SCHEMERS DANCE IS DEFENDED BY P.-T. HEAD

Mrs. J. F. Hill Denies Charge Made by Rev. C. T. Wilson That School Girls Check Corsets; Says Dances Supervised.

Dances in public school buildings which have stirred up Methodist ministers into initiating a campaign to have the community school gatherings weeded out as unbecomingly public morals and decency were stanchly defended Wednesday night by Mrs. J. F. Hill, president of the Portland Parent-Teacher council at a public hearing before the board of education.

Wilson's allegation that the Parent-Teacher association had failed in its duty of supervising the dances was vigorously denied by Mrs. Hill, who expressed herself at a loss to understand where information leading to such shocking and disgraceful charges could have originated.
