

MILTON KLEPPER ENTERS RACE FOR SEAT IN SENATE

Formal announcement of his candidacy for the state senate from Multnomah county today by Milton R. Klepper, who will enter the contest for the Republican nomination for that office at the primary election of May 19, next. He will contend for the place now held by Senator John Gill. Multnomah county will have two senators and one joint senator to nominate and elect at the coming primary and general elections. The term of Senator Gill expires by limitation, while it will be necessary to elect a successor for the remainder of the term of the late Senator Wilson T. Hume, which term will expire with January, 1925.

state. I favor fewer laws and proper respect for the law and its enforcement; lower taxes, common sense legislation, square deal to all, and I am absolutely opposed to freak legislation of whatever sort and nature. I am a Republican and believe in the principles and ideals of the Republican party. His slogan is, "Fewer laws, lower taxes, state development."

Aliens Are Being Rounded Up Here

Raphael P. Bonham, chief inspector of the immigration service, has rounded up about 19 alien inmates of state institutions who are subject to deportation and three in the insane asylum will be deported as soon as the necessary steps can be taken, and five or six inmates of the penitentiary will be sent out of the country when they have completed their terms.

HOT LAKE ARRIVALS

Hot Lake, Jan. 18.—Arrivals at Hot Lake sanatorium Saturday were Mrs. D. J. McLean and Miss A. Perich, La Grande; Mrs. L. Le Jeune, Miss Le Jeune, George M. Ailford and Mrs. Ailford, Portland; A. W. Brunson, Starbuck, Wash.; W. R. Crow, Portland; Mrs. A. P. Parker, Heppner; W. R. Kivette, La Grande; E. G. Corwin, Seattle; A. E. Davis and Miss Myrtle Davis, Pine City, Wash.

Elks to Stage Show At Multnomah Farm

The Portland Elks will present their "Purple Follies" and minstrel show at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Multnomah county farm. Arrangements for the production were made by Charles Rudeen, chairman of the board of county commissioners. Charlie Starr, Billy Foy, K. C. Reiner, Frank Walker, Pinkerton Day, Tommy Tobin, Frank Honnessy and other favorite Elk singers and comedians, most of them ex-professionals, will participate.

DEY VIOLATORS ARRESTED

In a series of arrests Tuesday afternoon police took into custody six alleged violators of the prohibition ordinance. Each was released on $250 bail. Those arrested are Paul Sedar, Second and Everett streets; Eli Fovelich, 85 North Second street; Mrs. Dorothy Milak, 249 Everett street; Mike Loxo, 48 North Third street; Guy Falsetta, 287 1/2 First street, and William V. Debellis, 266 Second street.

INDIAN BOYS RUN AWAY

Police are searching here for three boys who ran away from the Chemawa Indian school Monday night. They are Leo Louie, 17; Louis Reont, 15, and Louis Indore, 17.

DRUG ADDICT SENT TO JAIL

Jack Howie, alleged incorrigible drug addict, was sentenced to 180 days in the city jail on a charge of vagrancy by Judge Rossman Tuesday afternoon.

INDUSTRIES WEEK PLANS COMPLETE; GOVERNOR TO ACT

With the selection of Governor and Mrs. Olcott to head the reception committee which will be present in the state exhibit room, Oregon building, Monday afternoon for the public reception arranged by state and city organizations, plans are complete for the opening event in connection with Oregon industries week.

In addition to Governor and Mrs. Olcott, the committee has been selected and includes Senator and Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Maris, Leslie Butler of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. VanDuzer. Mrs. Charles H. Castner of Hood River and H. H. Haines will greet the guests at the door. Mrs. Winnie Braden, state exhibit agent, will be hostess at the reception and she will be assisted by Mrs. Alexander H. Thompson, president of the Portland Federation of Women's Clubs; Sydney B. Vincent, manager of the Oregon tourist and information bureau; D. C. Freeman, manager of the Associated Industries of Oregon; and W. D. B. Dodson, general manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Early this week the invitations for the reception were sent out and it is anticipated that a large number of guests will be present from outside the city. The visitors will be taken to the Green room on the seventh floor of the Oregon building, following the reception, to see the Oregon products store and the 100 per cent furnished Oregon products bungalow rooms. The exhibit is being arranged through the cooperation of the Federation of Women's Club and the Associated Industries of Oregon.

Jefferson High May Get More Classroom

Additional class rooms for Jefferson high school may be secured if the plans for removing the cafeteria to the present space occupied by the heating plant of Director George E. Thomas are adopted by the board. Thomas wants to remove the machinery outside and use this room, 104x36 feet, for the cafeteria, and to divide the space now occupied by the cafeteria into three classrooms, so as to help care for the 3200 student enrollment he expects next year.

FILES PETITION

Cornelius P. Starr, proprietor of a confectionery store in Eugene, took advantage of the federal bankruptcy act Tuesday. He filed a petition for the discharge from payment of his debts, which total $1042.91. His assets are $125.

Ship Board Agent Agrees to Settle With School Board

The United States shipping board, through its local representative, has agreed to settle with the school board for the misfit bases on five boilers purchased by the district No. 1 for use in the schools, $450 in trade for each boiler. Director George E. Thomas said Tuesday. This agreement awaits the final approval of the Washington office of the shipping board and the school board. The boilers were purchased by Thomas in St. Johns. One of them has been installed in the new Buckman school; two were delivered for the new James John, and two are still in the hands of the shipping board which refuses to deliver them until it receives payment for the other boilers. The school board found in the case of the one installed at Buckman, cost $400 to adjust. The school board withheld payment on the other boilers until the shipping board agreed to stand good this expense.

METHODISTS PLAN TWO SESSIONS AT NORTHWEST MEET

To accommodate the throngs of people who are expected to attend the opening session of the Northwest Methodist convention here Thursday night, arrangements have been made to have two meetings. The delegates and general public have been invited to the mass meeting in the First Methodist Episcopal church at 7:30 p. m. All Sunday school and Epworth League workers will attend a special session at the White Temple at the same hour. At the Methodist church the Kimball Chorus Choir will furnish special music and Thomas Elliott will give a devotional address on "Devotional Life in the Home." Dr. Edward Laird Mills will speak on "The Disarmament Conference and Missions," and Rev. E. D. Kohlstedt of Chicago will give a stereoscopic address on "The Centenary to Date." The workers assembled at the White Temple will hear two of the leading men in the Methodist denomination, Rev. W. S. Bovard of Chicago, general secretary of the board of Sunday schools, and Rev. Charles E. Guthrie, general secretary of the board of Epworth League. Dr. B. Earle Parker, new pastor of the First Methodist church, will give the devotional address and the Kimball chorus choir will furnish special music. The women of the First Methodist church will serve dinner in the church Thursday and Friday nights and lunch on Friday noon. During the Thursday evening dinner hour a symposium on the recent national Methodist convention at Detroit will be given by the Revs. W. W. Youngson, S. A. Dandord, D. H. Leech, E. E. Gilbert and R. N. Avison. Friday's program will commence at 8:30 a. m. in the First Methodist church and continue all day, closing at night with addresses by Bishops W. O. Shepard of Portland and H. Lester Smith of India. The purpose of this gathering is to consider the missionary educational and benevolent work of the Methodist Episcopal church, according to Dr. A. L. Howarth, convention director.

Suspect Is Held On Theft Charge

With the arrest of Chauncey Butler Monday evening by Sergeant Keegan and Patrolman Taylor, police believe that the last of the Mount Scott gang of auto accessory thieves which was responsible for the theft of several hundred dollars' worth of property, has been taken. Butler waived a preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Rossman and was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of larceny, with bail fixed at $1000.

WOMAN'S ESTATE $150,000 Eugene, Jan. 18.—Fixing a value on the estate of Madelon Sheldon Leffingwell, deceased, of $150,000, a petition has been filed in probate court for the appointment of administrators. The estate consists of timber lands in Lane county. James Sheldon Riley, 35, a son, is sole heir.

Opera Reservations Beat All Records

More than 300 letters with orders for tickets to the performances of the Chicago Grand Opera company were received Tuesday at the box office of The Auditorium. The mail order sale opened Tuesday and Hal M. White, manager of the building, said this, without doubt, is the largest preliminary sale in the history of The Auditorium. The Chicago company is booked to play five performances here, beginning March 22.

INJURED BY FALL Shipping on the snow-covered sidewalk in front of his home at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, Carl Morgan, 21, 1261 East Harrison street, fell and fractured his left arm. He was taken to Emanuel hospital.

Advertisement for Meier & Frank Co. featuring 'Half Price Days' and 'January Clearance Sales'. The ad includes the text: 'All Cold Weather Needs Reduced!', 'All 85c Victor Records Now 75c', 'DO YOU WANT TO MAKE ONE DOLLAR DO THE WORK OF TWO?', 'That Is What You Can Do on an Average on Hundreds of Odd Lots of Good Merchandise Now on Sale While Quantities Last at Average 50 Per Cent and More Off', 'HALF PRICE DAYS', 'Now in Progress Affect Certain Items of Dependable Goods in Nearly Every One of the Store's Hundred Departments', 'IN ADDITION TO', 'Every Article Reduced', '(Contract Lines and Groceries Excepted)', 'In Meier & Frank's Greatest of All', 'January Clearance Sales', 'The Sale That Saves You Money on Everything', 'Our Windows Tell the Story', 'WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES', 'Meier & Frank Co.', 'Men { Any Suit or Overcoat } $33 in Our Stocks, at . . .', 'Still Going Strong! Still the Best Sale in Town!', 'THIRD FLOOR'.

Advertisement for The First National Bank of Portland Oregon. The ad includes the text: 'Has Your Baby a Bank?', 'WHAT will your baby be in twenty or thirty years? Do you ever picture him as a leader of men, at the head of his own business?', 'In the habit-forming period of childhood your baby can be taught the principles that will help him to be thrifty and independent.', 'Start him on the road to success with a First National Home Savings Bank. Teach him how to put coins in the slots! When he gets a little older, show him how he can see through little holes and tell how many pennies and nickels he has saved.', 'These Home Savings Banks were chosen for our customers because of their usefulness. They have a compartment for each denomination of coins. They are also very nicely finished in nickel and are as attractive as they are serviceable.', 'A savings account with one dollar will entitle you to one of these banks for him.', 'The First National is on Fifth and Stark. The Savings Department is on the ground floor, right hand as you enter.', 'Go to the Savings New Account Window. You will be courteously received and the account of your future "Business man" or "College girl" will be started.', 'THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND OREGON', 'THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK WEST OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS'.