One month WEEKLY WEEKLY AND (Every Wednesday) One year ... $1.00 His mouths ... 50 One year $3.50

That great mystery of time, were there o other; the illimitable, silent, never-restno other; the illimitable, silent, never-rest-ing thing called time, rolling, rushing on, swift, silent, like an all-embracing ocean-tide, on which we and all the universe swim like exhalations, like apparitions which are, and then are not; this is forever very literally a miracle; a thing to strike us dumb, for we have no word to speak about it.—Carlyle,

BUT, WHO SAVES?

IT HAS been announced from Washington that there will be a saving the new revenue bill. In one sense, the statement is correct. Practically, taxes to pay. But the public will mothers to watch the company their There is no excess profits tax. The repeal of that tax will save the mil- officers. lionaire owners of corporations far more than $7. And it will auto- the country drug peddlers and na matically place a heavier burden on cotic vendors, according to this statethe people who consume the pred- ment, who are "business builders." ucts of the corporations. The big They seek the young and incautious A folder, is a place where a tenconcerns could not shift the excess who yield to the lure of doubtful derfoot just out of the city may fill profits taxes. They can shift a company. They start a habit that his lungs with ozone, watch cowboys straight corporation tax which has becomes a disease and that prompts swing their lariats, and go hunting tremendous incomes be limited to torturing demands. $7. The surtaxes were reduced 16 fore smaller taxpayers save less.

revenue bill. Those who can afford the schemes of drug peddlers go dren with them, ought to be able to struggling," says the Muncie Star (Ind. to pay taxes were permitted large for nothing, no matter how skilful find rest, recreation and an environreductions. The man of average or how well entrenched the latter means will obtain little relief. Such taxation is faulty taxation, based on the wrong principle and applied in the wrong place.

One preacher has found how to reverse the complaint that pleasure in automobiling deters church attendance. Leading with a manyseated truck and followed by a fleet of enlisted passenger cars he goes out Sunday mornings and loads on children for Sunday school classes. The parents follow for church servtees as a matter of course. He calls it beating the devil with gasoline.

WHEN FEUDS THRIVE

SATURDAY night's annual dinner of the Jackson club seemed to be Man must produce the second. Portland Democrats.

It is usual for political parties that today. are in an overwhelming majority in a state to divide up into factions, or serious way tackled the problem But when a party is so much in the of a second timber crop. In the minority that it has little prospect other hand, much of the timber cutof usufruct to fight over feudism in

It is a misfortune for the state, for papers take advantage of it and feed the fauds. They also spread, if not exaggerate, the facts with the intable consequence of weakening the local as well as the upstate party

The affect is to enormously strengthen the hand of the opposi- forests? tion party, and it is a very bad thing rs. Any organization, political or otherwise, that long holds undisputed sway becomes autocratic, arbiwary and dictatorial. Its worst elenents rise to the surface, and its set men, because lulled to sleep le the politicians are forever the III fame of that body in this seed left in the ground, germinate state. It is almost completely reponsible for the inequitable dis-AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER JACKSON be confident, be cheering and de offerts have been made, and many have been made, and many have been made to more equitable. tribution of the tax burdens. When distribute those burdens, gang rule carried on in the name of party and representing special interests in Portland has universally killed the desired legislation.

So long as government is by political parties, it is important that there be a strong, compact and ag- lem is an agricultural problem. He gressive minority party. That kind finds that the products of woodlots of minority presents a respectable opposition, compels the majority to principal crops of the country. Befollow more decent lines of conduct sides making forest reproduction a and is of great service to the state. Nothing could do more to check the rising tide of taxes in Oregon and to put an end to the follies in the legislature than such a revivification of the opposition as would give the Republican organization a vacation in which it could enjoy a much needed rest from ruthless and undisputed direction of public affairs.

It is a work that, if there seemed be joined in by thousands upon thousands of Republicans who have become weary of a constantly mounting tax levy and have tired of folly after folly in the Oregon legislature.

When you stand on one of the Portland bridges and see the tide of humanity flooding into the business district of a morning, or see it ebbing back to the residential districts in the evening, you wonder where all the automobiles go and where all the people work. New York is considering now a plan for parking automobiles in underground tunnels built for the purpose. Thirty thousand of them, it is claimed, could be parked under Central park.

DOPED YOUTH

THE seizure in Portland Saturday night of narcotics valued at $53,-000 at the retail price, gives a glimpse at the extent of the illicit lope traffic in this city. It follows a seizure of $110,000 worth a few weeks ago. How many thousands worth of the terrible stuff has gone undiscovered to the hapless victims? How many doped youth and doped maturity have been dragged down to a living death by the unscrupu-

What more important local issue is there in Portland than to find a way to put an end to the destructive traffic?

lous vendors?

A federal narcotics inspector says: I have heard boys say that their of $7 apiece to every man, woman the ether in contraband liquor, and when tongues and lips have been numbed by and child in the country in taxes I hear this I am convinced that these this year through the operation of boys have had their first taste of cocaine. 'Peddlers' often use this means of developing business, and another common practice followed by them is to give drugs away until the users are con-There will be $700,000,000 less firmed addicts. Then they demand money. I would advise fathers and not share equally in the reduction, sons and daughters keep at public dance halls and if they suspect a habit is district attorney is preparing to prosforming, that they notify the proper

There are scattered throughout its victim to hideous crime in order in season. It is a place where he

But the federal inspector very casper cent. That means a tremendous ually makes the opportunity of comes are above $100,000 a year. If they know where their children lamette valley, or perhaps in South-ment" "Very plainly something must They save more than $7 and there- are, if they know what their chil- ern Oregon, Central Oregon or on the dren are doing and if they see that That is the great failure of the their children keep good company, from the East, or both, and the chilload of currency under which they are

> But one of the reasons why sneaking dope peddlers realize such huge profits from their poisonous trade is because many modern parents only half meet their responsibilities.

Since the bottom fell out of copper prices, copper producers are preparing to open a new market Hood's good morning at the dawn. comparison," embracing nothing less by manufacturing copper shingles. They would count our summer days Then, if the price reaches again any of gold and blue among the splendid such altitudes as during the war, the experiences of a lifetime and they possessor of a copper roof may find would thrill to the zest of mountain some stormy night that a burglar has let the rain in on him.

A NATIONAL PROBLEM

a very earnest effort to heal over We had 800,000,000 acres of forest differences that have existed among land in the United States to begin with. We have 137,000,000 acres

Evidently America has in no large ting was done wastefully and still is. There was no thought of a second crop in Minnesota and Wisconsin Portland Democrats to be forever in and broad areas of denuded land are a debate. It is demoralizing and dis- today abandoned. A period of 10 couraging to members of the party years only is allotted to the survival bill was $266.37. The feed cost at in outside counties. Opposition news- of Southern pine. The prospect is Weiser $203.53. The freight bill was Trinity bay. Newfoundland. spoken of gratefully by Northwest $12.62 a ton. The cost of the feed cables have been subsequently laid and lowers, who have from elimination was $2.64. loggers, who hope from elimination was $9.64. of serious Southern competition to be able to sell our local forest prod- He had his investment in the farm, ucts at greater profit. But what his implements and machinery; peris to come after the 75 or 80 years haps interest to pay on a mortgage.

The denuding of forest lands crefor one political party to at all times ates a second but little less difficult have undisputed control of state af- problem. As timber production decreases, stream erosion increases. Devastating floods become more common. Timber waste is matched doubly by flood waste. What is to be done about it? ment of the Weiser miller created a Forestry experts say the problem, understood, can be simply solved, road added to that value for transwake and on the job, exercise little They find that the ordinary forest and cover logged off areas thickly with second growth. If the burning occurs after the second growth has sprouted, the life in the soil is have been made, to more equitably destroyed. Only a barren expanse is left. But Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in his annual report - which doubtless is the product of minds continuously employed in the service and not affected by changes of administration-says the forestry probrank as one of the three or four principal crops of the country. Besides making forest reproduction a sides with the purpose of formulating some measures for European reconstruction, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Rep.) makes this observation: "Cannes is a national policy, he would have the growing of trees assumed as local enterprise. He is doubtless thinking along the right line. When the war broke out, the care fully tended forests of France met a world emergency. But the British were rudely awakened to the fact that half of their timber went as pit props for mines and the remainder was far short of domestic needs. reasonable chance of success, would Forest reproduction doesn't belong to the United States alone.

MAKE FRANCE PAY, IF -

THERE is sound reason in the proposal of Representative Reavis, Republican, of Nebraska, that the arming to the teeth.

Indeed, France is in some danger of attack. Indeed, the United States for the settlement of the questions that refused to enter the League of Na-; will be considered at Cannes." Colonel tions, which would protect France. and refused to ratify the Anglo-French-American alliance. But in spite of that, France has demanded far more armaments than she apparently needs for purely defensive purposes. And, owing the United rope's economic problems" the role of States as she does, refusing to come within reasonable limits on armaments as she does, why should the money owed to this country be squandered in an armament spree? Why should this nation extend credit

Why should we finance French militarism? There is no question that France needs some protection. There is no question that she must have rea- of unemployed in this country are withsonable military safeguards against out work because American industry is invasion since the United States sen- unable to export its surplus." If this to France to build huge armies and a tremendous fleet of submarines?

hardly a reason why America should of commerce between all countries finance French armies and navies extend the aid that America refused cannot to otherwise give.

A Nebraska woman hung an Amerstrikebreakers. One of the machines broke through the rope and dragged the flag in the mud, but the local ecute the woman for desecration of the nation's colors.

Nor will the saving to those with to get the wherewithal to satisfy its learns that eating is not a habit, but take a blooming radical to suggest that a necessity, and that sleep sometimes it might be worth while to leave off comes a-wooing.

coast, where a tired man or woman ment that sates their love of beauty.

enthusiastic over the grandeur of the The Lexington Leader (Rep.) thinks "it his indifference by saying, "I live and France, at least, have agreed that here." But there are thousands of Easterners, thousands of people from Central Europe," even though, as the West, who would think it a marvelous experience to receive Mount rides over winding trails.

There are thousands of people in the East and on the monotonous prairies of the Middle West who are pointing out that "hitherto conferences dreaming of the beauty of the Far West. They ought to receive such invitation to come that they cannot resist it, and such preparation for their coming that they will never want to leave.

WHAT COULD?

LINN COUNTY farmer bought A 21 tons of millrun at Weiser, Idaho, and shipped to Gray, a few miles south of Albany. The freight on the shipment was more than the original cost of the feed.

Here are the figures: The freight

The Idaho farmer grew the grain allotted to the survival of Northwest He provided the seed, prepared the ground, did the planting, harvesting and transportation to the mill. The miller had his investment, his overhead and, of course, took a ment of the Weiser miller created a fer a substitute for bootleg at $5 a pint combined value of $203.53. The railroad added to that value for transporting the carload of millrun to back on the list of subscribers to the distance in the direction of affairs.

Overwhelming party control in the gislature is largely responsible for promptly, billions of What could be more absurd?

Direction of affairs.

Overwhelming party control in the gislature is largely responsible for promptly, billions of What could be more absurd?

Dorting the carload of millrun to back on the list of subscribers to the of paper on the back of which is written to the Linn county farmer $469.90.

What could be more absurd?

Dorting the carload of millrun to back on the list of subscribers to the of paper on the back of which is written to the Linn county farmer $469.90.

What could be more absurd?

What could be more absurd?

THE COUNCIL AT CANNES

Great Expectations Are Entertained of Important Meeting by Editors in America, Many of Whom See It Dwarfing the Arms Conerence Both in Scape and in Its Substantial Immediate Results-America's Part in It Gravely Considered.

Daily Editorial Digest

(Consolidated Press Ass

In a preliminary discussion of the meeting of the supreme council of the long way from St. Louis. But the meeting there concerns St. Louis, concerns the whole United States, more intimately and seriously, perhaps, than anything now taking place within our borders, not even excepting the conference at Washington. The most significant fact is that they have decided to go ahead without us," is the opinion of the Newark News (Ind.), which adds that "the prospect of such a conference overshadows the meeting at Washington with its narrowly defined agenda and its evasion of the really pressing prob-lems of the world. What does the scrapping of a few old battleships amount to in comparison with a project to deal with the idleness and misery and social disintegration of the world?" Despite the fact that, as the Canton News (Dem.) points out, "President Harding in his messeage to congress made it plain that days grew shorter and colder, and just the nations of Europe must look to at the turn when they were shortes United States demand payment of themselves for means of rehabilitation, and coldest, one of the French debts to the United States although he expressed at the same time over and said her mother was sick. in the event that France insists on the cordial sympathy of the United States in their efforts at betterment," the Buffalo News (Rep.) believes "it may be that our leadership will be solicited Harvey, still in his position of "unofficial observer," will be present, but the Brooklyn Eagle (Ind. Dem.) predicts that "his unofficial observations will be uttered more frequently and with more authority," although the Boston Transcript (Ind. Rep.) believes that "in a conference limited to a discussion of Eu-"spectator" is sufficient.

On the other hand, the Albany Knickerbocker Press (Rep.) upholds the view of a "small but influential minority of Americans who have had world experi ence or possess world insight" which is convinced "that the economic and financial interests of the United States are directly linked with those of Europe, and the Brooklyn Eagle (Ind. Dem.) urther maintains that "it is time to drop the pretense of non-participation in European affairs," since, to quote the Sioux City Journal (Rep.), "the millions ate has blocked the other safeguards of world conditions," notes the Wilmingthat were to be extended to France. ton (N. C.) Star (Dem.), "there must be But, in spite of it all, there is more sentiment for a generous exchange though the Pittsburg Dispatch (Ind.) unless it is hoped in that way to orous cooperation by European states believes the "questions that demand vigbe cured by action in America, but must be well on the way toward solution before the United States can be of service." If the conference at Cannes "should be turned into an effort to ican flag on a rope which she draw the United States into Europe's stretched across a road to prevent affairs before the reparations question the ingress of automobiles carrying is settled and before the reduction of land armaments is a settled policy," the Washington Post (Ind.) will pronounce that conference "a failure." dent's decision to withhold aid from Europe until Europe itself has taken an initiative in self-help "is not a bad one." thinks the Columbia (S. C.) Record (Dem)., but aid in the adjustment of normalcy. We must resume trade relations with the industrious and honest nations of the earth or recede greatly from a leading position ourselves.

in a later conference is regarded by the Birmingham News (Dem.) as a wise "Nowadays," it says, "it doesn't hate of Germany and contempt for Nikolai Lefine long enough to talk business be done to relieve Germany, Austria Hungary, Roumania, Poland, Slovakia and Russia of the smothering Rep.), since "when the paper currency represents more than the total value of The old man who did not wax as chance of its even approximating par the effort must be made, and made to "rehabilitate Russia and the monotonous plains of the Middle Washington Post (Ind.) admits, the conference will have before it "an agenda which for difficulty will make the Washington conference agenda seem puny by than "the reconstruction of Russia, the adjustment of the reparations question, the refunding of war debts, the settlet of the embroglio in Asia Minor and the Albanian problem, the calling of an economic conference and a dozen other matters of pith and moment"

The Springfield Republican (Ind.) have been on a war basis," feels that "for well-balanced discussion a broader basis is needed. While the economic problems of the day arise from the late war, they involve all countries in some degree" and the "economic problems of Europe are not likely to be settled in a constructive way until the nations con-

Curious Bits of Information Gleaned From Curious Places

The first permanent Atlantic cable as laid in 1866, connecting Ireland with Newfoundland. An earlier cable between these points was lost in construction, but later was recovered and completed. In 1868 a cable was laid from France to Duxbury, Mass., and in 1873 the fourth Atlantic cable connected Ireland and nventor of telegraphy, may be considered the inventor of the cable, although he had little to do with its mechanical construction. To Cyrus W. Field goes much of the credit, for its accomplishment was largely due to his foresight and energy.

Uncle Jeff Snow Says talk about sauerkraut havin' a kick in it, And all the work and outlay and it last week in two days and it didn't investment of the Idahe farmer, and have no effect on him no way whatsoevall the work and outlay and invest- er, so he told us at the Corners de-

Letters From the People

[Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed $60 words in length, and must be signed by the writer, whose mail address in full must accom-

THE HOUSE ACROSS THE WAY A Story Which, the Writer Tells The Journal, Is a True Story. Portland, Jan. 7 .- To the Editor of

The Journal—The house across the way is small and it stands vacant a great many more days than it is occupiis not a cheerful looking house, nor modern, but just house—something to shield one from the elements. The last tenant was a woman with three children, not really small children, to their merriment, especially those hours after school when they were all at home In one of their scrambles a front window was broken and in a little while an old quilt was stuffed into the hole. The woman, the mother, we never saw. We did not call. We paid no attention other than idle curiosity. Then one day we saw her take a street car-early, so that we had hardly got the sleep out of our eyes. So the mother worked in the city-cooked in a restaurant, we afterward found out. And so, when we chanced to be up so soon, we watched her take this early car, always before the dimmest light of day, but we could see her by the arc light. This went on for days and weeks. We had a good excuse now for not calling-the woman was never at home. We went over then, and we could se she was a very sick woman. An aunt was sent for, and the doctor. The doctor arrived in his big black automobile. It did not take him long to diagnose the case. The little woman lay with her face to the wall, still as death. The doctor departed in his fine automobile, and a neighbor woman came in and mentioned a hospital-the county hospital. Other automobiles came and went, all busy, all official. So many ton. had never stopped at the house across the way before. Then, about noon, came another, a different automobile, pure and white as the attendants carried the little woman ten- of linen. When her husband was govwithin, and they drove silently away. the battle against heavy odds. Then other automobiles stopped at the house across the way, and a team. The van of the furniture company dallied there awhile, till they had selected what furniture was theirs from the scant supply. The man with the team and took a trunk and some packed boxes. He came again later, taking unpacked boxes, fruit jars and various other articles, the last scattered possessions of the little woman. The family cat went in and out of the broken window, escaping from the freezing cold of he outside to no less a chill on the inside. The happy children were there no more, and it followed pedestrians inquiringly, not knowing what this was all about Then another automobile drove up in a day or two. A man jumped out, ran up the steps and measured the broken window. He was off in a minute and back again with a new pane, and in a jiffy the window was mended. The cat no longer went through it to the doubtful comfort on the inside, but stole under the house or followed pedestrians more questioningly than ever. Then the owner came-in an automo bile also. He swept the house clean, picked up scattered things here and there and then departed. A new "For Rent" sign adorns the front window and the house is all tipnations which are willing to try to help top for another fling at-comedy or

> REPLIES TO A CREDIT CRITIC Asserting That Condemnation of Fiat Money Is Ill Founded.

Imbler, Jan. 2 .- To the Editor of The Journal-Will Payne in the Saturday Evening Post of December 24 says we discover in our midst a movement to have the government turn out fiat money in a refined, modern form of bank credit. His first right-hander is to assert that anybody who had any sense ought to And a dude farm, to pass the with them and see what can be done not lest he be judged. His great argumaying to those people whose in- father and mother vividly apparent. thought along is a place in the Wil- along the lines of international betterhas killed its monarch and is in a state of revolution, its people fighting and killing one another and having no stacompare this great republic to Russia everything in a country, there is no on fiat paper money. Her factories are stopped with E. P. McDanial. He has out of jobs, as they are in this country. While stopping with him I met Heman snow peak as his visitors, explained is a happy augury that Great Britain Her furnaces are lighted and she is Geer, father of ex-Governor T. T. Geer, her funked cannon and swords. tested in this country. nor guns to fight with. With paper sense. We not only fought this war buried it elsewhere. but had the best times this country had ever seen. Those good times would have vent to taking in this greenback money had left not long real legal tender money we have.

Payne asks: Shall we give the farmo. Now is there a man of good sense. as Payne says, that can deny that some-Concentrated wealth is not going to be taxed to pay our war debt. Their money is fast going into interest-bearing bonds and other securities to evade taxation. See how interest on the bonds has gone up since they have got them out of the hands of the common people. We, our children Now for the remedy. We issued $50 per capita during the Civil war. Let us ran brought in some secondhand sawmill machinery and hired us to help set up be reserved and keep on the safe side and issue $40 per capita, pay off these interest-bearing bonds, stop this taxing us to death and put honest, full legal tender money into the federal reserve banks to house in Wallowa county. Before that give the farmer credit. My nearest all the cabins had been made of logs. neighbor, a hard working farmer, whose While we were building our cabins a field, went breke. They could not save brought nearly nothing under the winter supply of deer meat. We figured sheriff's hammer. It made the tears on being gone several days, but we ors eyes. Two more killed a wagonload of deer the first eye just gone broke, afternoon, loaded up our wagon and of our neighbors have just gone broke, and they are going broke all over this broad land by tens of thousands. The bond is a piece of paper on the back of which is written the law that makes

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE Hot stuff, we'll say, when Pepper can

If the Russ and Finns fight there may a lot of rushin' fins in the slough If there were more housewives in congress it might be possible to "can" all the Newberrys, if you get the idea. If the wool situation improves what effect will it have, we wonder, on the stuff our hand-me-down clothes are made of?

Some people are trying to put the lib-erty of the press where some others would like to put the freedom of the It is a strange coincidence that stand-ardization of textbooks for our schools will reflect itself in the bank books of parents. Although it was a nice thing to do, we can't get a be of joy out of reading the Japanese newspaper devoted to Ore-

Hogs and steers ruling higher, says the esteemed market editor. At any rate they have quite a command over the pocketbook of the wage earner.

Included among the out-of-town guests | Eastern Oregon guests at the Imperial at the Imperial are J. A. Stankovich of include Ben Taylor of Mitchell, J. D. Bandon, Guy Butler of Albany, I. French and Martin Reed of Heppner. Chandler of Richland, Ray Farmer of Mrs. F. H. Douglas of Arlington, Mr. Salem, Judge T. A. McBride of Salem, and Mrs. F. B. Olding and T. B. John-Idris Boyd of Albany, Arthur B. Gray son of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. demption of warrants, owing to delin-of Anchorage, Alaska; W. F. Wall of Lang of Shaniko, Mrs. C. N. Bilyeu Jefferson, C. W. Barrick of Tillamook and Mrs. C. E. Howes of The Dalles. and L. C. and R. R. Thompson of Carl- R. E. Grimes of Bend, D. A. Grady of the Capital City, is registered at the Hotel Benson. Mrs. C. G. Doney, wife of Dr. Doney.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fry of Salem are at the Seward. Mr. Fry is a pioneer druggist of the Capital City.

domiciled at the Seward. Mrs. L. W. Pettman of Eugene is at the Seward.

Mrs. H. K. Graves of Salem is visiting n Portland.

are Portland visitors. A. F. Edwards of Reedsport is in Portland on business. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Skyles of Astoria

It is only about once in the lifetime of the "oldest resident" that Hood River can show a whole unbroken month of sleigh riding. For that is what we have had this year to date.—Hood River News.

SIDELIGHTS

No doubt when a Russian in Evashelkvitch reads the papers telling of the flood in the Stillaquamish river in Washington, he wonders how the natives pronounce it, and survive.—Medford Mail Tribune.

The Medford office is now in the first the $4000 requirement in postal receipts.

The 1921 school census for Lake county shows 1238 children of school age, an increase of 96 over the previous year.

The public is beginning to wonder what the condition of the paved roads of Oregon, upon the building of which so many millions have been expended, will be 10 years hence.—Woodburn Independent believe, to give preference to those grown in Oregon. Our summer weather is so markedly different from that of most sections of the country that it counts to have acclimated seed.—Coquille Valley Sentine! As matters stand, it is no wonder the farmers are organizing for cooperative selling and legislative influence, how-ever much other economic classes may deprecate such action. The only wonder deprecate such action. The only works is that they did not organize long ago.—Albany Democrat.

the esteemed market editor. At any rate they have quite a command over the pocketbook of the wage earner.

Now that a Philadelphia lawyer has been selected to fill Boies Penrose's place in the senate it should be an easy matter to unravel the various tangles.

In all probability Eugene is building as many homes now as at any time in its history, and the demand is still far ahead of the supply. The next decade is going to witness a growth in population and industry far ahead of anything known in the past.—Eugene Register.

. MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Random Observations About Town

Mrs. W. P. Lord and her daughter

Elizabeth of Salem are guests at the Seward. Mrs. Lord is an authority on snow that covered the pavement. Two the growth of flax and the manufacture derly on a stretcher and placed her ernor of Oregon she started the campaign for Oregon-grown flax and has She died that night, having given up worked early and late ever since toward making the industry a success.

> Azalea Byars from Goldendale is creeting old-time Salem and Portland mond are taking in the sights of Port-

R. P. Boise, well known resident of president of Willamette university,

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bach of Salem

Ontario, R. G. Jordan and R. J. Eng. strom of Prineville and Robert Reed of Lostine.

Fred C. Caples, Alaska sourdough, former steamboat captain and pilot on various Alaskan rivers, stampeder and musher, former O. A. C. student but of late rancher, is up from Columbia City to meet old-time friends from Corvallis, Campbell of the University of Oregon. former steamboat captain and pilot on late rancher, is up from Columbia City to meet old-time friends from Corvallis, Salem and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stevens of Redland and are guests at the Portland.

Manuel Friedly, Umatilla county wheat raiser, is down from Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Anderson of Corvallis are visiting friends in Portland. H. Chandler of Lakeview is a Port-visiting Portland friends. I. B. Cushman of Cushman is in Portland on business. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clark are up from Nehalem for a brief visit in Portland.

S. L. Brooks and C. C. Welch of Imbler are business visitors in Portland. G. L. Shull is down from the Round-Up City on business, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mason are here from the hustling town of Helix. OBSERVATIONS AND IMPRESSIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

By Fred Lockley

A Wallows Valley pioneer who went into that country shortly after Chief Joseph went out of it tells Mr. Lockley of early experiences few head of sower from Viry Valley bounds and the country shortly after the country shortly a there—among other things, of an en with au outlaw who undertook to steal a and how he didn't quite get away with

George S. Craig is one of the pioneers Masterson, now living at Elgin, of Wallowa valley. "I was born at Mexi-co, Mo.," said Mr. Craig. "This important event-important at least to me -occurred on April 13, 1854. I was know better. Mr. Payne should judge married when I was 22 to Sally B. Dishman. We had lived on neighboring farms and had gone to school together Right after the birth of our first child There's lots more land and it wen't be struck out, with my brother-in-law, R. P. Dishman, for Oregon. He had been bility of government. A man who will in Oregon before and was acquainted up in 'the Cove,' in Union county. We went makes me feel almost like challenging directly to the Grand Rende valley, Germany- going from Portland to Umatilla by boat knocked out and crippled, doing business and from there to Union by wagon. We laboring people are not lived in Portland for several years past. making agricultural implements out of Dunham Wright, one of the finest men Her that ever wore shoe leather, who lives are selling in all parts of the now at Medical Springs in Union county world. Her toys were selling this Jim Payne, Dr. Mason, W. R. Miner and Christmas in La Grande and Portland a lot of the other old times. I forgot to for about half what ours were. This tell you that in traveling from where in the end of that gun. It looked big greenback money has been thoroughly Pendleton now is to Meacham we saw several men gathered by the ro war broke out we had neither money who told us that George Coggan, a race horse man, had just been killed legal tender they financed the war. I Indians. We stayed till he was buried. suppose Lincoln and congress didn't have I think they moved his body later and

"My brother-in-law and I took join stayed with us but the money power claims on the west shore of Wallowa got into the saddle, as it is now. They lake. General O. O. Howard's soldiers and burning it and putting the ashes Chief Joseph and his band of Nes Perce into interest bearing bonds. The green- Indians. All the women and the children back party grew so fast they got scared were forted up in the stockade at Prairie and congress passed a law saying the Creek, at Alder, or in the lower valley, further destruction of the greenbacks near where the town of Wallowa is now shall be stopped, and $346,000,000 was located. There were about 30 families saved from the fire, and they are still in the valley at that time. Among them doing business at the old stand, the best were the Wrights, Roups, Mastersons, money we ever had, and these greenbacks Johnsons, Tullys, Brambietts, T. H. and our gold certificates are the only Veasey and some others. My brother-inlaw and I worked together to build the see if it had a gun in it. two cabins, one on his claim and one on me put it on, and kept his gun on me on mine. The land had not been surtill I got my team hitched up and was veyed, so all we had was a squatter's ready to haul the rails back. ers credit through the federal reserve on mine. The land had not been surright, As I was working on an old Indian rode up. I had just come from Missouri and didn't know anything about Indians, except I had a theory that you ought to kill them whenever you saw them; so I reached for my gui and took aim at this old Indian second later he was talking Chinon gon as fast as he could talk and both of his arms were high in the air. I finally caught on that he was me for tobacco, se I put up my gun.

"Stanley Hayes and Alexander Cocl couple of fellows from Arkansas drove up and asked us if we didn't want to knock off for a day or so and on being gone several days, but "I sent for my wife and baby. They came the next April. Instead of coming by San Francisco and Portland, as I had come, my wife came to the end of the stage line at Kelton, Utah, and the stage line at Kelton, Utah, and the rest of the 700 miles by stage, holding her baby in her lap. That baby, Willney Translation of the returned."

lew head of cows from Jim Masterson, buying them on time. My brother-inlaw had no more money than I had, so ne got a job herding sheep for J. A.

"While he was gone an outlaw moved into his cabin. I wasn't looking for any trouble, so I went to see my brother-inlaw and told him about it. I asked him if he hadn't better come back and run the outlaw off his place. He said. much trouble to build a cabin. We might get hurt if we got in a mixup with him. He can have the place. There are 700 ralls there I would like for you to haul to your place for safe-keeping.' The next morning I hitched up my team to the bob sled and put in the day hauling rails. That night after supper someone rede up to my gate and called for me ing into the muzzle of a needle gun. Talk about a snake charming a birdlook away from the hole enough to stick my fist in. I noticed he rigger. He said, 'Are you the fellow that came over and stole my rails today?" I told him I had helped cut those brother-in-law. He said, 'If you don't want a hole blown through you big enough to drive a four-horse through you will hitch your team to your bob sled right now and haul those rails back where you get them.' I told him than hauling rails, but I explained that hat, and I asked him if I couldn't go in and get my hat and coat. He said, go in and get your gun, You will haul those rails just the way you My wife came running out. He made her hand the coat to him to

She said, 'As long as this man points his gun at you I am going to stay with you.' That bothered the outlaw, and he didn't know what to do. He told her it was cold and she would take cold, but she wouldn't get off the sled. I couldn't make her, and had been married and knew en are, for he shook his Alexander Coch- women are, for he shook his head and ondhand sawmill said, 'I guess it's no use trying to make s to help set up her do what she don't want to. We will drive down to Old Man Tully's, and if and in military or naval service. you will promise in his presence to re-turn the rails I won't make you haul them tonight." We drove down to Tully's place and called him out, and I promised to return the rails the next morning. The outlaw told us we could go on home and if I didn't keep my promise I would "As soon as I got home I saddled

He got out a warrant for the outlaw

"Just as I was starting jumped on the sied. I said to her, 'Go back and take care of baby.' She

A petition with 1500 signatures has been filed at La Grande demanding the recall of the city commissioners. The trouble arises over the water question.

The Oregon Country

OREGON

Northwest Happenings in Brief Form for Busy Reader.

There were $1 weddings

ounty during the year 1921.

Because lawyers sometimes change their minds, Cottage Grove may hold a special election for the purpose of vali-dating an issue of bonds voted, issues and sold in 1916.

A gain in members of 201 was ex-erienced by the First Christian church of Eugene during the past 12 months, according to the report of the pastor, Dr. E. V. Stivers.

J. C. Kreigh, a trapper recently ar-rested in the Modoc region with the carcasses of eight deer in his possession, was fined $250 and sentenced to 150 days in the Lake county jail.

The 160 men who struck at the Spaulding sawmill in Newberg 10 days ago have returned to work, being assured that the cut of 10 per cent in wages did not apply to any $5-a-day men.

a short time, work on the building must cease, according to Henry Meyers, man-ager of the building operations. Lake county at the present time is and John Cerboff and the configuation of their stills. Because of the rapidly growing inter-

WASHINGTON Burglars broke into the store of E W. Brigham at Menio Friday night and Twenty-three sacks of Canadian whiskey, said to be worth $3000, were seized at Spokane Friday in a car of coal from Fernie, B. C.

More than 500 tons of cull apples were processed at the dehydrating plant at Walla Walla by the Valley Fruit company during the past few months.

Arrangements for poles and other ma-

Caspar Foster Wold, 29, a sailer on the United States tender Heather, lost his life in Neah bay Friday when a small boat in which he was proceeding to shore capsized.

Alger Lutes was arrested Friday on his father-in-law's ranch near Tenino by the Thurston county sheriff and is held in jail at Olympia in connection with the robbery of the Halfway State bank at Mount Clemons, Mich., last December.

Nampa has a century club, the twenty-irst anniversary of which was held Sunday.

manager.

Dr. L. D. Riggs, for several years official physician at the Indian sanitari-um at Lapwal, has received a com-mission in the federal public health serv-ice at Las Animas, Colo.

handled the sale of the $490,000 road and bridge bonds of Nez Perce county, has received and turned over to the county treasurer $413,913.22, the proceeds of the sale of the bonds.

From the Spokane Spokaman-Review, makes less difference where tions stand than whether they look ments does not reside so much in its purpose as in its existence. Before years ago it could hardly have been thought of. The conference is evidence that the nations are not looking back to war, their former mathed of adjusting differences, but are looking forward to international discussion of difficulties as a new method of preserving ernments should be contrasted with the spirit of the past, a past within our memory and experience. In 1882 it was We will of its people ought always to be armed thought made the theory do less or larger degree and in varying ways in every European country. Today that theory has few advocates outside of Germany.

governments and peoples, it appeared even in the execrated Paris treaty of peace, for the nations professed it as at Washington. It speaks in the treaty between America, England, France and didn't have any jail up there, so the constable arrested the fellow and after keeping him with him for a day and a night guarding him I guess he got sick of his company and turned him loose nd in the Far East for 10 years. It is the resolve, not merely the wish, that peace shall be. It dares not draw back from the new path on which the ill be 10 years hence.—Woodburn Inlependent.

Tax levies for 1922 in incorporated cities of Tillamook county are Tillamok, 52.9 mills; Bay City, 51.2 mills; believe to give preference to those grown mills.

Mrs. C. E. Copple, wife of a Hood River orchardist and banker, has just received from D. Tancred of Kent, Wash., a White Leghorn cockerel for which she paid $250.

Unless delinquent pledges to the new Salem hospital are forthcoming within practically without funds for the re-A moonshine gang among a small colony of Russians on the outskirts of Springfield is believed to have been broken up with the arrest of John Kolza took jewelry valued at $150. William D. Gregory was confirmed by the senate Friday for register of the land office at Walls Walls.

H. Chandler of Lakeview is a Port-land business visitor.

Mrs. E. B. Miller and daughter are Spokane's annual interstate fair will be held September 4 to 9, 1922. Spokane business men will be asked to subscribe a $20,000 operating fund.

Total deposits in the four banks of Wenatchee as reported for December 31 are $5,519,531, an increase of $1,864,723 over those reported December 31, 1920. Seattle is to have a big industrial show the last week of next July, in which Portland, Tacoma and other Northwestern manufacturing cities will terial have been completed by the Ilwaco Light & Power company for extending its electric lines through to Ocean Park and Nehcotta.

While working at Seattle with a gang of men preparing giant drums filled with scrap iron for shipment to the Orient, A. B. Wilkerson, 28, was caught under an overturned drum and instantly killed.

Harvey Dean, 45, O.-W. R. & N. conductor, is in a Spokane hospital with a broken collar bone and his skull frac-tured in four places, having fallen 15 feet through a trestle near Rockford the night of December 27. He has never to come out. I went out in my shirt-sleeves and without my hat. When I got to the sate and looked up at the fellow on horseback I found I was look-

An additional rural route has been authorized at Emmett, which will give delivery to more than 100 families which have heretofore had no service. Delivery will start March 3.

Records and reports filed in the of-fice of the state bureau of public ac-counts show that the total bonded in-debtedness of Twin Falls county and its subdivisions is $5,784,387.09. The Lewiston National bank, which handled the sale of the $400,000 road and

MEN'S NEW MOOD