During the afternoon piano numbers were given by Miss Crittendon, Miss Marie Woody, Miss Vera Wolfendon and Mrs. Maxine Godfrey Loop. Mrs. Joseph A. Finley sang a group of songs. The hours were from 3 to 6 and a large number called.

One of the largest parties of holiday week was that for which Miss Marian Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, and Miss Frances Cornell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cornell, were hostesses Wednesday evening at Waverley Country club. Details for the affair were cleverly arranged. There was a serpentine dance, the gaily colored streamers winding through the maze of dancers. At the punch table the old fashioned gingerbread cows, rabbits, Santa Claus figures and beaux and belles were served instead of wafers. Miss Frances Cornell was lovely in a French frock of rose and silver lace with blue touches. Her mother wore a smart costume of black lace with a gold girdle. Miss Farrell wore a colonial frock with tight fitting bodice and ruffled bow skirt in pink. Mrs. Farrell was attractive in gold panne velvet with black trimmings. There were about 250 guests.

Mrs. M. L. Koester made a splendid Indian princess. Mr. Thomas Elyre assumed the character and costume of "Sitting Bull." Mrs. A. C. Stevens was Sacajawa. Mr. R. H. Rueff bore the role of Abe Cohn. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Robinson were country characters and won prizes. Relief Worker Of Note Will Be Married Soon

MR. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland announce the engagement of their daughter Maude, to Mr. Selim E. Woodworth of San Francisco.

Miss Cleveland and Mr. Woodworth were students together at the University of California, where she was a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta, and he of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Both have distinguished war records overseas.

It will be remembered that Miss Cleveland left a professorship at the University of California to go to France as a volunteer worker in a French hospital in 1917. In recognition of her service with the American army after entrance of the United States into the war, she was twice decorated, and she is one of the very few women wearers of the distinguished service medal. Her career as an European relief worker ended last month with her return from Belgium to her home in Gresham.

Mr. Woodworth is a metallurgical engineer and is a member of the San Francisco firm of Hamilton, Beauchamp & Woodworth. He distinguished himself during the war as an officer with the destroyer fleet in European waters. Announcement of this engagement will be received with much pleasure by a large circle of friends both in the city and in university and social circles in the bay region and in San Francisco.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie M. Bramley and Mr. William W. Beebe took place Sunday at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. E. Beebe, the Rev. S. W. Seeman of the Unity Presbyterian church officiating in the presence of about 40 relatives and friends. The bride wore a smart gown of midnight blue charmeuse with a corsage of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Doris Wolcott was bridesmaid and Mr. Howard Potter attended the bridegroom. Little Ruth Beebe, a niece of the bridegroom, carried the ring in a lily and led the bridal procession. Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held. For the occasion the rooms were decorated with Christmas greens and flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Beebe will make their home in Portland.

Interesting arrivals in the city are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Killian of Oakland, Cal., who have recently come to the city to make their home. Mr. Killian will succeed Mr. Carl H. Benson with the Standard Oil company here. Mr. and Mrs. Killian are stopping at the Benson hotel.

The remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing, with excellent music, card games, refreshments, etc. All Minnesota people in the city and their friends are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Dorothy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller of 1820 Vermont avenue, became the bride of Mr. Lawrence Reaney Thursday evening, the Rev. W. T. Elliot of the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller were their only attendants. Cedar boughs and poinsettia adorned the rooms for the occasion and an informal reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reaney will make their home near Lexington, where the bridegroom is manager of a large wheat ranch.

Prineville, Or.—One of the most interesting social events of the season was the big entertainment given by the Crook County Irrigators' club on New Year's eve, the first annual folies and Arabian Nights entertainment, and guests were arranged at tables with covers for 250, in addition to the bleacher seating capacity. A novel and interesting program was carried out with dancing between the numbers. The hit of the evening was a chorus of local young men dressed a la Ziegfeld.
