

ECCLES FAMILY DISPUTE MAY END IN RECEIVERSHIP

Rumor had it today that David C. Eccles, as a result of a family quarrel between himself and his two brothers, W. J. and Royal Eccles, may ask for the appointment of a receiver for the huge David Eccles company of Utah. The company is the custodian of the millions left by David Eccles Sr., in which the three sons share and share alike.

W. J. Eccles is believed to have left Portland on the 5 o'clock O-W, R. & N. train for the East Thursday evening, avoiding service by deputy sheriffs of papers in the sensational suit filed in the circuit court Thursday afternoon by David C. Eccles, charging W. J. and Royal Eccles with "converting to their own use" $100,000 of stock belonging to David C. Eccles, his wife.

David C. Eccles, a well-understood, claims that on November 3 his brothers entered his office in the Yeon building, broke into his desk and left with $100,000 worth of stock. They got out of Portland, it is claimed, and did not return until Thursday. David C. Eccles heard of their return and immediately went to District Attorney Myers to ask that they be arrested on charges of larceny.

Get Past Today, Friday, 13th, Then Congratulations

New York, Jan. 13.—(I. N. S.)—Today was one of the most momentous days of the year—Friday the thirteenth.

But the 1922 calendar bids out hope.

If this day passes without disaster there will be nothing further to worry about for nine months, until October 13, when the same circumstances again occur.

Sentiment for Aid In Columbia Basin Irrigation Project

Cooperation of Portland with Spokane in the commercial aspects of developing the Columbia basin irrigation project was recommended Thursday by the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

A committee will be appointed to work with the Spokane chamber, but the question of an appropriation of $3000 to the fund to employ General George Goethals, Panama canal builder, to survey the project, was left for action by the chamber's board of directors.
