year's eve watch party of the club was a gay and colorful event enjoyed by 500 members of the club and their friends. Several supper parties followed the dance. Last Thursday evening was the regular card party of the club for members only. Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Hunt were hosts for the evening.

The Women's card club will meet at 7:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the club house. Mrs. James Forbes and Mrs. Cassius E. Peck will be hostesses. A dance for club members will follow next Thursday night at the club.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Johnson and their daughter Frances of 484 East Fourteenth street enjoyed with them the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary last Tuesday evening in Harmony hall in Williams avenue. A mock wedding conducted by Mr. Jess Hawkins and a program which was in charge of Mr. J. E. Hitchcock included solos by the Misses

Unique Stunts Featured Party Of the J. J. Club

THE J. J. club entertained with a delightful dancing party New Year's eve. Dancing and various New Year's stunts were enjoyed at the R. H. Torrey residence in Laurelhurst and a supper was served at the Herbert Gordon home on Mount Tabor. Both houses were artistically and appropriately decorated with the season's colors and flowers. Serpentine, horns and balloons ushered in the New Year in true spirit. Those present were the Misses Adele Lindley, Josephine Cawill, Cavita Campbell, Alfred Robert, Frances Hunt, Vera Woodhead, Wanda Gordon, Florence Erwin, Dora Gordon, Helen Tomast, Jeanette Helstrom, Jo Torrey and Herbert Stewart, Victor Daniels, John Webb, Milo Samsom, William Stacy, Arthur Fundall, Clement Broedlove, Roosevelt Hansen, William Geiger, Louis Ragoneitch, Ray Rederson and Shelby Brown. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gordon, Dr. W. H. Erwin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Torrey.

A pleasant masquerade dancing party was given by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lathram at their home in East Stark street, New Year's eve. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were Messrs. and Misses Fred Lewis, Harold Reed, O. K. Neet, Elmer Neet, W. E. Emmerick, A. M. Parry, Harry Hansen and son, Valoren, Frank Schlegel and son Palmer, Courtney and Alice Lathram, Glover Clark.

Mrs. Phillip Goss of San Francisco was the honor guest at a dinner given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Elmer Egan. Covers were placed for 13 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wingate of Astoria were visitors in Laurelhurst during the holidays at the home of Mrs. Willie Dunaway.

Lois Mein, Ella Andross and Mr. J. E. Sprang; readings by Marie Hoff and Mrs. J. E. Sprang; fancy dancing by Eileen Knowlton and Norma Veatch. Annual Meeting Of Delta Zeta Is Enjoyable Event

EIGHT chapters of Delta Zeta sorority were represented at the luncheon given during the holidays at the University club when alumni and active members enjoyed their annual assembly for the vacation period. A novel feature of the occasion was the huge snowball which centered the table which, when opened, contained gifts for all. During the luncheon the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alva Sutton, one of the active members of the '21 class, University of Oregon, and Mr. V. Lyle McCroskey of the same class, was announced.

Bride-Elect Is Guest of Honor At Many Affairs

NUMEROUS functions have been planned for the pleasure of Miss Lenore Blaesing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, whose marriage to Mr. Maurice Robert Mann will take place at Westminster Presbyterian church January 28. During the past week Mrs. Catlin Wolfard entertained at her home in Alameda for the bride-elect. Three tables were arranged for bridge and a few guests called at the tea hour. A kitchen shower was a feature of the affair. Miss Janet Peters won honors at cards. Mrs. George E. Sullivan entertained for Miss Blaesing last week at a smart tea and Mrs. Carl G. Liebo has planned an informal afternoon affair for next Thursday for Miss Blaesing. Miss Helen Houghton will preside at a luncheon next Saturday for her pleasure and January 15 Miss Elisabeth Wiggins will entertain informally for her.
