

CLATSOP SHERIFF FACES INDICTMENT

Astoria, Or., Jan. 12.—Ole Nelson, sheriff of Clatsop county, was indicted on two counts Thursday evening when the grand jury returned its report to Judge Eakin. The sheriff is named on charges of assault and battery and of vagrancy in relation to disorderly conduct. The indictment grew out of the alleged mistreatment of Miss Elsie Mihal, 18-year-old girl, by the sheriff November 22.

Two civil suits for damages already have been filed in the case. These suits alleged that the sheriff while "grossly intoxicated," entered the home of the girl, broke into her bedroom by force, dragged her from a bed she was occupying with two other women, slandered and abused her, causing her to flee through a window to the roof of a neighboring house. The complaints also charged the sheriff with false arrest.

The grand jury report scored the county court and the county departments for alleged extravagance in the expenditure of public funds.

Six other indictments and one not true bill were returned by the grand jury, charging larceny and burglary.

Ervin Is Elected Head of Tailors; Convention Ends

K. S. Ervin of Portland was elected president of the Pacific Coast Tailors' association Thursday at the final business session of the convention, which closed Thursday night with a ball, following the annual banquet at the Hotel. Other officers chosen are: Vice president, Louis C. Lyon of San Francisco; secretary, William G. McMahon of San Francisco; chairman board of directors, George Goldsmith of Los Angeles. Tom Reid and Oscar M. Smith of Portland were added to the directorate. The 1922 convention will be held at Oakland, with Seattle the convention city in 1923. After a talk by John E. Gratke, the convention endorsed the 1922 exposition in Portland.

Postoffice Gains Largest on Record

Ashland, Jan. 12.—The receipts for the Ashland postoffice for 1921 were $18,484.41, the largest in the history of the office. The increase in the last quarter over the same period of 1920 was $794.23. The receipts of 1921 over that of 1920 shows an increase of $819.93.

Resignation of Trustees Delayed

Boston, Jan. 12.—(I. N. S.)—The resignation of Herbert W. Bustace and Paul Harvey, trustees of the Christian Science Publishing society, were held up today by Judge Crosby's delay in filing his interlocutory decree of yesterday permitting them to do so. Judge Crosby also took up the matter of the trustees accounting before appointing successors of the trustees.

Frances A. Holman, Pioneer of Oregon, Succumbs to Illness

Miss Frances A. Holman, Oregon pioneer and a member of one of the oldest families in Portland, died Thursday morning at her home, 509 Taylor street, at the age of 79 years. Miss Holman was for many years a teacher in what is now the Shattuck school.

She was born in Missouri, June 25, 1842, and came with her parents in 1846 across the plains to Oregon City. The family later removed to Pacific City and came to Portland in 1857.

Miss Holman was an active member of the Oregon Pioneer association and was also a worker in the First Presbyterian church. She is survived by two brothers, Frederick V. Holman and George F. Holman, well known Portland attorneys, and a sister, Miss Kate E. Holman.

Death was due to heart disease, although Miss Holman had been suffering from a cold for several weeks.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Saturday at 2 o'clock, with Dr. Harold L. Bowman, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

Install Lights in Caves; Fund Fixed

Washington, Jan. 12.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Senator Stanfield Thursday introduced a bill to authorize the forest service to install an electric lighting system for Oregon caves at a cost of $50,000, this to include a small power development, residence for the guides and preparation of the entrances and steps to and within the caves.

Stolen Papers Are Recovered by Bank

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 12.—Valuable papers stolen from the Middleton State bank Monday night were found Wednesday afternoon under the platform of the Oregon Short Line station at that place, in a burlap sack. It is believed that examination proved that they were not negotiable and so they were abandoned by the robbers. Finger prints on the papers will be used as clues in tracing the crime.

DEPUTY SHERIFF RESIGNS
Toledo, Or., Jan. 12.—Ted McElwain Wednesday tendered his resignation as chief deputy under sheriff Mrs. Maybel Simpson. Sheriff Simpson immediately appointed A. J. McMillan to fill the vacancy. McMillan is an ex-service man, having served with the United States engineers in France.

33-CENT DUTY ON WOOL IS SCHEDULE

Washington, Jan. 12.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Senator Smoot is drafting for the senate finance committee the wool schedule of the tariff bill, and it can be stated authoritatively that it will provide for a specific duty of 33 cents a pound on scoured wool content. Acceptance of this rate by the Republican majority of the finance committee is said to be assured, scoring a complete victory to this point for the agricultural bloc, which was dissatisfied with the Fordney rate of 35 cents, coupled with a limitation that the rate shall not exceed 35 per cent and ad valorem.

The senate provision will strike out this limitation, leaving no restriction upon the 33 cent rate. This the wool growers contend, is about equivalent to the 11 cent rate of the Payne-Aldrich law.

Senator Stanfield considers that the growers have won completely so far as the committee is concerned, but expects a determined fight on the floor of the senate.

Ohio Man Slated To Succeed Miller

Washington, Jan. 12.—(U. P.)—W. E. Halley, clerk of the Ohio senate, is slated to become secretary of the Republican national committee, succeeding Clarence R. Miller, who died in St. Paul this week, according to party leaders here today. Halley was associated with the Harding campaign organization in 1920.
